FOREWORD

[TO THE FIRST & SECOND EDITIONS]

After sending the first edition to press, the compilers have learned that their impetus Yossef Bodansky, one of the great conspirators with a poison pen, has written another book on terrorism -- called Terrorists. Though, Bodansky is positioned in America to be considered an authority on terrorism, his knowledge is only based upon conjecture and that which he and his Zionist co-conspirators are able to manufacture in their attempts to discredit and destroy the character of good people the world over. Why else would one man continuously write so many books on the same information and never introducing anything new. Bodansky's aim is only to keep alive the same old, Zionist lies.

The research for the first edition and its subsequent publication has opened a vast exposure to material and human resources. There was such a tremendous response of interest that opened new resource avenues. This showed us that there are quite a few people and organizations who are aware of the conspiracy of the New World Order. In this second edition, we have included additional information and references that we reviewed after the first publication. We feel that this added supporting materials gives strength to the knowledge that there are men in the world today as from the beginning of time with aim and desire for world dominance. These very same men will sit with the devil to achieve this goal.

However, we declare ourselves champions and protectors of truth. We offer refutations to all the lies Bodansky and his co-conspirators has published in his books or have spread in the media throughout the world. And we expose their true plan before the world. With the Help of God Almighty and by His Leave, we pray for success in this mission that truth will prevail.

PREFACE

This book contains selected irrefutable facts taken from a vast resource of materials compiled by others who have attempted to alert the world of the Zionist conspiracy. What we present here will prove undoubtedly the truth of Zionist hatred and its plotting against mankind. At the same time, we will prove the benevolence of Muslims and their desire to live in peace and harmony with their fellow creatures in God's creation.

There are also a number of articles and writings from media print and publications that give illustrative examples of malicious fabrications against Muslims with the full intent to defame and degrade our religion, Al-Islam. These historical evidences present a clear case of methodical and calculated plots to manipulate public opinion in the Western world. More important, we will show how these conspirators manipulate the so-called guardians of law and the policy makers in government who are entrusted with safeguarding the security, trust and honor of all its law abiding citizens of this country.

In particular, the compilers have presented the case of the founding chairman and members of the Quranic Open University (QOU), who have in recent months received unfounded negative press in America. The history, activities and program descriptions of the organization has been presented here in order to give the readers true insight into the nature and lifestyle of its Muslim membership, and to give illustrative examples of how the Zionist conspirators manufacture lies to destroy the good work of the Muslims and to divide them from friendship with their Christian brethren.

While reading this book, please keep in mind that the authors have endeavored to bring together facts from various resources, showing that many others, besides themselves, have discovered and attempted to reveal the devious aims of Zionist Israel. It is only by the mercy of Almighty God that these courageous people lived to tell their stories against these powerful and formidable foes, who are in actuality enemies to all mankind.

We are presenting in these few pages irrefutable evidence which will serve as a warning to the godfearing. On a global scale, the World Trade Center bombing, though no less tragic, can be seen as a minor affair as only one part of their conspiracy and the price they are willing to pay in lost of lives. In comparison, the scandalous Gulf War was a larger awakening call to the whole world in proving such a plot could be executed so swiftly. A plot that turned brother against brother, country against country and in which millions of lives were lost. This was not just a simple loss and a rude awakening for Iraq or the Muslim world, but for all humanity, especially in the United States by affecting its domestic and international economics, and its foreign relations with many other countries.

Americans will have to reclaim their constitutional rights of government: "a government of the people, for the people and by the people." They must reclaim their government from conspirators who have only their own devious goals in mind, and no care for the interest of the American people. Hopefully, after reading the accounts given in these pages, there will be no remaining doubts for its readers and all will become active participants in reclaiming a world justice, honor and freedom for all.

Regarding the Writers/Editors

Allama M. Haseeb A. Haque is currently a Muslim chaplain for the New York State Penal System. He is also a spokesman for the Muslims of the Americas and Executive Editor of the Insight Newsletter. He has written and edited numerous articles on world events and Islamic themes for this publication and others. Allama M. Haseeb took his undergraduate studies at Queens College in New York. He has received diplomas for completion of Islamic studies from Pakistani Jamia and the Quranic Open University of Pakistan.

Dr. Mrs. Suhir A. Ahmad, Deputy Director of the Quranic Open University in Washington, D.C. and Secretary General of Banaa Tunnoor International, Inc. was first published under her doctoral thesis, The Crusades from the Muslim Perspective and Its Relevance to the Twentieth Century. She is a participating editor and writer for the Insight Newsletter and The Muslim Observer. She will soon head a new publication, under the auspices of Banaa Tunnoor International, Inc., The Muslim Ladies Journal Magazine. Dr. Ahmad recently received her doctorate degree in Islamic History and Research from the Quranic Open University. She is activist for human rights, and has done extensive work in this area, along with relief aid, for the Muslims in Kashmir and Bosnia.

INTRODUCTION

In the past decade, America has seen an amazing increase in the growth of Al-Islam due to various reasons from the exposure of decadence in the high ranks of the Christian ministry to the rise in new conversions and immigration from Muslim countries. Census researchers have forecasted that by the turn of the century, Al-Islam will have reached the proportions to make it the second largest religious group and minority in the United States, surpassing Judaism which is now second to Christianity.

A major factor contributing to the growth of Islam in America is the work being done for the past fourteen years by the Quranic Open University (QOU). It has initiated a myriad of progressive programs in the U.S. ranging from the political to the spiritual. QOU has nurtured a substantial following among the indigenous grassroots population. Through friendship and kinship, its members interact on all levels with their Christian brethren through information lectures, conferences and seminars, Quranic Therapy treatment centers, public rallies and demonstrations, all which cover a wide variety of topics and issues, international and domestic. The programs which QOU has implemented has allowed the American public to meet first hand "Muslims" as they really are (not as they are often portrayed in the media) -- as their neighbors, friends, family and fellow citizens, and finding them to be the cordial, kind, temperate, dedicated and sincere people -- human beings.

QOU's public programs have allowed Americans to see Muslims other than the way they are portrayed in the Zionist-controlled media, previously exploiting their fears of the unknown. And in knowing Muslims for who they really are, America has a window by which they can see into the manipulative plots of the Zionists who fear the natural course of Islamic expansion. Many Americans now understand what has and is being done to our country and to their own detriment, especially in regards to American relationships with the Islamic world and foreign policy.

The increased growth and interest in the religion of Al-Islam in the West has resurrected in the Zionists' the age-old fear that Muslims and Christians would rekindle their commonality of beliefs and kinship, and in finding this, the two would then recognize their most common foe, the Jew. This would not be in the light of "anti-Semitic" hysteria which Jews often use as a weapon to keep truth at bay, but rather the recognition of historical, biblical and Quranic facts that Jews opposed and conspired against, from the beginning and since, the fundamental beliefs as well as the principal personalities of both Christianity and Al-Islam.

Thus, due to the Islamic growth "problem" and the well-justified feelings of anti-Zionism, they have doubled their efforts to maintain their death grip upon the American people and to maintain control of American resources. They have launched a two-fold terror campaign against the World of Al-Islam, east and west, and against its doctrine and its people, especially the Muslim leadership.

First of all, after the Gulf War, which was orchestrated by the Zionists, in which Americans lives were wasted to carry out conspiratorial ambitions and from which the American economy has still yet to recover, it became increasingly clear to the American people that the only beneficiaries of that war were the Jews, who allowed themselves to be "persuaded" to wait out the war and sit snugly in their homes as Muslims and Christians fought on the battle field. In reality, Israel does not take an idle seat in any conflict; especially ones involving Muslims. Israel is assisting in all attacks carried out against Muslims, i.e., the ethnic cleansing in Kashmir by the Indian government troops, and the recent massacre in Palestine at the Hebron mosque. Their purpose is to physically destroy as much Muslim life and property as possible by whatever means available. In Kashmir, Israel directly supplies weapons and training to the Indian soldiers who rape, torture and pillage the people and property of Kashmir. At the same time, Israel uses its influence in the United States, who in turn influences the Pakistani government to prevent the definitive assistance needed to end Indian occupation once and for all.

Secondly, Zionist control of world media on varying fronts, in conjunction with covert intelligence operations, is used to plant hate and fear against Islam and Islamic peoples. This control allows them to publicize falsehood and to blind the truth. They discredit Islam and any of its leaders, or defenders, who dare to oppose and expose the Zionist conspiracy. The media smear campaign against the world of Islam is so effective to date that it has had the result of clouding the senses and logical reasoning of the greater number of so-called literate thinkers and policy makers in the West.

Over two hundred years ago, the American people fought a bloody revolution against the dominance of England, because of "taxation without representation". Their opposition was against a policy of injustice. They went to war to defend their stance and gave the lives of many of their sons so that justice would prevail. They fought for a principle of belief, not because their homes were being burned, or their wives and daughters were being raped, or their children killed, or they or their sons were imprisoned and/or tortured. Yet those, from among their ranks and outside, who went forth to fight are recorded in history as revolutionary heroes and fighters for freedom, justice and the American way. Yet, the Muslim freedom fighters, who are fighting as liberators in Kashmir, Algiers or Palestine, etc., and whose nations of people are suffering at the hands of the most tyrannical, barbarian and terrorist forces, are portrayed in western (Zionist) media as "terrorists".

To further discredit the leaders of Islam, artificial scenarios and conspiratorial plots are created to draw national and international attention to their negative intent. Once done, the blame is given to the collective Muslim brotherhood as if "all" participated in these non-existent "terrorist" organizations being accused, and all of Islam takes the weight. For example, in New York, a group of Muslims were being trained by an FBI agent, whom they believed would lead them to Bosnia to participate in the struggle of their Muslim brothers against their Serbian aggressors. Imagine their surprise when they were arrested along with their training materials and charged with plotting to blow up the Holland Tunnel and other targets in New York City. To gain as much mileage as possible off the fears of the American public already heightened by the previous incident with the World Trade Center bombing, the Zionist controlled press tried to link with these incidents in any manner, by innuendo, circumstance or allegation, every known and/or imaginary Muslim personality or group, whom they thought posed a threat to what they believe is the Zionist reality. Every Muslim country, especially Pakistan, Iran and Sudan, became suspect directly or indirectly as harborers of terrorist movements.

A primary example of the publicist conspiracy, was the 1993 publication of Yossef Bodansky's (Israeli Mossad agent) Target America. It was written ostensibly to warn America and the West of the growing threat to their national security by "Islamic terrorists". It contained frightening descriptions of "terrorist organizations" such as the Armed Islamic Movement (AIM), "Fuqra" and "Jamaat ul Fuqra". It reported that a great number of Islamic leaders are members and/or directors of these so-called terrorist groups, including Dr. Hassan Turabi of Sudan, Sheikh Abdur-Rahman of Egypt, and El-Sheikh Mubarik Ali Shah Jilani, international chairman of the Quranic Open Universities. The American Zionist lobbyists have special grudges against these men and their influences in the western world. Thus the Zionists have taken great pain to implicate them in terrorist conspiracies (this is what really scares Americans), of special note of late in the manufactured New York City incidents. El-Sheikh Jilani and his organizations have been particular targets because of their extensive work in the West to expose ADL Mossad spy network.

The examples given above are only the tip of the iceberg. The Zionist plot is to stop at nothing until Islam is wiped from the face of the earth. Nothing and no one is too great to sacrifice for this cause. Muslims the world over must wake up and unite to face the threat before them and must do so before it is too late. In the eyes of these enemies of Islam and mankind, all Muslims are alike and we all must be exterminated. No Muslim should be deceived that he or she can disguise themselves to avoid the fate alone. Without united efforts, the fate is the same for he who grows a beard and prays five prayers a day, as for he who shaves his face, wears a suit and tie and never prays a day in his life. See the fate of the Bosnian Muslims who adopted Christian names, clothes and lifestyle, giving up their Islamic practices -- they look like the other peoples of the Baltic region, but to no avail for what good has it served them?

At the same time, we also urge our Christian brethren to open their eyes and not allow themselves to be duped by the evil manipulations of the Zionist plotters. We urge you to unite with us in defeating those who would have us destroy the other and ourselves. We urge you to fight their plan for world domination, "the New World Order."

With the fall of the Berlin Wall and the USSR, the Zionists have put into hyper-drive their efforts to establish "the Kingdom of David", better known to many as George Bush's "New World Order." It is Zionism that is becoming the new SUPER POWER, using American resources and lives against the world. A clear understanding of the Zionist calculated manipulation and power to pursue their intent to create a new order, is evident in the scenario that was orchestrated which led to the Persian Gulf War Crisis. Just one day prior to Iraq going into Kuwait, the U.S. Ambassador to Iraq assured the Iraqi government that the United States had absolutely no interest in Kuwait, virtually giving Iraq, who considered their cause politically sound, the green light to invade Kuwait. Thus, Israel's sinister plot to orchestrate its domination of the modern world had begun.

This orchestration also did much damage to the already weak Muslim Ummat as Saudi Arabia and many other Muslim countries found themselves duped into marching against their Muslim brothers in Iraq. As a result Iraq, considered by Israel to be a threat to its military dominance in the region, was weakened and the Muslim world stood divided while more than two million innocent Muslim children, men and women were killed, including an entire brigade of Iraqi prisoners, who were bulldozed and buried alive under mounds of earth.

At present, it seems that the promoters of the New World Order have by and large achieved their objectives by dominating the majority of the Islamic countries. Yet, their hidden agenda has yet to be realized. Their goal is the total elimination of every Muslim leader, organization or government that poses a threat to David's Kingdom. In addition to having manipulated the situation of the Gulf War, the Zionist conspirators' handy work is evident as these propagators of the New World Order have tightened the noose around the necks of such Muslim countries as Egypt and Algeria, and now Jordan, by employing covert methods to infiltrate, cajole and bully their governments to imprison or execute Muslims and Muslim jamaats.

Another front for their attacks on Islam and the Islamic work is the use of their control over world media networks, planting its false propaganda and labeling prominent Muslim leaders and communities as terrorists. Thus, we find a barrage of attacks on such leaders as Dr. H. Turabi of Sudan, Gulbaddin Hekematyr of Afghanistan, El Sheikh Syed Mubarik Jilani of the Quranic Open University and Sheikh Umar A. Rahman, formerly of Egypt.

One of the most notorious of these Zionist conspirators dedicated to this massive effort at character assassination is Yossef Bodansky. This Mossad agent spent a number of years in Afghanistan and established at least forty NGOs in Peshawar alone. His main assignment was to keep the "candle burning", or in the literal sense, keep flowing the blood of innocent Muslim men, women and children. No doubt there was a most sinister plot devised by this man in which two million Muslim men, women and children lost their lives, and upwards of six million people were displaced from their homes and their fertile land turned into desolate ruins. Even today, it seems as if there is no end for their suffering.

It was during this Afghan jihad that El Sheikh Syed Mubarik Jilani made his first visit to the United States, Canada and other countries declaring the Russians the common enemy of Islam and the United States. It is most likely then that he crossed the aims of Bodansky and it is then that he became a Zionist target. The Jihad conferences organized by El Sheikh Jilani were held and the results of their proceedings were communicated to both U.S. President Ronald Reagan and Pakistan Prime Minister Zia ul Haq. Everything was done openly and above board. Encouragement for his efforts was received from many quarters. Quite naturally the Zionists, in particular Bodansky, didn't like what was going on and cringed at the tremendous success and inroads that were being made in America to support the Afghan freedom fighters.

The Zionists are masters of deceit. They moved to quickly obstruct the involvement and success of the American Muslims who were eager to do jihad and respond to the call of Islamization by QOU. Zionists began to fear El Sheikh Jilani's mission. Soon thereafter, the FBI made a forecast, "Today it is Jihad in Afghanistan and tomorrow it will be Jihad in the United States." After this, many calamities began to befall the American Muslims, who had gravitated to the mission of El-Sheikh Jilani. Obstacles were placed in their paths at every turn. One group of American Muslim mujahideen having set out for jihad in Afghanistan, were rounded up in Peshawar by Pakistani troops, who were preparing to hand them over to the American authorities. In response to this, a joint resolution of various Muslim organizations in the United States was presented to the late President Zia ul Haq with a warning that the handing over of these American Muslim Mujahideen to the United States authorities could meet with a violent reaction by Muslims in America and the responsibility for such a reaction would lie with the government of Pakistan. It was at this time that El Sheikh Jilani and his followers, to their shock and dismay, who had come for Jihad and to assist their Muslim brothers in their freedom campaign which was supported by the United States and Pakistan, first saw themselves portrayed in newspapers as "terrorists"

There were other incidents of harassments and violence which covertly befell the American Muslims who sought to follow Sheikh Jilani. In the United States, several Muslims who backed the Sheikh's jihad call vanished. Such was the case of Muhammad Khalid of Akron, Ohio, who left his home and was abducted without a sign until his body was discovered in a sewer months later.

Sheikh Jilani Establishes Islamic Universities in the United States

El Sheikh Jilani had established a chain of Islamic universities in the United States and Canada known as the Quranic Open Universities of the Americas (QOU), which are incorporated in the United State with campuses in Pakistan as well. Subsequently, under the auspices of QOU as a collective educational effort, several groups of American Muslim men, ladies and children were sent to Pakistan to study at a number of Islamic schools or specially organized classes under qaris and maulanas. Each group then returned to the U.S. with a commitment to teach and propagate Islam. Thousands of Americans have now benefited from those who received their diplomas and degrees from their studies in Pakistan.

The untiring efforts of El-Sheikh Jilani have resulted in the conversion of a great multitude of people in the West into the fold of Al-Islam. This development has angered the enemies of Al-Islam. Everywhere in the U.S., the members of QOU are being harassed, wiretapped and followed. The false propaganda has increased and the vicious Zionist elements have from then to now, refused to call by their proper/legal name(s) or give due recognition to the followers of El-Sheikh Jilani, his students, staff and members of MOA and QOU. Instead, they are continuously dubbed "FUQRA", which has been loaded with the most negative connotations.

The term "fuqra" has been coined and propagated by the FBI and "misinformants". The enemies of Al-Islam in America have absolutely no knowledge of the religion and its various terminologies. A number of times in Jumma discourses, Sheikh Jilani referred to the congregation as "O Jamaat-ul-Mumineen" meaning "Oh, community of believers" or "O Jamaat-ul-Fuqra" meaning "Oh, community of the poor". He would say this out of love and pride to be associated with this community of strong believers and the "poor" of the West. This very much being the tradition of the purely religious as the Holy Last Messenger (Allah's Peace and Blessings be on him) had petitioned to Allah, Ta'Ala:

"Ya Allah, keep me in the company of the poor, let my death be in the company of the poor and may I be raised in the company of the poor. . . ."

Sheikh Jilani taught and trained his students in the strictest and sincerest manner of Al-Islam. Many time he referenced the ways of the sufic orders in his guidance and discourses. He utilized sufic terminology, including the honored term of "fuqra". But its use was only in a general sense, and never intending to make it an organizational reference or name. Perhaps these ignorant enemies of Al-Islam do not know that the biggest preaching organization in all the world, the Tablighi Jamaat, also calls itself Jamaat ul Fuqra.

A large number of Muslims the world over refer to themselves as "faqirs" or "would-be faqirs", but this does not mean they are connected to the Tablighi Jamaat or any other organization. This title is common term to all believers. There are literally thousands of masjids called Masjid-ul-Fuqra all over the world.

The organizations that have been established by American Muslims under the guidance of El-Sheikh Jilani are listed below:

- * Muslims of the Americas Inc.
- * Kashmir American Friendship Society
- * Quranic Open University Inc.

- * Muslim Parochial School
- * Banaa Tunnoor International, Inc. (American Muslim Women's Organization)

These organizations have published books and journals, produced films, video and audio cassettes for public information.

Mossad Launches a Character Assassination Campaign

In 1993, the Mossad spy, Bodansky, wrote a report for the U.S. Congressional Republican Task Force on Terrorism and Unconventional Warfare, covered in detail by an article appearing in the March/April edition of the Muslim journal, The Minaret (see Appendix 2). It is stated in the congressional report by Bodansky that all the students of QOU who visited Pakistan for Islamic education, actually were trained as terrorists and that they belonged to a so-called "Jamaat ul Fuqra". He reported this as truth even though many of the students from America who visited Pakistan attended such noted schools as Jamia Naeemia and Jamia Ghausia, and many of these were women and youth. These students have received proper degrees and diplomas after completing their course of studies.

The believability of the authenticity of Bodansky's report, can be challenged by examining such details as simple and easily researched as Sheikh Jilani's birthplace, which is wrongly stated. Bodansky reports Sheikh Jilani to be Kashmiri. Even though Sheikh Jilani is very supportive of the freedom movement in Kashmir, as he was for Afghanistan and other oppressed Muslim areas, he was not born in Kashmir.

Bodansky accuses Sheikh Jilani of running, in urban Lahore proper, a military training camp. In actuality, the Lahore campus of the QOU is where a select group of students, females as well as males, attend Islamic study programs. Deputy Directors of QOU from its other various campuses worldwide, visit this site and manage it for months at a time. Most of these, African American Muslims, are often mistaken as Sudanese. For all their efforts for spiritual attainment and religious education, it is a shame that such an evil man is allowed to defame these good people. It is quite ironic that the Anti-Defamation League (ADL) (American Jewish spy network), who openly supervises paramilitary camps in the United States that are as well equipped as small armies and that are put together expressly to train members for terrorist and paramilitary activities wherever they deem necessary to guard the security of their Jewish state, Israel. They are not labeled "terrorists" in their mission, though their hidden activities generally remain beyond public notice save such incidents as the horrendous slaughter committed by one its trained members in the massacre of Muslim worshippers at the Hebron Masjid in Palestine. This is a man who many Jews now esteemingly call "hero".

Perhaps the biggest lie told by Bodansky is that Sheikh Jilani is directly involved in recruitment of African American Muslims, which supposedly began in the 1980's, from among "disgruntled American blacks" taken out of the prison system. This is an insult to thousands of African-American Muslims who follow El-Sheikh Jilani. They are, as most Americans, law abiding, hardworking and God fearing. They raise their families in peace and harmony with their neighbors. The only thing that makes them distinct from their neighbors is the practice of Deen-ul-Islam, as they enjoy the liberties and rights of all Americans to practice freely the religion of their choice.

As stated earlier, these enemies of Al Islam are ignorant and have no knowledge. Bodansky foolishly states that El-Sheikh Jilani and QOU are tied to the Shia government of Iran. If he would only examine the name of Sheikh Jilani, he would know that "Sheikh Jilani" is a direct descendant of his namesake, Hazrat Sheikh Abdul Qadir Jilani, who issued a Fatwa (decree or ruling) against the Shia stating that they were not on the right path. Still today, Sheikh Jilani adamantly upholds this Fatwa. So how can he be involved with the Shi'a of Iran when he opposes them?

Ihsan Karim, an independent researcher writes, ". . . From a research point of view, I won't accept even a sentence of the report after reading its contents". Yossef Bodansky, himself, says at the end of the report that it is intended to provoke discussion and debate (more like division and fear). Debate indeed, there was such an uproar among the American Muslim community because of this report that several members of the Congressional Task Force resigned, including its chairman, who stated in writing that she had not even seen the report before publication as part of the Task Force's congressional record and did not support any part of its content.

As unsubstantiated and unsupported as the Bodansky report was, it has created a windfall of negative publicity for El-Sheikh Jilani and QOU membership. After the report appeared in public print, in his own country, Pakistanis who are more American than Americans, were hired or pressured into putting Sheikh Jilani under surveillance. The QOU campus in Lahore was plagued by visits from many curious or clandestine persons. This caused many problems and interruptions for the students and staff.

Even though the report's rejection by the Task Force members diluted its effective purpose, the Mossad would not give up. In collaboration with Israel's allies, India's intelligence network, Yossef Bodansky wrote a book entitled "Target America" published by Shapolsky Publishers with an introduction by U.S. Congressman Bill McCollum. The book is replete with the Zionist trademark of lies, falsehoods, and half-truths, which should not surprise the knowers of Biblical and Islamic history wherein it is recorded in detail how the Jews conspired especially against the Holy Last Messengers of Allah, Hazrat Muhammad, Hazrat Isa (Jesus), and Hazrat Musa (Moses)(Allah's Peace and Blessings be upon them all). The Zionist Jews are condemned by Allah for their actions, as written in Holy Qur'an. They are described as liars, cheats, and conspirators with hearts harder than rocks. They have been punished by Allah, Ta'Ala Himself for their blasphemous conduct, as Allah, Ta'Ala turned a large number of them into apes and swine as a punishment for their conspiracy to violate the command of God. They, the disobedient Jews, are sentenced to a life of misery and homelessness and debasement for their acts. The "promised homeland" was denied to them by Allah, Almighty because of their disobedience to Him and their treachery on earth. Israel is the stolen homeland of the Palestinians. Israelites in their disobedience to their Creator, forsook all rights to any "promised land," wherever that might have been.

In his book, Bodansky adds more spice to his falsehood. On page 365, he tries to link Khomeini's revolutionaries with American Muslims attached to the Muslims of the Americas, Inc. (MOA) and QOU. He gets caught up in his barrage of lies, as he tries to add substance to them, only to wind up contradicting himself. According to him, American Muslims were brainwashed and made to swear allegiance to Khomeini for Jihad and then travel to Pakistan for training with Mujahideen and ISI. First of all, Shi'a and their Jihad in Afghanistan is quite recent, and during the time referred to in the Bodansky's book, the Mujahideen offered a resistance to Shi'a and they weren't accepted. Although he was in Afghanistan and this was common knowledge, the true facts must have somehow escaped him.

Then he goes on to fabricate another organization named "AIM" which he says was founded in 1992; obviously this should have been known to the agencies in Pakistan that deal with terrorism. Bodansky mentions this fictitious organization as being affiliated with "Jamaat ul Fuqra", both organizations supposedly controlled by ISI, so he says. The fact is that there is no government agency or press network that has ever heard of such an organization as "AIM", the reality of that is because it is simply an invention of the Mossad and Indian Intelligence Bureau.

Bodansky continuously tries to establish a connection between his so-called "terrorist" Muslim states and organizations, as the Muslims of Sudan, Iran, Pakistan and America, somehow having connection through the Afghan Jihad where "all" motivation for jihad in modern time began. Through this fabricated justification and rationale on his part, he is able to link every criminal act that occurs and involves persons of Muslim background or with Muslim names to what Bodansky's book translates as a worldwide, Islamic terrorist conspiracy. Talk about grasping for straws.

Another case scenario which demonstrates Bodanzky's plot of character assassination is his citing of the police investigation in Colorado of Muslim arrested on federal charges. What he neglects to mention is that even though the authorities went into the Muslim community under the pretext of a simple warrant on fraud charges only. Yet, they entered this very small Muslim village in rural Colorado with an armed battalion of a hundred men strong, comprised of SWAT teams from the FBI, ATF, state and local law enforcement authorities, Canadian agencies and agencies from several other states.

At the time of the raid, the men whom the authorities were seeking were not on the premises. The only people present were approximately twenty children and three Muslim ladies, who were forced out of their homes into the winter weather without coats or shoes. They were terrorized by having automatic weapons drawn against them. Bodansky also hides the fact that the authorities blew up the house of worship (masjid) built on this land, though the building was empty at the time of the raid. No weapons were found of substantial quantity or type more than what is customary for anyone in that particular area. Another important note that Bodansky failed to mention was that all the weapons found were legally owned and registered. Also important to note: the authorities have levied every conceivable charge against the defendants in this case and have publicized the most insignificant allegations, but no mention has ever been made of the fact that no weapons charges were levied.

The Western media is quite active in projecting as facts innuendo, false allegations and lies. The regular "fare of day" is whatever sells the news. Any concern for the truth, and veracity of sources of information is secondary, if a consideration at all. The Bodansky "lie book" was heavily quoted and followed in US press stories. Reporters questioned members of MOA and QOU. However, being that their true accounts were not as sensational as the lies of Bodansky's, the truth was bypassed.

Another point to note which would cause the astute reader to question the authenticity of the so-called facts and "truth", would be to examine some of his references. For instance, Bodansky cites the Indian Times and the Indian IB as where he received information on Sheikh Jilani. We agree that Zionist controlled Indian government and media would have files on Sheikh Jilani, but in no way would one suppose that a reliable and dependable account or statement could come from one's arch enemies.

By now you should be able to see who is behind the schemes of attempting to destroy the character of Islam and its leaders, and the arena grows. The New York Times and Newsday of New York have joined in the projection of lies about staff and students of QOU and Sheikh Jilani. For instance, though authorities arrested all participants in the bombing of the World Trade Center in New York, there arose a subsequent plot by the press, and others, to connect El-Sheikh Jilani and his American followers and any other Muslims who could be remotely implicated, to circumstantial or manufactured evidence. The New York newspapers printed articles connecting the World Trade Center explosion in New York to Sheikh Abdur Rahman and Dr. Turabi, because the individuals arrested were Sudanese and Egyptian. It is said that one or more of them was to have visited the Sheikh Rahman's mosque in New Jersey. There has also been efforts to involve the QOU and MOA in the bombing by alleging that Rodney Hampton El, the only African American implicated in the bombing, was a follower of Sheikh Jilani. However, this plot was foiled miserably when Rodney Hampton El, through his lawyer, adamantly denied any affiliation with either of these organizations and its members.

The World Trade Center bombing was a design of the Mossad to lessen the risk of world opinion turning against the Zionist Jews because of their expulsion of nearly four hundred Muslims from Israeli occupied territories, which occurred around the same time. The NYC bombing was suppose to divert the attention of the world from that event, and create hate and fear in the American public against Muslims in general.

The Sandanista Connection

As readily as news agencies around the world have reported with no supportive evidence the involvement of innocent Muslims in the New York WTC bombing, there is no wonder that many people have become confirmed in the knowledge that these same agencies are controlled by parties who have vested interest in propagating false stories and holding back vital information from the general public. Again, for example, in the case of the WTC bombing, clear evidence came to the U.S. government that several of the men charged in the bombing were directly connected with a known Sandanistan terrorist group. Ibrahim Elgabrownny, an Egyptian immigrant arrested in the WTC case, was found to have five fraudulently obtained Nicaraguan passports in his apartment. However, no reports were ever disclosed to the American public, which may have established the possible connection to the bombing of communist terrorist groups such as the Sandanistas.

At present, the Canadian Broadcasting Channel is showing a documentary which depicts Sheikh Jilani, Gulbaddin Hekematyr and Dr. Hassan Turabi (the targets from Bodansky's book) as potential threats to the US national security. The film shows a dramatic scene taking place: special security forces in St. Catherine, Canada move cautiously into position to ward off any possible chance of "fanatical" Muslims staging an escape for the five Muslim missionaries being held on the charges of an alleged conspiracy to blow up a Hindu temple and an Indian movie house in Toronto.

The true story behind this Canadian case was that a group of Muslims had visited Pakistan for the purpose of attending a school for Islamic studies and to secure a degree or diploma. After graduating, some of them visited a refugee camp in Kashmir and extended whatever kind of help was at their disposal. They also visited a Mujahideen camp for a day, and though they were moved to join their brothers' struggle, their request to join the Mujahideen in Jihad was turned down because Imam Sheikh Jilani did not approve of this action for his students. So the students returned home. This accounts for why a person is shown in the film firing a weapon.

Whenever Muslims are involved in any criminal actions, Zionist schemers always attempt to gain as much mileage as possible. While these Muslims were in jail, the Canadian authorities tried to tie the death of a prominent Hindu businessman to them and the QOU. Later, it was found that the Hindu's death was the result of some internal fighting amongst rival Hindu groups. The Zionist conspirators in trying to tie every unsolved deaths of a Hindu in the West to members of MOA and QOU, failed miserably in this attempt when the real culprits were found.

It is an age old tactic of the Zionists to try to establish world hatred for the Muslims and sympathy for themselves, Hindus and other enemies of Al-Islam. In recent events, they have failed as they could not foresee the magnitude of the impact upon world sympathies after the invasion against the Sikhs at the Golden Temple in Amritsar or the destruction of the Babri Mosque and the ensuing deaths of thousands. People the world over expressed their outrage at both incidents. Hindus and Hindu temples were targeted everywhere by many groups. However, the partners in crime, Jews and Hindus, were quick to attempt to turn these attacks to their own advantage. After a number of Hindus were killed in reaction to Golden Temple and Babri Mosque incidents, they pointed the finger of accusation at Muslims of QOU and MOA. Again, American Muslims became the scapegoats and were referred to as "terrorist" members of the "Fuqra".

Just as we are portrayed as Hindu haters, similarly, newspaper articles and news broadcasts accounted that we are arbitrarily against the Jews and non-conforming Muslims. As regards to Jews, our perceptions and conduct towards them are direct results and reactions to the misdeeds and atrocities they have imposed on the Muslims, which has raised the anger of both Muslims and Christians alike.

As regards to non-conforming Muslims, one case in point was Mirza Ghulam Ahmed Qadiani who was a false prophet developed by the Jews and Hindus to tear down the very principles that Al-Islam is based on. Perhaps in early decades of Al-Islam in the West, one could have so simply overlooked such a lie. But now most American Muslims have been educated and the idea that someone is claiming to be a prophet after the Holy Last Messenger (Allah's Peace and Blessing be Upon him) causes ones blood to boil. This does not mean that Muslims are being encouraged to take law into their own hands. Muslims all over the world regardless of what school of thought they follow or what country they live in feel anger when they hear such a thing.

Is this not the same reaction that many people felt when David Koresh of the Branch Davidians claimed himself to be Jesus? No doubt many Christians felt outrage at his claims, but they also felt outrage at the ensuing events, after a fifty plus days stand off and the murdering of the Waco compound occupants by U.S. authorities. Several investigations have followed and it is clear from many reports that the attack on the compound was unwarranted and that government officials had every intent to slaughter these people from the start.

In the United States, citizens are becoming more alarmed at the degree of control that the Zionist lobby has over our U.S. policy and opinion. Paul Findley, a former U.S. Congressman, exposes this delicate issue in his book, They Dare Speak Out. He demonstrates to all Americans how Israel is effective in portraying a false image to the United States public so it can freely shape United States policies in a way that benefits Israel first.

Muslims Doing Good Work

Comparatively, Muslims in America experience a quality of life much superior to that of the vast majority of Muslims the world over. And in the tradition of America, as well as that of our faith, American Muslims are generous, charitable, kind and sympathetic toward the less fortunate of the world. This is particularly true in regards to their own kind, as with most people. El-Sheikh Jilani has diligently guided his students in the ways of Al-Islam. They have formed several social and political institutions for the purpose of assisting just and honorable causes throughout the Islamic world. One such organization, the Kashmiri-American Friendship Society (KAFS), has many members that are actively involved in aiding Kashmir in every possible way in their struggle for freedom from the barbaric pagan occupation. KAFS activities have included acquainting the public of the wretched conditions in Kashmir and trying to activate human rights organizations to focus attention on the situations there in hope of stopping the crimes and atrocities suffered by Kashmiri Muslims at the hands of the Indian Army. The government of Azad (Free) Kashmir can confirm that our lady workers have come to the refugee camps, day and night, distributing food, medicines, clothing, blankets and money to its occupants. Our Sheikh appreciates all such gestures which help oppressed and needy people. He does not go out and fight, but he renders every possible moral, financial and political support to all oppressed Muslims of the world which also includes the Muslims of Kashmir.

In the Final Analysis

The hope of the Zionist conspiracy was that Russia would someday fall under their subjugation and control, to be merged with their control over the U.S. and subsequently establish their ultimate goal of a single world power, their power, under "the New World Order". It was unforeseen on their part that the disintegration of the Soviet Union would cause control to slip from their grasp as it resulted in the formulation of additional Muslim states. Thus the plan had to be reformulated. A new enemy target was defined and their destruction plotted. As a matter of fact, the U.S. Zionist lobby after the fall of the USSR had no enemy of concern to focus the military might of the one remaining super power, the U.S., on. So their intelligence agencies resurrected the Zionists' historical enemy and created a saga of what the world was to see as their newest threat, Al-Islam. Muslims were being set up as "Enemy #1" and this was made clear when then U.S. Vice President Quayle said to a West Point graduating class "Communism has fallen and now we must join and focus on a new enemy Islamic Fundamentalism!" The Zionists have created this term, "fundamentalism", to make the unsuspecting feel that their prejudices are not against the general body of Muslims or the true religion of Al-Islam, but some deviating sects as they will define for the world and point them out. In reality, for them there is no difference among the adherents who say, "We are Muslims". And to have their way, the Zionists do not discriminate in their targeting of all Muslims for destruction.

Yet, Americans must recognize that their real enemy is not the Muslims, but Israel. We, Muslims, wish to coexist with our Christian brothers. The Jews utilized the war in Afghanistan to further the establishment of the Kingdom of David by freeing the Russian Jews and resettling them in Israel as a means to secure for themselves the Palestinian occupied territories. We do not want the Jews to instigate such a confrontation here, because the United States could meet with a similar fate. War in one's homeland is a terrible thing, and a thing which America is not accustomed to.

Nevertheless, we can assure the United States government and all others concerned that American Muslims have no sinister or evil designs against the United States, nor any other religious groups. Our Sheikh does not condone violence. Though violence is a reality in today's world and will not end. Those guilty of it should be caught and punished. Right now, the United States and Canada appear to be void of justice for Muslims as it allows the Zionist controlled press to run a huge anti-Muslim public campaign created out of any incident that directly or remotely involves Muslim(s). This has the effect of making themselves both judge and jury by publicly trying and condemning defendants, and voiding their constitutional rights to remain innocent until, and if, proven guilty in a fair trial.

We, the American Muslims, hoped the smear campaign against it would end. Especially after the negative sensationalism around the New York bombing incidents subsided. However, we have just learned that Newsweek is printing another one-sided article fashioned to depict Muslims in an undesirable way, in March 1994.

These agents of the devil will stop at no cost to discredit their enemies. Case in point, one should read Soft Target, which reveals what was really behind the crash of Air India Flight 182 and you'll be surprised to see that at least two Canadian law enforcement agencies pointed the finger at the Indian government and not at the Sikhs who are struggling for an autonomous homeland within India.

We hope that this small publication will shed some light on the attacks that have been directed at our Sheikh and our organizations by the enemies of Al-Islam. It has allowed us the opportunity to give our own accounts without the tampering or discoloring which occurred when we attempted to give our stories directly to the "editing" press.

Without exception, the words of our spokes-persons were given out of context or slashed to distort their meanings. This is now why you will hear them say we refuse to comment.

However, those who are genuinely interested in Al-Islam, Muslims in America, and what we are doing to aid mankind and the plight of Muslims throughout the world, please feel free to contact us for further information.

False Allegations made by Yossef Bodansky
Against Sheikh Mubarik Ali Shah Jilani, the Staff and Students of the Quranic Open University and the Administration and Membership of the Muslims of the Americas Inc. in his collection of lies called "TARGET AMERICA"

The Zionist U.S. Clandestine Network,
The B'nai B'rith's Anti Defamation League

The B'nai B'rith Anti-Defamation League (ADL) has become the new instrument chosen by the Zionist Jews to launch an attack on Sheikh Jilani and his followers. We were expecting the ADL to attack us because we published a detailed account of their spying on American citizens.

This is not the first time Zionist Jews have lied. In an article published in the 28th of February 1994 edition of Newsweek magazine, the Jewish Zionist author, Mr. Hosenball states that Sheikh Mubarik Ali Jilani runs a 'terrorist training camp' in the Sudan, while Bodansky claims in his book that Sheikh Jilani runs a 'terrorist' training camp in Lahore. Both stories contradict each other. Jews lie so much that they can't coordinate their lies.

Fallacy: "Shi'ite charities established small communes in various cities, including Washington D.C., ostensibly for prisoner rehabilitation where recruitment is finalized. After brainwashing, the ex-prisoners swear allegiance to the Ayatollah Khomeini and volunteer for Jihad. They are then sent to Pakistan for training with Islamic mujahideen and the ISI."

Fact: The entire Muslim world knows that Sheikh Jilani and his followers are not Shia. Sheikh Jilani is our Imam and that being the case it is impossible to have sworn an oath of allegiance with Ayatollah Khomeini or anyone else. Bodansky's account of this is just another calculated form of mis-information. Ever since the American hostage situation in Tehran, the media has established Ayatollah Khomeini as a 'terrorist' who vehemently voiced his hatred of the United States. If this Zionist could fabricate any type of correlation between Sheikh Jilani and his followers with Ayatollah Khomeini and his followers then the public would readily accept that Sheikh Jilani and his followers as being made of the same chemistry.

A slightly more subtle lie is the injection of Bodansky that all Muslims have been imprisoned at one time or another. Nothing can be further from the truth. Islam has the most developed set of laws, of any type, which covers every aspect of life and it is relentless in discouraging all breeches of law and punishes criminals appropriately. The fact is the greater majority of Muslims are law abiding and hold respectable positions in society. When Sheikh Jilani came to America, he first went to the Muslims at various Musallas (places where prayers are performed) throughout the United States and it was the leadership and membership of these Musallas that first became followers of Sheikh Jilani. Sheikh Jilani did not recruit Muslims out of prison then, nor does he now.

Fallacy: "Jilani, with the help of the ISI and Pakistan IB, runs a training camp near Lahore..."

Fact: The fact is that Sheikh Jilani is the founder and Chairman of the Quranic Open University which maintains campuses in Lahore and Muree Hills, where students from America come for advanced Islamic Studies Courses. After a decade of providing quality education, the Lahore Campus had closed and has been relocated in Islamabad.

Fallacy: "Since mid-1992, ISI Brigadier Imtiaz has been responsible for 'training Black Muslims from the U.S.A. and Canada through the Jamaat ul Fuqra for terrorist operations in North America and Western Europe'".

Fact: The fact is that we've already established that Sheikh Jilani sponsors educational tours to QOU campuses and jamias (Islamic schools) in Pakistan. We can also assure you that neither Sheikh Jilani nor his followers have any anarchistic designs or motives towards America or its citizenry of which we are a part. As directed by our Imam, if we wish to draw attention to any plight concerning Muslims in the world, we will continue to publicize the issues through demonstrations, protest rallies, broadcasts, newspaper publications and meetings with various government representatives. Sheikh Jilani has taught us to realize the benefits from the rights of protest available to all American citizens.

We are not aware of ISI having any anti-American agenda. On the contrary, the CIA and ISI worked in close conjunction during the Afghan War and even now, hundreds of American commandoes regularly participate in joint exercises with their Pakistani counterparts. As usual, Bodansky's claims and "facts" don't support one another.

Fallacy: "Sheikh Jilani himself is directly involved in the recruitment and indoctrination of American Black Muslims in Pakistan."

Fact: The fact is that Bodansky's claim is ludicrous at best, lacking any assimilation with reality. Upon arrival in the U.S., about 15 years ago, Sheikh Jilani realized the urgent need of American Muslims to be educated in basic Islamic Studies. With this in mind, he immediately established courses to meet their needs and used audio and video cassettes and books and magazines to reach out to those masses that had not been receiving the proper Islamic education. Shortly thereafter, Sheikh Jilani established campuses of the Quranic Open University in major US cities and at several Muslim villages that Sheikh Jilani had established as well. Sheikh Jilani maintained a Lahore campus of QOU, where American Muslims came for advanced Islamic Studies courses, which were often developed in conjunction with renowned schools of Islamic Studies in the Lahore area. Sheikh Jilani didn't indoctrinate us, he purged us of the ignorance and neglect towards religion that was quite common during that time period. Sheikh Jilani made it clear that his mission was to educate the masses because Shaitan (the devil) cannot influence a truly learned man. "A learned man is more harmful to Shaitan than a thousand pious worshippers". Perhaps that is why Bodansky and his cohorts have convulsions when Sheikh Jilani or his followers are mentioned and mobilize all their resources to attack them through every possible means.

Fallacy:

- "...American Black Muslims in Pakistan..."
- "...Training Black Muslims from US and Canada..."
- "...Disgruntled Black Muslim prisoners..."

Fact: The fact is that Bodansky mirrors the racially bigoted attitude which is common to all Zionists by repeatedly referring to American Muslims as 'black'. We take offense to this extremely discriminatory reference. In the Holy Qur'an Almighty God makes it clear who will have 'blackened' faces; the reference has nothing to do with one's pigmentation or whether or not one comes from Africa.

On the Day of Judgment with thou see those who told lies against God; their faces will be turned black; is there not in Hell an abode for the haughty? Holy Qur'an 39:60

Very Possibly Your Last Opportunity!

This advertisement for military training is typical of those commonly found in American publications.

Those with the blackened faces are the Jews and others that lie against Allah, Subhanahu, wa Ta'Ala! Mr. Bodansky and his Zionist-supremacist associates reek of the stench of lies and mischief. In the light of Holy Qur'an we advise our Muslim brethren never to refer to themselves by the color of their skin as there is no such thing as a black Muslim, or a brown Muslim, or a yellow Muslim, or a red Muslim, etc. There is no example of the Holy Last Messenger (PBUH) referring to a Muslim in this manner.

Fallacy: "In 1992, AIM began preparations in Pakistan for the escalation of terrorist operations in the US and Canada. These preparations are conducted under the cover of the Jamaat ul Fuqra, ostensibly an organization led by Sheikh Mubarik Ali Shah Jilani, an Pakistani Kashmiri living in Lahore..."

Fact: The fact is that this is another sleazy tactic of the proprietors of deception, the Zionists, who quite commonly invent names and coin terms and knowingly propagate them in conjunction with "Terrorist" and other phrases intended to arouse insecurity, apprehensiveness and hatred among the general population towards the group which the Zionists are targeting. When the Zionist masters of the media focus in on a target, they flood the air waves, as well as newspapers and magazines with stories linking their target with a negative concept or action. This is done to prepare the public for any eventual attack by "law enforcement agents" on the target. All this aside, Sheikh Jilani is not a Kashmiri as "reported" by Bodansky.

The Zionist conspirators hope that they can create a situation where law enforcement agents can inflict severe harm to Sheikh Jilani and his followers while a thoroughly duped public stands idly by. The trusting public usually makes the assumption that all news reports and newspaper accounts cannot be wrong and that the commentators who "analyze" these situations, are "specialists" whose judgment is to be accepted as "gospel truth". What the naive public doesn't realize is that these Zionists know that when two terms are paired together for a sufficient period of time they will become synonymous with one another! We had never heard of an organization called AIM until we read the liar, Bodansky's book and we have been known by our legal names, Muslims of the Americas Inc., and the Quranic Open University for at least a decade. Prior to this we functioned under another name but in no way was it similar to 'Fuqra'.

Fallacy: "Jilani and Imtiaz have no operational responsibility in the US for this rests with Sheikh Umar Abd-al Rahman in New York."

Fact: The fact is Sheikh Jilani is the Chairman of the Quranic Open University and Director of the Muslims of the Americas Inc. both of whom have their headquarters in Islamburg, upstate New York, with offices and campuses throughout the U.S. Sheikh Jilani has 300,000 followers in the west, who accept and consider him their Imam despite the fact that many have not come into direct contact with him. Sheikh Jilani has established the proper administration for the organizations he heads and they are quite competent in implementing any program or directive that Sheikh Jilani wants in place. Sheikh Jilani, our Imam, is in full control of the situations surrounding QOU and MOA Inc.

We will listen to whatever is said to us in the light of Holy Qur'an and the Sunnah from whomever the Almighty wishes to send His word through, but there is no other Sheikh or Imam that we look to for guidance as we are quite satisfied with our Imam. Sheikh Abd-al Rahman is a Sheikh in his own right, and has his own organization and followers. He is our Muslim brother and we all are a part of the same Ummat, the world wide community of Muslims.

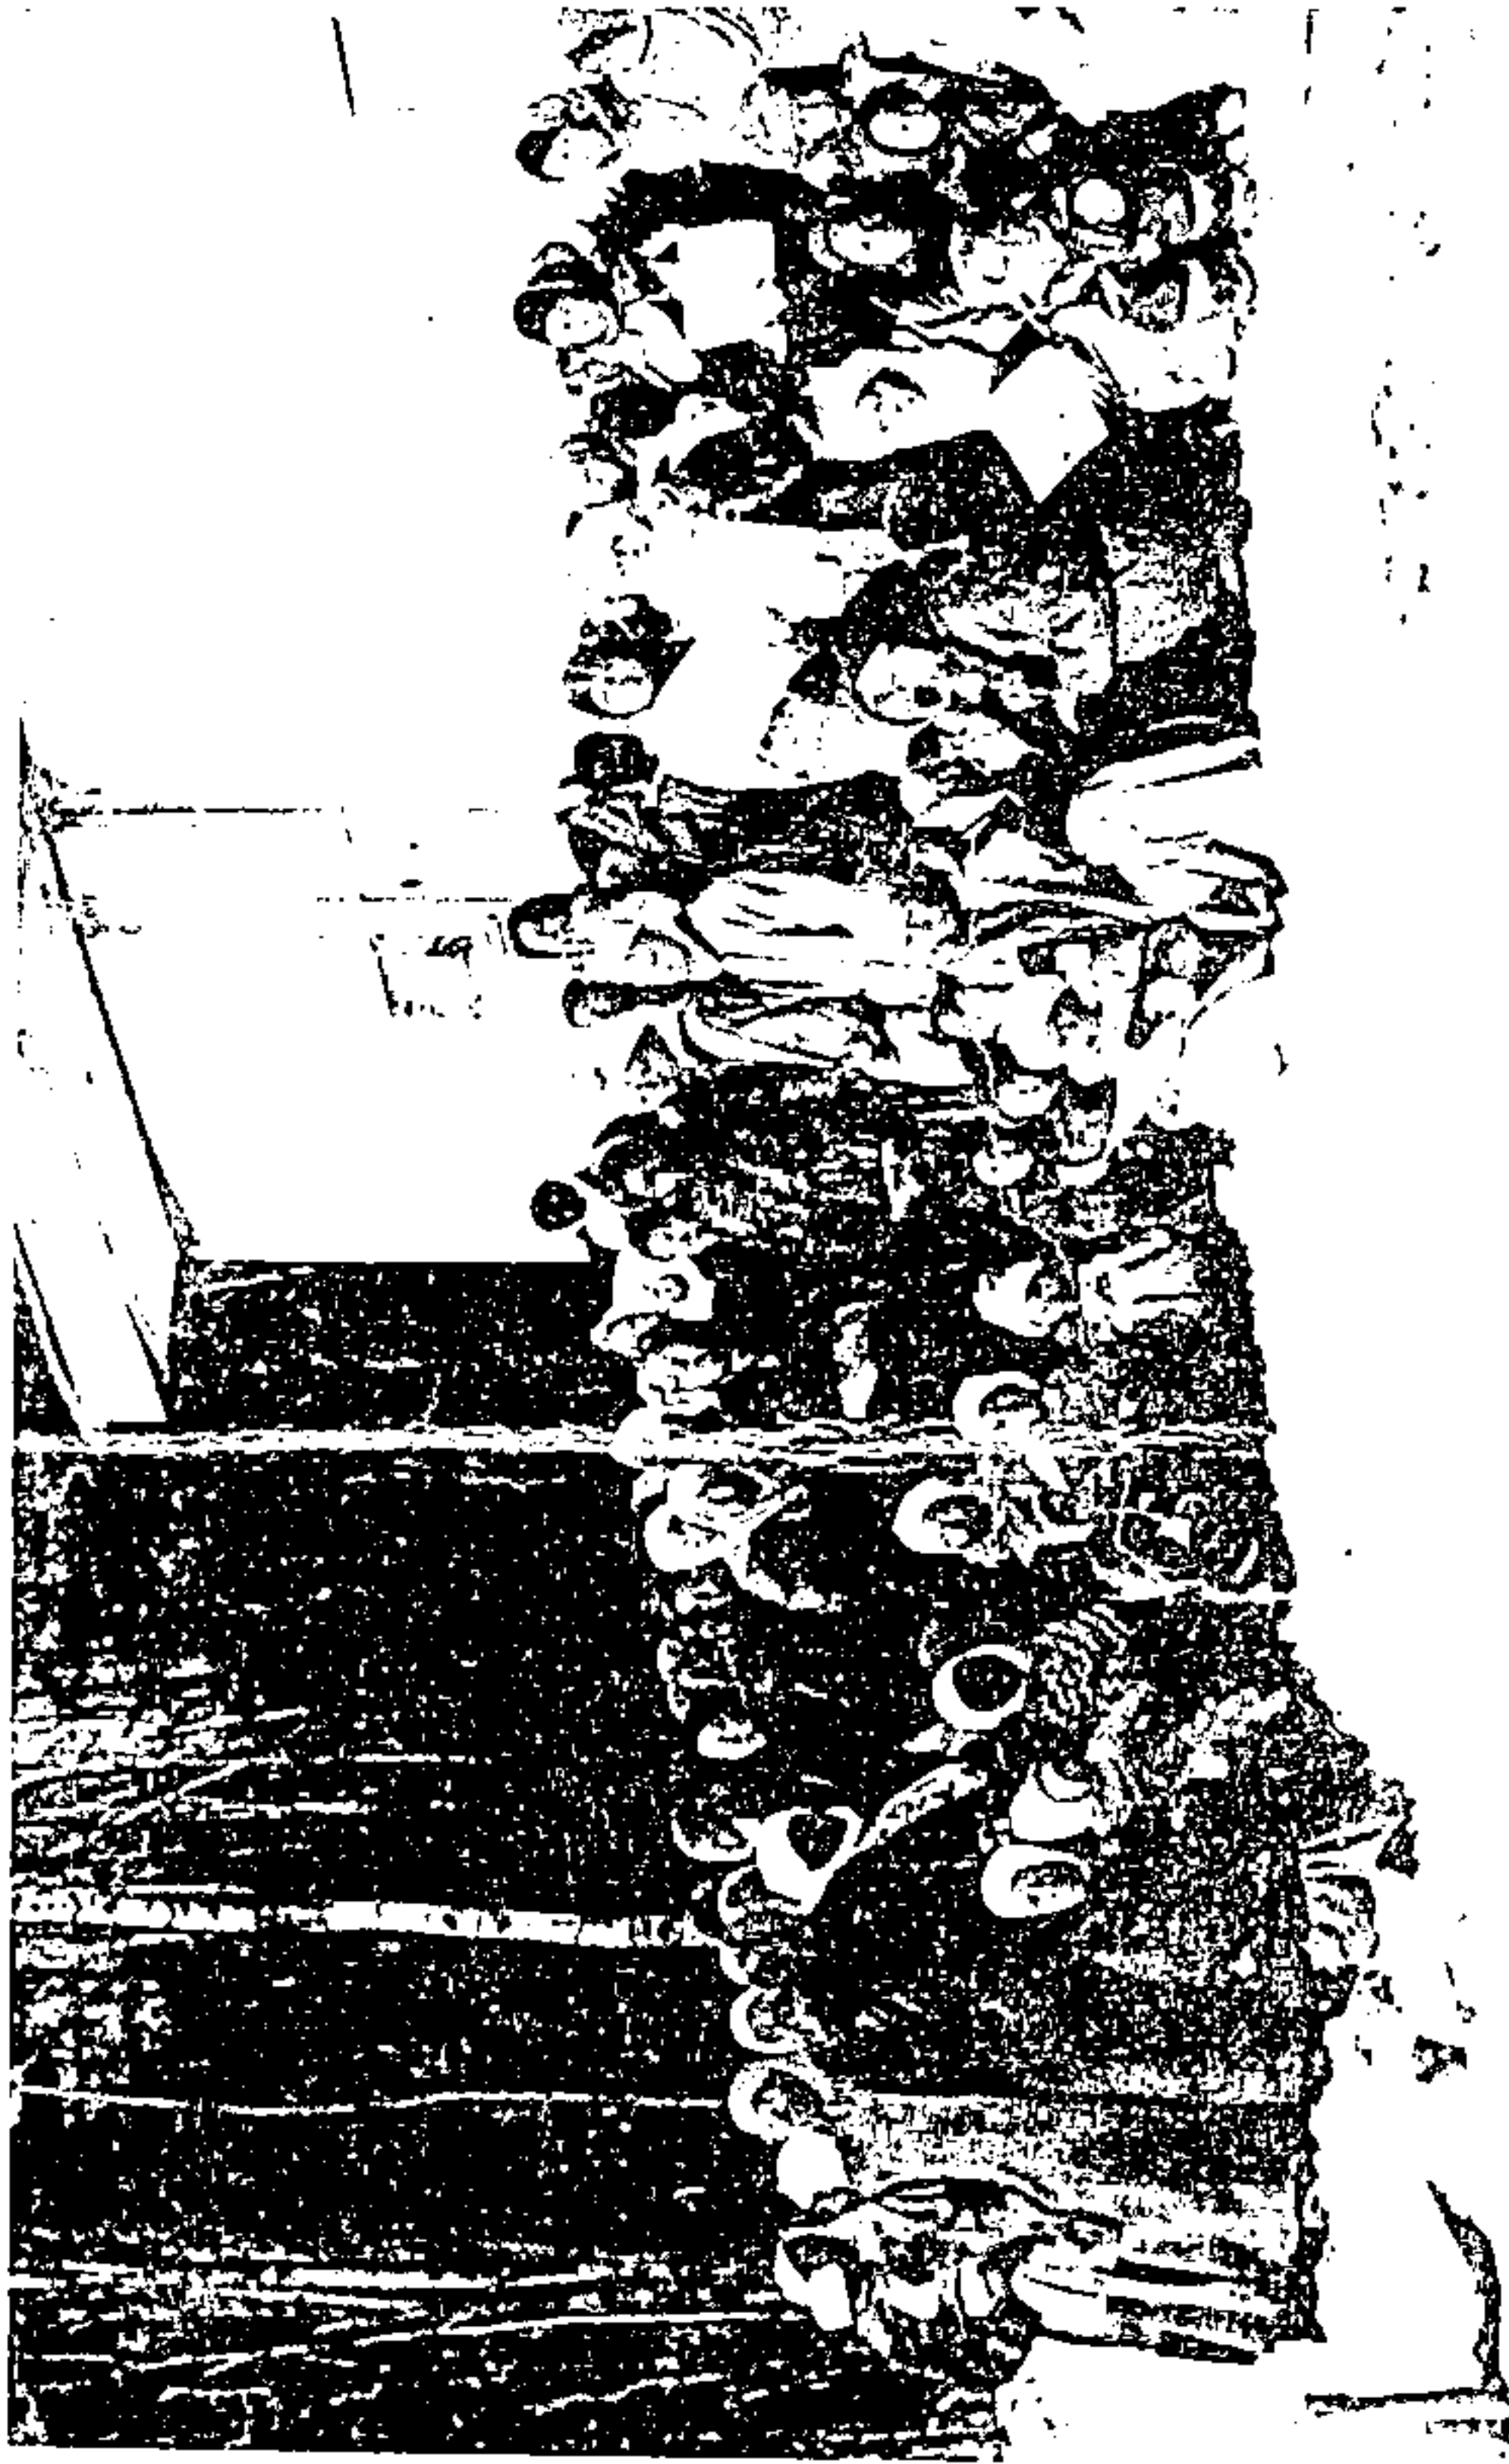

Imtiaz, who Bodansky describes as a member of the ISI has no links with our Sheikh or our organizations. Although he worked for ISI quite some time ago, his position in recent years has been with IB, from which he has since retired.

TARGET ISLAM

Fallacy: "There are some indications that some of the graduates of these Pakistani-Iranian training programs have already begun initial operations in the U.S. One example is the Fuqra 'Islamic fundamentalist sect' in Colorado Springs, Colorado, the leader of which was committed to the 'plight of African Americans'."

Fact: The fact is that we've adequately dispelled the lies made by Bodansky that Sheikh Jilani had anything to do with a terrorist training center in Lahore or anywhere else. We can emphatically state that neither Sheikh Jilani nor his followers had anything to do with Ayatollah Khomeini or have anything to do with Shi'ism. There is no such thing as a "fundamentalist", in Islam. One is simply a Muslim who must follow and perform the basic precepts of Islam, observing all its injunctions. All Muslims must adhere to the Holy Qur'an and Sunnah of the Holy Last Messenger (Peace and Blessing of Almighty God be upon him). We've already exposed the fraudulent attempt to say Sheikh Jilani had something to do with any organization called "Fuqra" as this is one of the names coined by the Zionists to sway public opinion in a negative direction regarding Muslims and Al-Islam.

Sheikh Jilani has come into contact with thousands upon thousands of Muslims and there has been an extensive distribution of his tapes, books and publications. He cannot be held responsible for the actions taken by anyone who might have come into contact with him or someone who has purchased his tapes or books, and read into them their own interpretation of action. Sheikh Jilani continuously implores his followers to abandon anything unlawful for the sake of the honor and integrity of Al Islam and our religion does not condone criminal acts. The press never holds the Pope responsible for the acts of Catholic criminals; nor was the Grand Rabbi held responsible for the act of the crazed killer who recently slaughtered the Muslims in Hebron. Then why does the press attempt to hold Sheikh Jilani responsible for the alleged crimes that any Muslim is charged with? The answer to this should be obvious. The Zionist Jews want to put an end to Sheikh Jilani and his followers because we won't compromise the truth and as American citizens we will continue to speak out against the victimization of Islam and Muslims at the hands of the enemies of Islam and America.

THE ZIONIST CONSPIRACY EXPOSED BY HISTORY

For the past 2000 years, the Jews have been carrying out an utterly ruthless campaign of murder, deception and mischief as ever been perpetrated by any other people through the annals of time. Driven by an overwhelming desire for world domination, fed by what they believed to be a license to do to the "Gentiles" whatever they pleased so sanctioned by their religious edicts that advocated the obliteration and enslavement of non-Jews in any way possible, The Jewish attitude toward gentiles is best described in original Hebrew scriptures;

"Do not have pity for them, for it is said: 'Show no mercy unto them'" Deuteronomy 7:2

"Therefore if you see an akum in difficulty or drowning, do not go to his help, and if he is in danger of death, do not save him." Hikoth Akum 10:1

And such actions towards world dominance was initiated through the Rothschilds International Bank, which eventually led to the Federal Reserve Banking System (FRB), to whom the United States owes billions of dollars. Though outwardly thought to be an institution of the public domain, the FRBs are lending institutions privately owned by several Zionist families. The U.S. government has no control over their administration whatsoever. In fact, these banks control the world economy and the fate of nations. Simply put, "Whosoever holds strings of the money, he holds the power," and the most powerful nation in the world, the U.S., dangles on the string of the Zionist puppeteers and does their bidding, because of the great debts it owes to them.

A Famous President of the U.S. Issues a Warning

Des Griffin, in his revealing book, Decent Into Slavery? states: "President Andrew Jackson, the only one of our president who totally eliminated the national debt during his term of office, condemned the international bankers as a 'Den of Vipers,' which he had determined to 'root out of the fabric of American life.'" Jackson also stated that if the American public ever understood how these vipers operated behind the American scene, "there would be a revolution in the morning."

In the same chapter of Griffin's book, entitled "The Rothschild Dynasty," the author quotes Congressman L.T. McFadden, who describes the international bankers as, "...a dark crew of financial pirates who would cut a man's throat to get a dollar out of his pocket. They prey on the people of America."

The Rothschilds and the Battle of Waterloo

The cold, calculating Rothschilds left no stone unturned as they amassed their financial empire. During the time of the French Revolution with absolutely no regard for human life, they viewed the Battle of Waterloo only as an opportunity to increase their wealth. There were vast fortunes to be made or lost on the outcome of the Battle of Waterloo. If Britain lost, the value of English financial holdings would plummet to the deepest depths. While if France was vanquished, the same would be true for the value of their stocks and bonds. Rothschild had his agents monitoring the action on both sides of the line. When Rothschild, through his intelligence network, received news of the English victory hours ahead of everyone else, he very shrewdly began selling all his English stocks as if trying to avoid financial ruin. The other traders, thinking that Rothschild must have obtained secret information of the defeat of the British, quickly followed his example. Thus, this caused the price of all British stocks to crash. Rothschild then ordered all his agents to buy British stocks at their extremely low prices. Shortly afterwards the news of the British victory at Waterloo became common knowledge, the price of stocks skyrocketed and the Rothschild's dynasty was multiplied twenty times over.

The Zionist Jews Can Be Identified by Their Words and Deeds

The Kingdom of David cannot be established without zealots to champion its cause, and such an example exists in the Israeli "hero" responsible for the massacre of scores of Muslims while they prayed in Masjid Ibrahim located in Hebron, Palestine. Rabbi Yaacov Perrin, who supported Baruch Goldstein, the murderer from Brooklyn, NY, declared that "one million Arabs (Muslims) are not worth a Jewish fingernail." Rabbi Dov Lior, leader of the Kiryat Arba Settlement and a scholar of Talmud, voices a need to "send Arabs to the Garden of Eden" to avenge Jewish deaths. The Zionist government would like us to believe that these people are extremists and their opinions do not represent Israel as a whole. Nevertheless, the indiscriminate bombing and massacres of Muslim women, children and men in Lebanon by Israeli pilots whenever harm comes to any Israeli soldier manifests that Israelis think that one of their lives is worth many more non-Jewish lives.

Most Jews Living in Israel Are Not Semites

The cry often heard from the Jews is that of "anti-semitism". But facts prove that most of the inhabitants of Israel have nothing to do with the biblical "Semitic" Hebrews. Most of them are Mongolian in origin, from the Khazer tribe who converted to Judaism in 740 AD and are most commonly known as Russian or Polish Jews. If the Jewish claims to a "promised homeland" were real, the present Jewish occupants would have no claim to Palestine as they are no more than invaders who have forcefully banished a people from their homes (with help from other outsiders from the world and co-conspirators in the Zionist plot) and have the audacity to feel that they have the right to do so.

The Myth of the Holocaust

The Jewish embellishment of the holocaust is what they have used for all so many years to hold the world's sympathies and guilt regarding all the Jews supposedly killed in Nazi Germany. Yet, when we discuss the "Holocaust" from the perspective of historical truth, rather than emotional blackmail and unsubstantiated emotionalism, there comes into play another perspective which we must examine. There is no one who can substantiate the six million count of Jewish deaths in WWII, which is claimed by the Zionists. Whole villages and towns were vanquished and all respective records along with them. Down played of course is the fact that many nationalities and ethnic groups were killed in Nazi Germany, and many millions more, including Jews, died not from the atrocities of the gas chambers and other Nazi horrors. Rather, many died from the extremely poor conditions of the concentration camps and from starvation and disease.

In addition to playing upon the conscience of the world for political reasons, we do know that Jews have a financial game to play with keeping alive the ideal of the "Great Holocaust". By the mid 1950's, Jews had collected upwards of 52 billion dollars from the German government for alleged losses incurred in lives and property. We should understand why so many monuments have been built around the world to commemorate the Jewish war deaths; it's big business. Also, I might add that we are constantly shown pictures of bodies heaped upon bodies. Although the pictures are such that identities are undefinable, they are still used and the gruesomeness of the scenes quickly arouse the sympathies of the viewers.

Jews Are the Founders of Communism and Capitalism

Another propaganda hoax of the deceitful Zionists is the cry of human rights violations committed by the Russian Communists against the defenseless Jewish minority. Nothing can be further from the truth. A careful study of the origins of Communism will reveal that the founding fathers were Jews and the goal of world domination of the Communists and the Zionists are one and the same. On the one hand, Jews were the founders of Communism. On the other hand, they controlled capitalism and government in the U.S. Then they pitted one against the other, playing a very sinister game which placed the U.S. and USSR in deadly opposition to one another so that they would both be destroyed, if not physically through an all-out nuclear confrontation, then at least financially by attrition caused by the never ending "cold war".

The founder of Communism was Karl Marx, a Jew who surrounded himself with Jews. Communism is likened to a thinly disguised offshoot of international super-capitalism, a plague on mankind. The reality is that far too many Jews were communists and very few Jews opposed it.

We have chosen one of the most dismal and brutal periods of history to illustrate the treacherous and diabolical scheme of the Communist Jews. The place is Russia, the time is the early 20th century. Trotsky, one of the luminaries of modern day Communism shows up in New York to enlist the aid of none other than the Rothschilds, founders of the International Bank. After being bankrolled by the same, Trotsky and a gang of Marxist recruits from the lower East side of New York leave for Russia in March of 1917.

Lenin along with Trotsky and his cronies formed the Communist Central Executive Committee. Once Lenin was secured in the leadership, he began the process of the "liquidation" of all leadership of the Gentile Russian populace, who could offer any conceivable threat or alternative to Bolshevik usurpation, They established a group which was the grandfather of Hitler's feared SSS force known by the acronym CHEKA, which later became the KGB. The first wave of deaths numbered around one million. In October 1917, Lenin demanded extermination of entire social groups and stated, "Not a single revolutionary government can dispense with the death penalty for the exploiters." He also stated, "Spectators shall be shot: we cannot achieve anything without terror." A U.S. army intelligence chief, who was on the scene in Russia during the Bolshevik revolution, took note at the time of a forbidden fact that is still ignored or denied by "established historians. Most of the early commissars, who were guilty of the bloodiest atrocities, were Jews from America.

When the tactics employed are carefully examined, a mirror image emerges of the same tactics employed by Hitler and the same tactics now employed by the terrorist occupiers of Palestine and the treatment being meted out to its indigenous Muslim population. Remember, financing for the Russian operation originated in New York City, just as it continues to finance similar operations today -- and their conspiracy lives on. There is much more evidence in history if closely re-examined, but our purpose here is to make this report as concise as possible. At this time and place we are not able to relate the massive amount of incriminating evidence of the well thought-out plans of the Zionist communists to establish the Kingdom of David.

The world thinks that Communism is dead and that is exactly what the Zionists want us to believe. But the truth is that the Bolsheviks are very much alive, however they are now working covertly from Jerusalem.

Al-Islam and Muslims pose the greatest threat to the success of the Zionists' demented plan for world domination because the Holy Qur'an and the Holy Last Messenger (PBUH) detail and expose their demonic conspiracies and condemn them for the same, to suffer debasement and eternal homelessness. And because the vast majority of Muslims are secure in the truth of their faith, they are not vulnerable to the lies and deceptions of conspirators. Nor can their destruction or subjugation accomplished through conversion of ideology. Zionists plot is to eliminate the Muslim masses through oppression and slaughter. To shed the blood of Muslims and Christians are alike in the eyes of the Jew. This is not only lawful, but commendable. These calculating cowards do not fight their own battles, but cleverly scheme and stop at nothing to provoke both groups to fight one another.

Imam Sheikh Mubarik Ali Jilani, Chairman of the Quranic Open University and Director of the Muslims of the Americas Inc., has joined with former Congressman Paul Findley, author of They Dare to Speak Out, a book which exposes the negative influence of the Zionist lobby on the foreign policy of the United States, in establishing an interfaith foundation. This group will work with Muslims and Christians to expose and counteract the nefarious designs of the Jews to take over the United States and the world. Sheikh Jilani and Mr. Findley are making every effort to convey to the world, American citizens in particular, that it is only through Muslim-Christian cooperation that America and its constitution can be saved from the vicious plot of these tyrannical saboteurs of freedom and justice, the Jews.

TO ENSLAVE THE WORLD

The American Jewry engineered the Bolshevik Revolution, which in design was to establish the communist state with the aim not only to destroy all the Muslims and Islamic states, but all the religions of the world. The Bolsheviks first seized control over Petrograd area, and then for the next two and one half years engineered control over the entirety of the Russian and Independent States. In fact, according to National Geographic Magazine, Oct. 1992, Vol.182, No.4, after seizing control in 1917, the Bolsheviks consolidated power at home by first extricating themselves from World War I. They relinquished claims to certain territories that were under the Tsarist Empire in a separate peace with Germany. Upon the defeat of the Germans, the Bolsheviks regained those territories and then won a civil war against the white armies and re-exerted control over Central Asia. Eventually their grab for land, in 1922, gave birth to the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (U.S.S.R.) [The New World Order of that time.]

Over thirty million Muslims and Christians were slaughtered and many more were put into concentration (work) camps to enhance Stalin's brutal collectivization of agriculture over the next twenty years. Before this, however, Lenin, a known Marxist and an atheist, in charge of political activities, along with his counterpart, Leon Trotsky, who was in charge of the Red Army, became the leaders of the Bolshevik Revolution. [NOTE: The Red Army was not a name picked at random. It was so named as taken from the 'Red Shield', the name used by the deadly Rothschild Empire, which dominated the international banking.]

Des Griffin in Descent into Slavery writes that there were extraordinary personalities instrumental in helping Lenin lead a successful revolution, and most of them were Jews. These Jews were descendants of the Chaser Empire which flourished from the seventh to the eleventh centuries. A people of Turkish stock caught in between the Eastern Roman Empire and the triumphant followers of the Holy Last Messenger of ALLAH, Muhammad (the Muslims), chose to resist both Christianity and Islam and converted to Judaism. Today, these Khazars control and dominate every facet of the Jewish society under the cloak of Zionism and the New World Order. (READ: The Thirteenth Tribe by Arthur Koestler.)

The U.S. government in 1919 investigated the causes of the Russian Revolution. It found one significant factor that without doubt facilitated the fall of the then Russian Empire. That was the leadership roles played by Jews in the revolution. The following is a document on a hearing before the Judiciary Sub-Committee of U.S. Senate, 65th Congress:

... from a very reliable source that in 1918, December, the Soviet regime had 388 members, only sixteen were of Russian descent, one Negro and the rest were Jews. After the 1917 revolution, Jews were on benches and soap boxes speaking as they pleased, whereas until that time, they were held to restrictions on the activities and public gatherings in Petrograd. Yiddish became a great language of Russia under the Bolsheviks, and the Jewish communities began to flourish. Dr. Simon gave the Sub-committee Russian names of leaders in the Bolshevik organization along with their given Jewish names.

	Jewish Name	Russian Name
1.	Von Gutmann	Chernoff
2.	Bronstein	Trotsky
3.	Zederbaum	Martoff
4.	Katz	Kamkoff
5.	Goldenberg	Meshkoff

The list is continuous. In March 1919, the Times of London reported that no less than 75% of the Russian revolutionary leadership was Jewish. To add to this fact, a Jewish publication, the Jewish Chronicle, on April 4, 1919 reported that many of the Jews were Bolsheviks because the ideals of Bolshevism were consistent with the ideals of Judaism. The decisive and ruthless minority group had been able to seize power because the masses had been neutralized by the Zionist propaganda. These Jews were so ruthless that Zinovieff, his real name Apfelbaum, was quoted as saying:

In the interest of the Revolution it is required that the physical annihilation of the bourgeois (middle class) be eliminated. We will turn our hearts into steel, which will temper in the fire of suffering and the blood of fighters for freedom. We will make our hearts cruel, hard and unmovable so that no mercy will enter them. We will not quiver at the sight of a sea of enemy blood. We will let loose the floodgates of that sea without mercy, without sparing, and we will kill our enemies in scores of hundreds.

Russia under the Bolsheviks

Russia under Bolshevism experienced the most extreme economic and social chaos to the point of complete collapse. Food was deliberately sabotaged by the Bolsheviks under the International Banker, Jacob Schiff and the "Illuminati." Terror was the order of the day, everyday. The Red Army and the CHEKA (secret police) systematically murdered any potential or imaginary opponent they thought to be in opposition to their reign of power. At that time the American Consulate forwarded a message to Washington stating that thousands had been imprisoned and shot without even a trial. Most of them were innocent of any political views, which were supposedly the reasons for their executions.

The situation in Russia was truly dire, yet not one nation moved to prevent the annihilation of the innocent masses in Russia. (This scenario seems to repeat itself often in the world history, as in the time of Nazi Germany and today in Bosnia and Kashmir.) Here the people (again Muslims) were being annihilated while the world stood idly by and watched. The people who were supposed to protect the rights of the Russian people were the same people responsible for executing the plan laid out by the Illuminati and their Satanic supreme commander, the American Albert Pike. Their aim, as always, was to destroy world religion in general, and Islam in particular.

A thorough investigation will reveal that every war that has been fought in this century, including the Russian and French Revolutions, was planned, supported and financed by the international bankers of America and Europe (controlled by Jews) and the Zionist secret societies, the Illuminati heading the list. A reign of terror unknown to the world before resulted in millions of deaths. With religious zeal, the Bolsheviks and their Jewish counterparts from the U.S. and Europe incorporated all the sadistic, satan-inspired instructions. When the bloodshed ceased, some 30 million people, mostly Muslims and Christians, had perished under this red machinery called Bolshevism, later to be known as Communism and both dominated by the international bankers, the Zionists, and of course, the ILLUMINATI.

Winston Churchill Speaks Out

Winston Churchill, in an article published in the Illustrated Sunday Herald, Feb. 8, 1920, stated that the conspirators of the Illuminati played a definite role in the French revolutionary tragedy and had been in the mainstream of every subversive movement during the 19th and 20th centuries. And now this society from the underworld of the great cities of Europe and America had grabbed the people of Russia by the hair of their heads. They had become the undisputed masters of that enormous empire.

What Is the Illuminati

Adam Wisehophf, a Jesuit priest and a professor at Ingolstadt University in Bavaria (a part of Germany), was the founder of the Order of the Illuminati. Established on May 1, 1776, the major goal of this order from its onset was world domination via abolishment any owning of private property and ending all ecclesiastical bodies. In other words, their aim was to destroy religion. Ironically these are the same goals of the Communist parties. In fact, the Russian Revolution started on the same day (May 1, 1905, perhaps this is just a coincidence, but I don't think so). Wisehophf was so cunning in his plan to enslave the masses and deceive the Christians that on the day of establishing his order he is quoted to have said,

The most wonderful thing of all is that the distinguished Lutheran and Calvinist theologians who belong to our order really believe that they see in the Illuminati true and genuine sense of the Christian religion. Oh mortal man, is there anything you cannot be made to believe.

Even in this day and age, there are still so many Christians and Muslims that are duped by this 'con' and its newest format, the NEW WORLD ORDER.

NOTE: the basic belief of the Jesuit Order is that reason is the root of man's ability to set the moral tone of a society, rather than the teachings of the Bible and the belief in the Superior Being.

The New World Order Conspiracy

The United States is staggering through some very difficult times with apparently no solution in sight. Treachery in the government, crime, drugs, deceit, debt, sexual perversion, war, and no life but death. Since the seduction by the anti-God forces of socialism and reformism, we have refused to learn from the graphic lessons of the spilled blood of the past generations. The U.S., as a society guided by its "leaders", has trampled upon every law and principle of God and man -- religious and secular that originally made her a great nation.

George Bush, former United States president, is believed to be in these modern times the first to compose and use the title "the New World Order" (NWO), or was he? Let us take a closer look at the so-called founder of this NWO philosophy. George Herbert Walker Bush, born June 12, 1924, in Milton Massachusetts. He attended and graduated from Phillips Academy in 1942 and enlisted in the Naval Reserve. He became a pilot, flying missions during World War 2 and was awarded D.F.C. and air medals. After his tour of duty in the armed services, he enrolled at Yale University, like his father, where he was also initiated into the secret and exclusive society 'Skull and Bones'.

Prescott Bush, George's father, had a profitable association with the Wall Street financial elite. After his graduation, George Bush joined the international banking firm of W.H. Harriman in 1926. He along with Averell and E. Roland Harriman were fellow Skull and Bones members. Due to his close relationship with various notable corporations and his ties with international finance, he was elected to serve in the U.S. Senate, 1952-62. As you may see, George just was not a mere accident.

In 1980, Bush ran for President in the Republican primaries against former President Ronald Reagan. He was at that time a member of David Rockefeller's Council on Foreign Relations and Trilateral Commission. At first he ran a strong campaign against Reagan, even accusing Reagan of "voodoo" economics. Yet, after closed door negotiations, he cancelled his bid for president and joined Reagan's ticket and ran for vice-president. Whatever their deal was, know that Bush had not abandoned his goals. He would have done anything to advance his own interests and the goals of the Wall Street establishment and the Zionist conspirators.

Throughout the years, Bush has occupied quite a number of strategically important positions in government and politics. He was a congressman (1967-70), a U.S. Ambassador to the U.N. (1971-72), Chairman of the Republican National Committee (1973-74), Director of CIA (1976), Vice-President of the U.S. (1980-88), and last, but not the least, President of the U.S. (1988-92).

Bush joined the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR) in 1971. When he resigned in 1979, he was a member of the board of directors. The CFR was founded in 1921 under the direction of E. Mandell House, Jacob Schiff, John D. Rockefeller, J.P. Morgan and Paul Warburg. Ironically, these are the same people that engineered the formation of the Federal Reserve System a few years earlier. The Council on Foreign Relations is the American branch of the Royal Institute of International Affairs in England. Historically, the CFR has had a passion for controlling the direction of the American foreign policy. Along with the various lobbyist groups, the CFR has pushed the American public in the direction of accepting the theory of a single world order/new world order; another way of saying the dominance of the satanic order and the destruction of divine consciousness.

Bush was also a member of the Trilateral Commission. Its chairman to no one's surprise is none other than David Rockefeller. Established in 1973 with chief foreign policy advisor Zbigniew Brzezinski, a Polish born Jew, the Commission was formed because the U.N. was moving too slow in implementing their plan of a new world order. The goal of this elite group was to harness the resources of all the top minds in the industrial and economic field. The U.S., Japan and Western Europe alliance formed this trilateral founded on their mutual desire and acceptance of the philosophy the 'One World' order. In fact, at a meeting of the trilateral of nations a few years ago,

George Bush not only embarrassed himself, but he embarrassed the Commission and the U.S. when he choked on his food and threw-up over the dinner table at a state affair covered on international T.V. Could this have been the reason for his loss in the election to the new puppet, William Clinton?

To understand the Trilateral, you must also understand the thinking of one of its composers, Zbigniew Brzezinski. He claimed that man has been moving for some time through a social evolution in stages. According to him, at present we find ourselves in the final stage. Brzezinski said the first revolutionary stage was the primitive stage that revolved around religion. He stated that in this stage that the concept of God holding man's destiny in His Hand "demonstrates a narrowness derived from massive ignorance, illiteracy and a vision confined to the immediate environment." Even Satan, the Devil himself, could not and would not make such a blasphemous statement. The second stage of Brzezinski evolutionary stages is that of nationalism, the true enlightenment of man, where man is able to define his own nature and place in the world. Marxism is the next stage which is a vital and creative stage for the growth of man's vision. (Haven't we heard these same ideas in the manifesto of the Communist Bolshevik Revolution that now comes under the title of the NWO.) This stage exudes the victory of the external, active man over the inner passive man, and victory of reason over belief.

The fourth stage is the ideals of rational humanism on an international level. Brzezinski states that in this stage there would be a gradual appearance of a more controlled and directed society, through technology in which the elite would dominate the masses, unrestricted by the traditional values, such as love for Jesus son of Mary and the Holy Last Messenger of Allah, Muhammad (peace be upon them both) and obedience to their divinely-revealed tenets. There would be the elimination of the belief in God and His messengers, God's commandments or any revealed law, or ideologies of man-made laws upon which societies had been founded, as with the U.S. Constitution and its Bill of Rights. All God-fearing people will be put under constant surveillance and records kept on everyone's behavior. Ask yourself, why is it that cable T.V. is so popular and now so inexpensive to own? Surely the same technology which allows a picture to be cabled into your home, can reverse the process to make it possible for the same cable can transmit a picture from your home for someone watch you. (Remember the "make-believe-world of "Big Brother" in George Orwell's 1984.)

Brzezinski, his friend, Henry Kissenger and their associates had been given the control to put together the Trilateral Commission. Both Brzezinski and Kissenger were part of Bush's administration, and in some capacity today, they are still advising presidents and government officials on policies of national and international interests.

The evident racism and religious prejudices of those who ruled the Bush administration, now Clinton's, has truly manifested in current foreign policies. The U.S. government is supposedly 'champion of democracy and humanity', yet it supported the take-over of Zimbabwe by the Marxist government of Robert Mugabe, and in fact said that the policies of Zimbabwe were consistent with U.S. principles and interest, of whose interest is Communism. Similarly, when the democratically elected government of Algeria was deposed by a military junta, the U.S. uttered not a single protest, because the Islamic Party was expected to win in the national elections. Our reactions in Bosnia also demonstrate selective behavior in regards to support for justice and democracy for Muslims and Islamic states. Kashmir is another longer standing example of America's Zionist non-commitment to champion its causes without bias to religious. Yet the lines are inconsistently drawn as shown in our reaction in Somalia and in Haiti, where America is making a great to-do over the military takeover and as they prepare to rescue another nation of a threatening monster. But why is the "monster" in Haiti any more horrendous than the ones in Bosnia, Kashmir, Palestine. The propagators of the New World Order are very selective in deciding which countries under their dominion deserve "democracy".

George Bush also had direct connection with the international drug trafficking. Of course, the history of his drug connection is shadowy. However, in 1980, when President Reagan declared War of Drugs and appointed Vice-President Bush to head this department, all types of coverups came to light. The war on drugs is the only war no country seems to be able to win. The American war machinery blanket bombed innocent Muslim men, women, children. They had a field day in Grenada, and in Panama, not only did they destroy the country, but they captured that country's president. With all the sophisticated armies and weapons in use today, how is it possible that the lowly of the drug underground so consistently evade pursuit and drugs are even in greater use than ever before. This conspiracy is going according to plan. The chosen few, the Zionists, and the international bankers, like with the slave trade, control this very profitable drug trade. Instead of human bondage their goal today is human suffering and loss of human lives. The entire Cambodian killing fields of Pol Pot was to destroy lives and develop drugs traffic. Crime is the major problem of every large city in the world. Seventy-five percent of these crimes are drug related. Within this, the amount of lives lost directly to drugs or drug-related murders now approaches the numbers of those lives lost in the great world wars.

A Col. Bo Gritz was sent into Vietnam to search for MIA/POW survivors of that war. He discovered, however, that the CIA had been involved in a very profitable business of running drugs from S.E. Asia to the U.S. In a video interview with General Khun Sa, the drug lord of the Golden Triangle, Bo Gritz was told that the general would stop growing poppy if the U.S. would give him a tenth of the monies and weapons they had been giving the Burmese Communist. On his return to the U.S., Col. Gritz informed his superiors of his findings and the proposal from General Khun Sa. He was told it was not in the interest of the U.S. government to stop the flow of drugs from Viet Nam (or anywhere else for that matter). As of this writing the Burmese government is still killing innocent Muslim men, women and children from monies and weapons given to them by the U.S. government. Also, Col. Gritz had gathered intelligence information that General Manuel Noriega, the President of Panama, a known communist and drug smuggler, was clearly behind the sabotage of American military facilities in the Canal. Yet, the order to terminate him was denied. The reason: he was of too great of a value to the higher echelons in the U.S. government, especially to the CIA of which George Bush was the head. (Please read A Nation Betrayed.) The promoters of the godless NWO continue to reap the benefits of the illegal drugs trade, and at the same time fulfil the aim of their NWO and "Global 2000" plan which is to arrive at a zero population growth (especially in the Third World) by year 2000 and to have eliminated 50% of the world population.

In January 1991, George Bush had committed nearly a half million troops to the Middle East to stop what he called an open aggression by Saddam Hussain and the Iraqi Army against a weak and defenseless Kuwait. However, what is now known is that the only reason for going into the Gulf states was to inaugurate the modern day plan for the New World Order and to protect the oil and other financial interests of the international bankers. In fact, just before the Iraqi invasion of Kuwait, a top Russian military strategist, General A. Makashov and the American Ambassador to Iraq, April Glaspie, visited Saddam Hussain and assured him there would not be any interference if he moved into Kuwait. The U.S. in fact said that they had no defense treaty with any Gulf country. But, Saddam Hussain was set-up so that the strengthening of his Islamic state which was a sure threat to Israel was aborted enabling the plan of the inventors of the New World Order to prevail. What is seen to be one of the most significant inroads was accomplished during this most unfortunate event in the history of the Islamic world, that was the ability of the U.S. led forces, non-Muslims, to gain a stone-throw's access to Islam's most holiest of the shrines, the Holy Kaaba. More horrible than this reality was that the Muslims, Saudi Arabia primarily, voluntarily permitted non-Muslim military personnel and weaponry to take refuge in the Holy Land of Islam and from these bases, the world powers were allowed to attack Muslim Iraq morning, noon and night, killing over two million Muslims.

In a publication titled, Operation Vampire Killer 2000, written by police against the New World Order, it states:

Allegedly this new order is being set up to save the people of the world from a whole variety of imminent life and world threatening disasters. Of those sworn protectors of the people that are aware of this global scheme, few realize that the actual behind the scenes plan is for an oligarchy of the world's richest families to place half of the masses of the earth in servitude under complete control, administered from behind the false front of the U.N. To facilitate management capabilities, the plan calls for the elimination of the other 2.5 billion people through war, disease, abortion and famine by the year 2000. As we can plainly see, their plan for Population Control (reduction) is well established and under way.

Other national and world leaders have made statements recognizing and revealing the evil plans of the mentors of the NWO:

Felix Frankfurter, U.S. Supreme Court Justice, stated, "The real rulers in Washington are invisible and exercise power from behind the scenes."

Franklin D. Roosevelt, U.S. President, in a letter written to E. Mandell House on November 21, 1933, wrote, "The real truth of the matter is, as you and I know, that a financial element in the large centers has owned the government of the U.S. since the days of Andrew Jackson."

Barry Goldwater, U.S. Senator from Arizona, said "The Trilateral Commission is international and is intended to be the vehicle for multinational consolidation of the commercial and banking interests by seizing control of the political government of the U.S. The Trilateral Commission represents a skillful, coordinated effort to seize control and consolidate the four centers of power: POLITICAL, MONETARY, INTELLECTUAL, ECCLESIASTICAL."

The religion of the NWO is none other than Satanism. According to David Spangler, director of Planetary Initiative, a U.N. world government group, "No one will enter the NWO unless he or she will make a pledge to worship Lucifer. No one will enter the New Age unless he or she will take a Luciferian Initiation."

This same Satanic doctrine is being taught to the future teachers of our children. Dr. Chester Pierce, a Harvard University professor and guru of NWO initiative, instructs his students and aspiring teachers,

"Every child in America who enters school at the age of five is mentally ill, because he comes to school with an allegiance to our institutions and sovereignty, and all that proves that children are sick, because a truly well individual is one who has rejected all those things and is truly the international child of the future".

Dr. Paul Brandwein, noted child psychologist, stated, "Every child who believes in God is mentally ill."

Children are no longer taught the values of good and evil, the rights from the wrongs. Value clarification are the methods now used to alter the student's way of thinking. Children are being told and trained to think that it's OK to lie, cheat, steal, even kill and it's OK to fornicate and commit adultery and be homosexual. The philosophy is if these things are part of your value system, then do as you like, clarify these values for yourself, for you are the master of your own destiny. The important thing is not what values you choose but that you have chosen them yourself freely, without coercion of parents, spouse, priest, friends, ministers, or any other social pressure of any kind. Is this what we want for our future? (Allah have mercy on those who believe and know the Truth.)

The world under these so-called superpowers have failed, and I'm sorry to say, the majority of the Christian leadership has sold out. The only solutions left for the masses of the people are the paths that lead to the one True God via His true and chosen religion, Al-Islam. Islamic peoples of the world are the only ones whose masses still follow and practice their beliefs in letter and spirit. Most of the other major and ancient religions of the world are waning in participation by their followers who have become disillusioned or duped by false prophets and promises.

At the same time Islam is rising. Its appeal, especially in the West, has made it the only growing religion in the U.S. and it is outgrowing Judaism. This is why Islam and Muslims are seen as threats to the very core of NWO conspiracy, who had believed their plan in America to be in the final stage ripe for the expulsion of religion as Christianity is on its way out. Only to their surprise and dismay, they instead find Islam rising rapidly in the West. So, the Zionists are attempting to destroy it by pitting Muslim against Christian, by creating transgressions by the Western world over the Muslim world, or by not allowing the West to support, economically or politically, the Muslim world, or by flooding the media with such negative propaganda and character assassinations of Muslims and our religion.

What can these Satanists do but try and blow out the light of God Almighty with such propaganda? Muslim and Christian, we are standing in the way of the "Established Elite" and their sinister plot. The Presidency may have changed and the sentinels are in place, however the venom of the snake is still the same.

ZIONIST PLOT THROUGH COMMUNISM FOR WORLD CONQUEST

After orchestrating the conditions that produced War World II, the Zionist conspirators were able to manifest their plan to shift world powers and ownership of empires. Thus as Lenin, dictator of Red Russia, had proclaimed, they would first take eastern Europe and then on to Asia. The war benefited the conspirators in a number of ways. First, the United States who had managed to stay aloft from world affairs, was drawn smack in the middle of the conflict, exposing its vulnerability which had remained securely tucked away to date under a policy of "trade with all, alliance with none". Another advantage World War II gave to the Zionist plotters was the result of the enormous debt the United States incurred, $400 billion. This debt forced the U.S. heavily into financial obligation to the Zionist international bankers. Next, the war had opened the way for the creation of the state of Israel. This, in turn, created the violent environment of the Middle East that for years to come would allow the Zionists to manipulate world opinion and events from this seat of conflict.

World War II also unleashed the doctrines of socialism/communism on the world. This disease destroyed the economic structure of Great Britain. In its disguised form, the socialist virus in recent years has been released into U.S. politics and economics and now threatens the very core of our republic.

Another Zionist tool created by the War was the United Nations (not surprisingly enough to know that it is located on property donated by the Rockefellers in New York). This insured that from that time forward the U.S. would be involved in foreign affairs, which was contrary to the original ideals of the founding fathers to maintain sovereignty for our people and land.

Seeing that there was a number of events during the time of World War II that advantaged the "conspirators", the more significant of these were the creation of Israel and the setting of the political chaos of the Middle East. At the conclusion of the war, world attention shifted to the Middle East and efforts of Jews in attempting to carve a state out of Palestine. There was much opposition to these efforts, outside the Middle East as well as inside. In 1944, the British colonial administrator, Lord Moyne, was seeking an equitable solution to the situation though he shared the view of many that the creation of a Zionist state in the heart of the Islamic world, especially against the will of the inhabitants, would be catastrophic. For this belief, Lord Moyne was assassinated. However, his murder generated like thought in Britain to opposed the Zionist state.

The opposition of British public opinion, led Zionist conspirators to ordain that the blood of Britain was lawful as a means to kill their authority in Palestine and make way for their Zionist state. Thus, again as they had done during the Russian Revolution, they would implement the use of terrorism as a means of getting what they wanted. They knew that it would come about through no other means.

Thus, the Zionist, terrorist groups were formed and organized in Palestine, such as Irgun Zvai Leumi and the Stern Gang with such leaders as Menachim Begin and Yitzhak Shamir, creating murder and mayhem throughout. In the midst of their murderous chaos, the Jewish masses of Europe began their exodus to Palestine via Germany and Austria. It was clear to all that this was a planned and organized movement [started prior to the actual creation of the Zionist state]. Though its leadership could not be pinpointed, it was evident that it was being financed from the United States. Also, the exodus from eastern Europe had to have had the blessings of America, England and Russia, especially knowing that with most of the migrators coming from behind the "Iron Curtains" that, then, no one left there without official permission.

Additional evidence of the mutual conspiracy to sanction the creation of Israel, in 1955, the U.S. State Department published records of the 1945 Yalta Conference in which it is reported that President Roosevelt asked Russia's Stalin if he was a Zionist, after testifying that he was one himself. Stalin's reply was that he was one in "principle". All the players were in place for the scene that was now playing on the stage. With the increasing violence in Palestine, with especially high losses among British soldiers, the case was referred to the newly formed U.N., who in 1947 voted to separate Palestine into two states, Arab and Jewish. Of course, the Zionists agreed, as expected, and the Arabs rejected, as expected. And the turmoil of the Middle East continues still today.

By now the readers must have no doubt in their minds that the under cover Zionists are ruling various countries of the world directly and their agents indirectly. They are the master "puppeteers", who work behind the curtains, but control the strings of the puppet leadership of many countries' governments, or they directly hold strategic and critical positions, particularly where they can manipulate policy regarding international finance and politics. They bring them into clashes with each other while they are securing a master plan the way we saw in World War II that Stalin, Roosevelt and Churchill, controlled by Zionists, all three executed their plan but they brought about clashes to achieve the Zionist homeland.

When the Zionist established their homeland in Palestine, a member of British Intelligence remarked, "This marks the end of the Crusades." Unfortunately, like in the times of the ancient Crusades, when Arab-states helped the Western invaders against their Arab neighbor states. And during the neo-crusades of our century, other Arab countries, against their brothers in Palestine, helped to establish this state of Zionist -- Israel.

The international Zionists, after establishing their homeland and in order to begin the establishment of a world government, joined hands with the leadership of the U.S. and U.S.S.R.; and conspired to bring about the cruelest and bloodiest war of modern times in Afghanistan. In their typical manner, they used someone else, Pakistan in this case, as an escape goat, and what resulted was the Muslims and the Soviets (non-Jews) were pitted against each other on the battlefield.

The Russian leadership at that time and their Zionists conspirators deceived the government practitioners into believing that they could win such a war of transgression (same scenario in Iraqi/Kuwaiti war) in these times, and in spite of strong world opinion against their action. Thus, the final outcome was the total breakup of the U.S.S.R., which in time permitted the "third exodus" of the Jews out of Russian and allowing for them to resettle in the occupied territories of Palestine thus insuring its continued occupation.

Note: Israeli generals participated in the Afghan war -- one of which was Yossef Bodansky, an anti-Islamic agent, author of Target America, who lobbies in the U.S. against Islam. (See attached article from New York Post, Tuesday, October 4, 1983.)

The last remaining obstacles of the international gangsters, the Zionists, plan for a new world order is Pakistan and Sudan, two nations which are resisting completion of this final execution of a one world government.

PAKISTAN

The late Pakistani president, Gen. Zia Ul Haq, and most of the high ranking officials of his government and military already understood the hidden agenda of the Zionists with regards to Afghanistan, and they worked hard to keep them out of Afghanistan. However, the Zionists were able to execute the successful assassinations of Pres. Zia and several very prominent generals and government officials of Pakistan, when the president's plane was blown up. There was supposedly thorough investigation of the incident by U.S. FBI and CIA. However, their findings were hushed-up and the truth of what happened was withheld from the public. Yet Pakistan knew and every Pakistani finger was pointed towards one American diplomat as the mastermind of this tragedy.

At present, the Zionist plan is to deprive Kashmir, which is an integral part of Pakistan, and the Kashmir Muslims of their freedom. They also seek to gain a foothold in Pakistani territory. For the past five years, the freedom fighters have been waging jihad against these Zionist conspirators and their Hindu puppets to keep Kashmir out of their evil ploy. Even in Pakistan, these Zionist agents roam about the streets disguised in the local dress as tourist. Their true aim is to eliminate all believing and fundamental Muslims, whose goal is to establish a true Muslim state.

These agents are trying to create clashes between the provinces of the country, and in a similar manner to what happened in the U.S.S.R., this would lead to the disintegration of Pakistan. They are propagating division and dissension on the basis of ethnic origins. They propose that provinces should be given independence based along these lines; attempting to divide a country which is united on the basis of its people's common belief - Al-Islam. They have a documented plan to have an Ismaili state created from Kashmir that would border the Indus River to Baltistan- Hunza Gilgit-Chitral touching Wakhan. More than fifty percent of their goal was achieved when the reigns of Pakistani government were handed over to Agha Khan, with whom the Pakistani administration is nominal. The Zionist are also trying to create an independent state within the state of Pakistan. Most unfortunate is that the people who are suppose to uphold the integrity of Islam and Pakistan have turned a blind eye to this conspiracy.

SUDAN

Ever since Sudan declared to the world its intentions to start the process to setup an Islamic state, the Zionists, the U.S. and all those partners in crime are assisting the insurgents against the Sudanese government in Southern Sudan. Plane loads of ammunition and mercenaries are being flown into the insurgents by Israel and the U.S. Yet, when the Sudanese took action against the insurgents, a big fuss was made regarding human rights violations, and the unholy and undeclared war of the Zionists/U.S. goes on.

A very common ploy of the Zionists is to threaten an unfriendly nation with charges of human rights violations as an easy way to effect other arenas of countries' relationships, i.e., economic/financial and military aid, or the set up international embargoes, or withdraw diplomatic relations. The "dangling carrots" such as the U.S. Most Favored Nation status is held over the heads of nations so that the international terrorists can force them to do their bidding. Those who refuse to be puppets, risk having their names added to the international list of human rights violators and associated consequences as is now happening to China (facing the threat of losing its "most favored nation" status with the U.S.), or a country's name may be added to the U.S. "terrorist" countries' list. This is the threat Sudan and Pakistan received in early 1994. However at the same time, when it comes to undeniable cases of human rights violations, the world is mute or motionless, i.e., India against Kashmir, Serbia against Bosnia and Israel against Palestine.

There seems to be no end to the treachery created by the plotters of this New World Order. If the Islamic world does not unite and heed the warnings contained in the afflictions which Allah, Ta'Ala has sent to the Muslims in the Bosnia and Kashmir where Muslim men, women and children at the hands of our enemies are being defiled, butchered and exiled from their homes, as an uncaring world looks on.

If we, the Muslims, continue to take for friends, those outside their ranks and ignore what Allah, Ta'Ala has enjoined on us for friendship and aid, surely the fate of many of the Islamic world will meet doom.

JEW - THE ORIGINAL TERRORISTS

Of the people there are some who say: "We believe in God and the Last Day," but they do not (really) believe. Fain would they deceive God and those who believe, but they only deceive themselves and realize (it) not!

In their hearts is a disease; and God has increased their disease, and grievous is the penalty they (incur), because they are false (to themselves).

When it is said to them: "Make not mischief on the earth," they say: "Why we only want to make peace!" Of a surety, they are the ones who make mischief, but they realize (it) not.

When it is said to them: "Believe as the others believe" they say: "Shall we believe as the fools believe?"-- Nay, of a surety they are the fools but they do not know. Holy Qur'an 2:8-13

Much is being said in the news media these days concerning terrorists and terrorism. It is most ironic that the very people who are behind all of this publicity, namely the Jews, have been for the past two thousand years the personification of international terrorism and conspiracy.

The Jews have proved themselves, time and again, to be the enemies not only of mankind, but even of Allah, Himself, and His Angels, His Messengers, and His Holy revelations to mankind. Allah Himself condemns them and curses them by His own word as stated in Holy Qur'an:

Say: Whoever is an enemy to Gabriel, for he brings down the (revelation) to thy heart by God's will, a confirmation of what went before, and guidance and glad tidings for those who believe.

Whoever is an enemy to God and His angels and messengers, to Gabriel and Michael, Lo! God is an enemy to the disbelievers. Holy Qur'an 2:97

When Allah sent Jesus, Son of Mary with the true guidance as a mercy to the Children of Israel who had fallen into sin, after so many times Allah had sent them sign and messengers, and had a total disrespect of the covenant which they had made with Allah, the Jews rejected him. Despite the fact that he manifested numerous miracles as a proof of the divine origin of his mission, the Jews, because of their arrogance and their love of sinful living went so far as to plot the murder of Allah's Messenger, who is loved by Muslims and Christians alike.

And when Jesus son of Mary said: "O Children of Israel! Lo! I am the Messenger of Allah unto you, confirming that which was (revealed) before me in the Torah, and bringing good tidings of a Messenger who will come after me, whose name is Ahmed (The Praised One). Yet when he came unto them with clear proofs, they said, "This is mere magic."

And who does greater wrong than he who invents a lie against Allah when he is summoned unto Al-Islam? And Allah guided not the wrongdoing folk.

As can be seen from the above quote from Holy Qur'an, Hazrat Jesus son of Mary foretold of the coming of the last and greatest of the Messengers of Allah, Hazrat Muhammad (PBUH) who is referred to as "Ahmed" of the same reference in the Gospel of John, "the Comforter". He is also referred to by many other beautiful names in the Torah and the Gospel of Jesus. Because of these references in the previously revealed books of Allah, the learned among the Jews knew of the coming of Hazrat Muhammad (PBUH), including the time at which his blessed appearance would illuminate the world and dispel the darkness. The signs which would become manifest in the heavens and on the earth at the time of his birth, and some of the characteristics of his matchlessly beautiful countenance.

Because the coming of the Holy Last Messenger (PBUH) was foretold in their divine books, the Jews who were living in the blessed city of Madinah during that time informed their Arab neighbors of the coming of the last and greatest of all the Messengers of Allah and His most beloved. It was for this reason that the Arab residents of that blessed city were able to recognize him immediately upon meeting him, accepted his invitation to abandon the worship of idols, submit themselves to Allah and become Muslims.

The Jews, however, once again manifested their arrogance and their enmity towards Allah and His Messengers. Though being aware of his coming and foretelling of his coming to others, they themselves rejected him, and accused him of falsehood. There were some good and pious people from among their scholars, who upon questioning the Holy Last Messenger (PBUH) concerning the knowledge of the unseen and future events which only one who was the recipient of Divine Revelation could have answered correctly, submitted themselves before him and confirmed the truth of his mission. The most prominent and pious of these was Hazrat Abdullah bin Salaam (May Allah be Pleased With Him), about whom Allah spoke in the Holy Qur'an:

Say: "See ye? If (this teaching) be from God, and ye reject it, and a witness from among the Children of Israel testifies to its similarity (with earlier scriptures), and has believed while ye are arrogant, (how unjust ye are!), truly God guides not a people unjust. Holy Qur'an 46:10

Despite their enmity, the Jews were treated very well by the Muslims, who now ruled the city of Madinah, and peace treaties were signed between the two parties to the effect that the Jews would not fight against the Muslims, nor aid their enemies. In return, the Jews would be under the protection of the Muslim government of Al-Madinah, and their lives and property would be considered inviolable.

However, the peace was short-lived. When the idol-worshippers, who wanted to stamp out Islam, the worship of the One True God, launched a massive attack against Madinah, the Jewish tribes broke their treaty and sided with the idolaters. They proclaimed idolatry superior to the worship of God, and even attempted to attack and kill the wives and children of the Muslims who were engaged on the field of battle. Would not one consider this treachery the very "terrorist" and "conspiracy" committed against a benevolent government of which the Jews are always eager to accuse Muslims?

Thou seest many of them turning in friendship to the unbelievers. Evil indeed are (the works) which their souls have sent forward before them (with the result), that God's wrath is on them, and in torment will they abide.

If only they had believed in God, in the Messenger and in what hath been revealed to him, never would they have taken them for friends and protectors, but most of them are rebellious wrongdoers. Holy Qur'an

Following their treachery, the Jews were expelled from that blessed vicinity, and their property confiscated. The Jews, of course, tell the story a different way. According to Jewish history books, they were "persecuted" by the Muslims.

History, however, uncovers the shallowness and falsehood of their accusations. To this very day, wherever Jews have lived under Muslim domination, they have had a secure and prosperous existence.

The so-called "Golden Age of Judaism" took place under Muslim rule in Spain.

Before Zionist invasion of Palestine, Muslims, Jews, and Christians had been living there in harmony for hundreds of years.

O ye who believe! Stand out firmly for God, as witnesses to fair dealings, and let not the hatred of others to you make you swerve to wrong and depart from justice. Be just: that is next to Piety: and fear God, for God is well-acquainted with all that ye do. To those who believe and do deeds of righteousness hath God promised forgiveness and a great reward.
Holy Qur'an 5:9-10

This is the Holy Qur'an, it guides the conduct of every believing Muslim. Although the Jews are cursed and promised a severe punishment in this world and the Hereafter for their treachery and enmity towards God, Muslims have never taken it upon themselves to carry out that punishment, instead leaving the affair in the hands of the Almighty, and treating the Jews with the best of treatment.

Today, the Jews continue to carry out their deadly terrorist activities with both the pen and the sword. While Israeli troops and Jewish settlers continue their unabated slaughter of innocent Muslim men, women and children, the Zionist-controlled press continues its efforts to invoke the sympathy of the world by depicting such scenes as a desecrated cemetery in France (later found to have been done by Jews themselves), and constantly reminding us of the Holocaust.

Upon investigation, it will be found that the true meaning of the word "holocaust" is "a religious sacrifice", and this term is being used by the Zionists in its true sense. American Zionists provoked Hitler into taking action against European Jews by making a "declaration of war" against Hitler and other such provocative acts in order that, by their "sacrifice" the rest of the world would be in sympathy with the "poor oppressed Jews" and support their drive to steal someone else's land and establish a "Jewish homeland".

The Zionists use the Bible as a proof that the Holy Land of Palestine belongs to them. In fact the Zionists are the most irreligious people, and before the unfortunate inhabitants of Palestine were targeted, many other places were under consideration by the Zionists for their "Homeland", including sections of Africa.

The truth of the matter is that the Jews, because of their treachery have been cursed by the Almighty, and will be a homeless people until the Day of Judgment.

The punishment of those who wage war against God and His Messenger, and strive with might and main for mischief through the land is: execution, or crucifixion, or the cutting off of hands and feet from opposite sides, or exile from the land: that is their disgrace in this world, and a heavy punishment is theirs in the Hereafter. Holy Qur'an 5:36

Though possession may be considered nine-tenths of the law, this is not divine law.

In their massive and unrelenting attacks on Muslims through sensationalist novels and documentaries (i.e. "Sword of the Shaheed", "Target America", "The Ha", etc.) written by Israeli Mossad agents, Muslims, especially Arabs, are depicted as cold, hard, unfeeling, and above all, dangerous people, while the Jewish or Christian hero is always "Mr. Nice Guy". According to these Zionist authors of falsehood and slander, Arabs never smile, they kick their children around, subjugate their women, have no regard for human life and are themselves less than human. So cleverly written, these articles of deception. Yet, one is prompted to wonder why the world regards the blatant fabrications as the Gospel truth, at the same time ignoring the truth about Zionists and Zionism as told even by one of their own such Jewish author Peter Ostrovsky, who wrote By Way of Deception, which reveals the cunning, worldwide deceptions of the Israeli secret intelligence agency, Mossad.

True history will bear out the falsehood of the Zionists' historical portrayal of Muslims. For example, when the Muslims, under the command of the famous Salaudeen re-conquered Jerusalem after its tyrannical rule by the crusaders when countless Muslims were mercilessly tortured and put to death, the conduct of the conquering Muslims was marked by kindness, mercy, and forgiveness. (See the Encyclopaedia Britannica's article on Salaudeen.) This was typical of the conduct of Muslims in warfare from the time the world was illuminated by the presence of the Holy Last Messenger Muhammad (PBUH), who was the bravest, kindest, most merciful, compassionate and forgiving of those who ever set foot upon the earth, or whoever will in the future.

The Jews, on the other hand, being unrestrained by any such thing as belief in the Holy Qur'an or love for Jesus son of Mary or the Holy Last Messenger, have committed and continue to commit mass murder against innocent people, and the recent massacre at Hebron being a prime example. This was an act actually carried out by one man, he is lauded in Israel and other Jewish communities in the world as a hero.

The purpose of the treachery created by the Zionist propaganda is to arouse feelings of enmity, or at least apathy, towards Muslims in the hearts of their Christian brothers, so that the Zionists can continue their mass-slaughter of Muslims without any interference from the Christian "Silent Majority". In actuality, Muslims and Christians are very close in kinship and belief. Jews are their common enemy, who cause hatred and division between them, and from this are able to manipulate the resources of the U.S. and waste American lives for their own purposes in destroying any Islamic country which had the nerve to stand against them. (i.e. Iraq)

Strongest among men in enmity to the believers wilt thou find the Jews and Pagans; and nearest among them in love to the believers wilt thou find those who say: "We are Christians"; because amongst these are men devoted to learning and men who have renounced the world, and they are not arrogant. Holy Qur'an 5:85

It can be readily seen from this section of Holy Qur'an that Muslims, contrary to the false propaganda of the Zionist-controlled mass media, bear no inherent hatred towards their Christian brethren, and from the following quote it will be made plain that there is very little difference in the beliefs of the two religions:

Behold! the angels said, "O Mary! God giveth thee glad tidings of a Word from Him: his name will be Christ Jesus, the son of Mary, held in honor in this world and the Hereafter and of those nearest to God. He shall speak to the people in childhood and in maturity, and he shall be of the righteous.

She said: "O my Lord! How shall I have a son when no man hath touched me?" He said: "Even so: God creates what He wills; when He hath decreed a plan, He but saith to it 'Be' and it is.

And God will teach him the Book and Wisdom, the Law and the Gospel.

And (appoint him) a Messenger to the Children of Israel (with this message): I have come to you, with a sign from your Lord, in that I make for you out of clay, as it were, the figure of a bird, and breathe into it, and it becomes a bird by God's leave; and I heal those born blind, and the lepers, and I quicken the dead, by God's leave; and I declare to you what ye eat, and what ye store in your houses. Surely therein is a Sign for you if ye did believe.

(I have come to you), to confirm the Law which was before me, and to make lawful to you part of what was forbidden to you; I have come to you with a Sign from your Lord. So fear God and obey me.

It is God who is my Lord and your Lord; then worship Him. This is a way that is straight.

When Jesus found unbelief on their part he said: "Who will be my helpers to (the work of) God?" Said the Apostles: "We are God's helpers, we believe in God, and do though bear witness that we are Muslims.

Our Lord! We believe in what thou hast revealed, and we follow the Messenger; then write us down among those who bear witness.

And (the unbelievers) plotted and planned, and God too planned, and the best of planners is God.

Behold! God said: O Jesus! I will take thee and raise thee to Myself and clear thee (of the falsehoods) of those who blaspheme; I will make those who follow thee superior to those who disbelieve, to the Day of Resurrection; then shall ye all return unto Me, and I will judge between you of the matters wherein ye dispute. Holy Qur'an 3:45-55.

Muslims and Christians alike love Jesus, and bear witness that he was sent as a mercy and a guidance from the Almighty, while the Jews reject him, call him a liar and an imposter, and plotted to murder him.

The Jews consider themselves to the "Chosen People". Only a Jew can enter Paradise, and any non-Jew, be he Christian or Muslim is completely worthless in their view, although they pretend friendship for the purpose of manipulating those people whom they derogatorily refer to as "Goyim".

Say: "If the last Home, with God, be for you specially, and not for anyone else, then seek ye for death, if ye are sincere."

But they will never seek for death, on account of the (sins) which their hands have sent on before them. And God is well acquainted with the wrong-doers. Thou wilt indeed find them, of all people, most greedy of life, even more than the idolaters; each one of them wishes he could be given a life of a thousand years; but the grant of such life will not save him from (due) punishment, for God sees well all that they do. Holy Qur'an 2:94-96

We hope that this small article will help to open the eyes of Christian brothers and sisters who are being victimized and manipulated by the evil conspiracy of the Zionists, our common enemy. Muslims and Christians must come together in friendship and understanding, and put an end to the machinations of these "Chosen People", whose purpose is solely to establish the "Kingdom of David", no matter what the cost in destruction of non-Jewish lives and property.

Let the people of the Gospel judge by what God hath revealed therein. If any do fail to judge by (the light of) what God hath revealed, they are (no better than) those who rebel. Holy Qur'an 5:50

JEWISH SUPREMACY: Evidence From The Talmud And Rabbinical Edicts Exposing The Supremacist Attitude of Jews Towards Christians

The devout Christian, if he reads the Bible carefully, will discover countless declarations of what the so-called "Chosen People", the Jews, mean to accomplish in the world.

And thou shall consume "eat the spoils".
Deuteronomy 7:16

The lord shall send the rod of thy strength out of Zion; rule thou in the midst of thy enemies... The Lord at thou right hand shall strike through kings on the day of His wrath. He shall judge among the heathen; He shall fill the place with dead bodies; He shall wound the head over many bodies.
Psalms 110

Come near, ye nations, to hear, and hearken, ye people, let the earth hear, and all that is therein, the world and all things that come forth from it. For the indignation of the Lord is upon all nations, and His fury upon all armies; He hath utterly destroyed them, He hath delivered them to the slaughter. Their slain shall also be casted out and their stink shall come up out of their carcasses, and the mountains shall be melted in their blood. For it is the year of the Lord's vengeance and the year of the recompense for the controversy of Zion.
Isaiah 34

There are dozens more. The Old Testament is replete with this sort of thing, particularly the Book of Joshua, which is a frightful chronicle of one mass murder heaped upon another. Of course there is a tendency by Christians, who approach the Old Testament with an attitude of innocent piety, to take the words at something less than face value, and in the mere sense of rhetoric or "Bible Talk". To get the uninhibited and specifically Jewish restatement of these ideas, one would have to look into the ancient Jewish law books, which are almost totally unknown among the non-Jews, such as The Talmud.

According to the Jewish Encyclopedia, New York, 1907 gentiles are defined as ". . . all the people which the Lord thy God shall deliver unto thee, thine eye shall have no pity on them".

For murder, whether of a Cuthean by a Cuthean, or an Israelite by a Cuthean, punishment is incurred; but of a Cuthean by an Israelite there is no death penalty. Sanhedrin 57

NOTE: a Cuthean is a heathen (gentile).

Murdering a Goy is like killing a wild animal. Sanhedrin 59a [Deleted in the Soncino English version] NOTE: a goy is a gentile.

Even the best of Gentiles should be killed. Abada Zara 26b, Tosefoth. [A Tosefoth is an official addition to the Talmud. These have been gathered in special supplementary volumes that are studied by the Rabbis along with the main work.]

If one is involved in the "occult" as so many faddists are today, the major issue of that area, the Jewish Kabbala, will provide an even more gruesomely forthright plan of action:

Extermination of Christians is a necessary sacrifice.
Zohar, Shemoth.

All Israelites will have a part in the future world...the Goyim, at the end of the world will be handed over to the Angel Duma and sent to Hell. Toldoth Noah and Lekh-Lekha

Tradition tells us that the best of the Goyim deserves death. Vaikra Rabba 14b. [The most homicidal Zoharic passages are included in the more recent DePauly French translation of the Talmud.]

As you can see the hatred that the Jew has for the Christian is the same that he has for the Muslim but the Christian is more targeted as illustrated by the above passages.

Those gentiles who think of themselves as Christians or who admire the figure or the teachings of Jesus Christ should be interested in how the Rabbis privately ravage him:

Jesus fornicated with his jackass. Sanhedrin 105a,b.

Jesus is in Hell and is being punished by being boiled in hot semen. Christians are boiled in feces. Gitten 57a.

We find it extremely difficult to relate this irreligious description of Jesus by the wicked Jews but there is no other way to show the scorn and hatred of Jews towards one of Gods most revered servants.

The Holy Qur'an and Muslims Show Great Reverence Towards
Jesus and Those Who Follow Him.

Strongest among men in enmity to the believers wilt thou find the Jews and the Pagans; and nearest among them in love to the believers wilt thou find those who say: "We are Christians." Because amongst these are men who are devoted to learning and men who have renounced the world, and they are not arrogant. Holy Qur'an 5:85

"And appoint him a Messenger unto the Children of Israel, (with this message) 'I have come to you with a sign from your Lord, in that I make for you out of clay the figure of a bird, and breath into it and it becomes a bird, by God's leave and I heal those born blind, and the lepers, and I quicken the dead by God's leave; and I shall declare to you what you should eat and what ye store in your houses. 'It is God who is my Lord and your Lord; then worship Him. This is a way that is straight.'

When Jesus found unbelief on their part he said: "Who will be my helpers to (the work) of God?"

Said the Apostles, "We believe in God, and do thou bear witness that we are Muslims (those who make their will subservient to the will of God).

Our Lord! We believe in what Thou has revealed, and we follow the Messenger; then write us down amongst those who bear witness."

And the unbelievers plotted and planned and God too planned, and the best of planners is God.

Behold! God said: "O Jesus! Holy Qur'an 3:45-55.

KNOW THY ENEMY: BY THE WAY HE WALKS, TALKS...

Once educated, a person of able intelligence can use "given" facts to identify repeated situations/scenarios, etc. to safeguard their family, property and future. With this book, if we are able to create an educated public, of many or of a few, we will have succeeded in our mission. We believe that if we are able to arm even a few people with the knowledge of recognizing their true enemies and their plots of destruction and domination than we will, by Allah's leave, have equipped the van guard that will eventually disrupt their enemies ultimate evil goals. Islamic history is quite definite in the examples that only a small force, with the guidance and aid of the Almighty, is needed to vanquished any force of evil.

To demonstrate the positive reality of knowing the character of your enemy so that you might recognize him behind whatever mask he may wear is evidence in the plot that is now being stage in "Democratic" Russia. We have repeated over and over again that one of the key tools instrumental in the Zionist conspiracy to bring about their NWO is by creating fear and chaos. By maintaining continuous confusion among the people, they are upon to impose their own views and perspectives, and eventually as planned, the people will allowed themselves to be herded like cattle in a controlled way of thinking and acting.

Setting The Stage For The Neo-Russian Revolution and The NWO

Russia is ensnared in a financial, political and spiritual crisis as great as any in its thousand-year history. The economy is tottering like a besotted barfly. Crime and corruption are rampant, and citizens who once took pride in their nations' world class stature now find themselves shoved to the margins of the world stage.

Time Magazine: 7/11/94

In Russia today, the Zionists, after having manipulated the fall of the U.S.S.R. and creating its present state of economic and social chaos, are now adding fuel to the flames with Vladimir Zhirinovskiy and his "Liberal Democratic Party" (LDP).

Zhirinovskiy, in a recent write-up by Time Magazine (7/11/94), was made to look like a less than harmless thorn in the side of the new Russian politics. Yet, if you know Zionist game of staging situations in which they set into motion their aims, objectives and controlling figures, you can see Zhirinovskiy as something more than a "harmless thorn". Briefly Time admits, "Despite his astonishing displays of excess, there seems to be a kind of brutal calculus behind the madness." Zhirinovskiy, himself states, "If I behave like a good-natured intellectual I really am...I won't get the votes." And he's getting votes as his party took 64 seats in the past election causing a tremendous sting to Yeltsin. The Russian masses are listening to this "street-wise" politician. They are hungry and jobless. Their esteem is damaged as their country went from "superpower" contender to "global beggar". They see Zhirinovskiy as "a touchstone for their deepest yearnings and frustrations." -- classic Zionists' approach to advantage themselves in the midst of others misery.

Without care in peeping the reality of the conspiracy, Russia may find this man their president as he has already been nominated by his party to run in the next election. Who is this man and why would this be a dangerous reality not only to Russia, but the rest of the world? It is less important to be concerned with the personality of this man than it would be to concentrate on the lines imbedded in his rhetoric and to know his historical connections.

According to Time, Zhirinovsky's life-story has been "embellished or distorted". Evidence has it that Zhirinovsky (real name: Edelshtein) is Jewish, which is quite significant in a country that still has widespread "anti-semitism" and from a man who publicly claims to be anti-Semitic. It is particularly important that he attempts to hide his Jewish background as it is a habit of the conspirators to fabricate hatred for Jews as a tool for setting a future sympathetic stage. And of course, it is more strategic for him to deny his history until the climate is produced that would be more receptive for the Zionist takeover. Generally, it does little harm that his lies are found out as long as he is able to accomplish their goals. Besides such publications as Time which makes little of his influence and writes him off as a "fanatic demagogue" not to be taken seriously, has the effect of diluting the role Zhirinovsky is playing.

Zhirinovsky has also lied about his upbringing portraying himself as "up from poverty". This is most likely an attempt to endear himself to the struggling masses of Russia. However, facts have it that his upbringing was far, far from the worst of the times and the community in which he grew up. In fact, the school which he attended as a boy, was attended by sons of communist party leaders and KGB officers. He later attended a very prestigious college at Moscow State University which also leads us to believe that he continued to be aided (indebted) by his KGB benefactors. After leaving school, where he studied Turkish and English language, he went to Turkey as a translator and was later expelled from the country as a "KGB spy". Another suspicion which evidences his KGB connection is the speedy rise of his LDP. Within Russian political and government circles, it is mentioned that Zhirinovsky was from the start a creation of the KGB and this very well explains how he was able to set up his party while the Communist Party was still in control.

References have been made of Zhirinovsky's other political connections. A significant one which he has boasted is the Bosnia/Yugoslav Serbs. He used his political clout to push Russian support to avoid NATO bombing. Now he feels they are ever indebted to him and he plans to use this connection.

As important as uncovering Zhirinovskiy's Zionist connection, is detailing his Zionist rhetoric. Remember that the NWO order will call for the complete control of the government and the people of a nation. Zhirinovskiy states outright that when he comes to power the he will be a dictatorship. The masses in the midst of yearning for something, anything other than what they have are grasping at promises from even someone like Zhirinovskiy and most likely have not heard his promises for a "dictatorship". And his territorial aims are to re-establish the imperial empire of Russia (NWO) and to get rid of people who are seen as obstacles by whatever means:

... deal with [ethnic minorities] as America did with the Indians and Germany did with the Jews.

I may have to shoot 100,000 people, but the other 300 million will live peacefully.

Match his dictatorial and empirical aims with his open statements of his intentions to aggress the Islamic world and we find a true indicator of Zionist conspiratorial presence in their overt and covert attacks upon and desires to abolish Islam. And Zhirinovskiy states:

"Russian troops will someday wash their boots in the Indian Ocean." [They would have to cross (conquer) the sovereignty of Muslim countries (India is an ally) to do so.]

"All we want is three countries: Afghanistan, Iran and Turkey. Russia can . . . save the world from the spread of Islam.

Zhirinovsky is a small fish -- perhaps. But he's a small "worker" fish, a pawn, in a school of big fishes who are headed by an evil and crooked gang of elitists. A simple metaphor. But by no means representing a simple reality.

"LET THE PEOPLE BEWARE!!"

TARGET ISLAM . . . AND THE U.S.

One overwhelming point that we have attempted to make here repeatedly is that our awareness of the aims and objectives, as well as the undisputed fact of the existed of a hidden hierarchy of world conspirators, is not a new or manufactured reality of only our own. The attacks on our religion, our leaders, our organizations and ourselves have motivated us to research our attackers. This research has revealed facts ages old, as well as uncovered the resources of other individuals and organizations, who prompted by their own motivation, also have found the conspirators' trails of deception, manipulation, orchestration and worse. And as any sincere and honest person would do, these individuals and organizations, like us, have provided a wealth of information and evidence to alert the general public out of concern for and survival of humanity.

The intelligent students of history will understand that the lines of demarcation have long since been drawn defining the "haves and have nots", or better said, "the wills and the won'ts". This also alludes to the defining the originators, maintainers and benefactors of the New World Order (NWO), the will haves, and everybody else, the won't haves or won't be's. This will be explained in detail later.

Thus, there is available for the astute and concerned students of history and humanity a fountain of knowledge on the Internationalists, the Zionists conspirators and their numerous secret societies. We know from ancient times, their plots for world domination and desires to rule the world are as old as man has existed on the earth. Men persist in these goals even in the face of the wrath of God, as in Biblical times with the construction of the Tower of Babel, which according to some, was man's first attempt to establish single world rule. Though God destroyed the tower and its constructors, the inheritors of the "plot" have ignored the signs and continued their aims. Then, why not? They don't believe in God, anyway.

Such authors as John Coleman who wrote "The Conspirators Hierarchy: The Story of the Committee of 300"; A. Ralph Epperson, "The New World Order"; "The Occult Conspiracy: Secret Societies --"; and uncountable others who have documented the courses of treason and treachery the conspirators have taken to set the stage for their eventual take over of the world. A common thread that underlines all this historic documentation is the existence of secret societies and a hierarchical leadership. Arthur E. Waite, author of "Real History of the Rosicrucians", wrote that "beneath the broad tide of human history there flow the stealthy undercurrents of the secret societies which frequently determine the depths of the changes that take place on the surface". It is our ardent belief, as of many of our fellows with similar knowledge, that the conspirators have always operated in these "secret societies" created solely for purpose of expediting the aims and objectives of NWO.

In the annals of history, many have recorded for the world of the existence of the underworld of conspirators and their secret societies. We list here the words of just a few of these recorders to clearly illustrate the reality of the claims we have reiterated throughout this work:

The world is governed by very different personages from what is imagined by those who are not behind the scenes.
Benjamin Disraeli, Prime Minister of England

...this world conspiracy has been steadily growing. This conspiracy ... has been the mainspring of every subversive movement during the 19th century....this band of extraordinary personalities from the underworld of the great cities of Europe and America.... Winston Churchill, Prime Minister of England.

NOTE: It is no coincidence that these leaders of England are aware of the international conspirators, as England is a major source from which the secret societies emanate.

The real rulers of Washington are invisible and exercise power from behind the scenes. Justice Felix Frankfurter, U.S. Supreme Court Justice.

The real menace of our Republic is the invisible government which like a giant octopus sprawls its slimy legs over our cities, states and nation. John Hylan, former mayor of New York City (1918-25).

All of us will ultimately be judged on the effort we have contributed to building a New World Order. Robert Kennedy, U.S. Attorney General during administration of his brother, John F. Kennedy, U.S. President.

As there have been through the ages, hundreds who have announced the existences of these covert conspirators for world power, they too have made their own presence and intent known in stages. George Bush, former president of the United States and occult elitist (he is a lifetime member of the Skull and Bones Society), was one of the first to declare their public plan for a new world order. He took this opportunity on the orchestrated stage of the Gulf war, saying that this (the war) presented the opportunity to move toward historic world cooperation and thus, "out of these troubled times ... a new world order can emerge." Van Moltke (1800--91), Prussian Chief of Army Staff in the last half of the 19th century, once said, "Eternal peace is a dream, and not even a beautiful dream, and war is a part of God's world order." [Whose world order?] This has always been the methodology of the conspirators to create chaos out of which they justify their next move in the operation. Again, their Iraqi operations is an ideal example of their plan in motion. We are now, and will continue in the near future to see evidence of their growing confidence that at last the time is ripe for them to make finalized steps towards implementation of their objectives.

David Rockefeller, Internationalist billionaire is another insider of the conspiracy who announced their "coming of age". At a meeting of the media in Germany, in 1981, he commended his media co-conspirators on having maintained their oaths of secrecy regarding the globalist plans,

It would have been impossible for us to develop our plan for the world if we had been subject to the bright lights of publicity during those years. But the world is now more sophisticated and prepared to march towards a world government. The supranational sovereignty of the intellectual elite and world bankers is surely preferable to the national auto-determination practiced in past centuries.

And we know that they, Rockefeller and his cohorts, feel that the populations of the world have been conditioned and weakened to the point that they can now be controlled and/or eliminated, thus allowing the objectives of world dominance to come into play.

As Rockefeller indicates here, the world bankers and financial centers play an instrumental role in molding the world's nations into position for control and take-over by the conspirators. The forefathers of America would turn in their graves to know that their foretold warnings, especially regarding the republic's financial and foreign relations policies went so unheeded as to send the nation in exactly the position they dreaded. The Father of our Republic, George Washington, said,

The great rule of conduct for us, in regard to foreign nations, is in extending our commercial relations to have as little political connection as possible....by interweaving our destiny with that of any part of Europe, [we] entangle our peace and prosperity in the toils of European ambition, rivalries, interest, humor or caprice....It is our policy to steer clear of permanent alliances with any portion of the foreign world.

Specifically in regards to snares of the banking institutions, Thomas Jefferson said,

I believe that banking institutions are more dangerous to our liberties than standing armies. Already, they have raised up a monied aristocracy that has set the government at defiance. The issuing power should be taken from the banks and restored to the people to whom it properly belongs.

But, this was never done. The power for the disposition and distribution of money, especially national finances was never given to the people or the governing representatives of the people. Most Americans are not aware that the Federal Reserve Banks in this country are private monopolies, not government institutions, that have coaxed the government of this country and its citizens into a controlling and demoralizing indebtedness to benefit the bankers and their foreign customers. This was the understanding conveyed by Lewis McFadden, U.S. Congressman during the very time that the international bankers were making their moves to take control of America's monetary institutions. He also stated of the Federal Reserve system that it was "one of the most corrupt institutions the world has ever known."

Other modern American politicians have also warned us of the pitfalls and intents of the financial conspirators:

The Trilateral Commission is international ... is intended to a vehicle for multinational consolidation of the commercial and banking interest ... a skillful, coordinated effort to seize control and consolidate the four centers of power --Power, Monetary, Intellectual and Ecclesiastical. Barry Goldwater, U. S. Senator.

The real truth of the matter is, as you and I know, that a financial element in the larger centers has owned the government of the United States since the time of Andrew Jackson. Franklin D. Roosevelt, U.s. President.

And again, the conspirators have documented their own intentions and objections in their schemes, as in this matter of control through finance. Years before their takeover of the American banking system, the chief financial internationalists and Zionist conspirators, the Rothschild brothers of England, wrote that they would be able to subjugate that people under two classes: (1) those entranced by their interest in the profits and gains of the financial markets or so dependent on its favors to pose opposition; and (2) those of the general body of people, who are mentally incapable of understanding the advantages and will bear its burden without complaint.

Another insider's testimony of evidence to the "conspiracy" is "The Bankers' Manifesto", which reads,

Capital must protect itself in every way... Debts must be collected and loans and mortgages foreclosed as soon as possible. When through a process of law the common people have lost their homes, they will be more tractable and more easily governed by the 'strong arm of the law' applied by the central power of leading financiers. This is well known among our principal men now engaged in forming an imperialism of capitalism to govern the world. By dividing the people we can get them to expend their energies in fighting over questions of no importance to us except as 'Teachers of the Common Herd'.

This passage is taken from the Civil Servants' Year Book, The Organizer, January, 1934.

The tone of the Manifesto shows their intent to oppress the people once entangled in the web of financial defeat. Most of us today can bear witness to the demoralizing reality of indebtedness and its ability to oppress one into a weak and conditioning state of mind that replaces true peace and opens one to manipulation or destitution. Both of these states put the people of a nation, and the nation, in a position susceptible to manipulation and control: the conspirators objective.

The real plan of NWO has evolved and manifested in these modern times the intent to formulate an oligarchy of the world's richest families who intend to subjugate the remaining of human society into servitude. By "the remaining", it is meant those who would have not yet been murdered or killed through wars, diseases and other plans of population control, as the plan includes that by the year 2000, other 2.5 billion people will have to be eradicated in order to suffice the distribution of resources and wealth for the conspirator elitists. The real plan: to formulate a system made up of a single currency, single centrally financed government, single tax system, single language, single political system, single court of justice and single leadership. Every person will be identified by a individual number as in apartheid or social security numbers, without which he will not be allowed to buy or sell. The code of existence will be that anyone who is unwilling to take part in this universal system will not have the right to exist. The Humanist Manifesto, a conspiratorial group which advocates U.N. control over the peoples of the earth, states:

We deplore the division of humankind on nationalistic grounds. We have reached a turning point in human history where the best option is to transcend the limits of national sovereignty and to move towards the building of a world community. We look toward the development of a system of world law, world order based upon transnational government.

The idea to "transcend"/dissolve national sovereignty promoted here was once a cherished ideal of America's national and foreign policies, and has now been trashed by the Zionist conspirators as in their evident manipulation of events in Grenada, Panama and Iraq, where the U.S. participated in the world accepted transgression of the sovereignties of these nations, setting precedence for times to come.

We are sure many of you have noticed the changing role of the United Nations in current world affairs, whereas in the past, it had been a governing organization in name only, having no power to command or exert authority. Thus, backed by the power of U.S. military might, the internationalists have set-up base under the guise of the United Nations as demonstrated in the scenario of the Gulf War crisis. Another example: the plan for population control is underway as the U.N. prepares an international conference in Cairo, Egypt for September, 1994 under the formal title of International Conference on Population and Development. In addition to intensifying the world campaign to drastically reduce population levels particularly in the Third World, The Cairo conference is designed to further consolidate the U.N.'s emergence as a global government, i.e. New World Order.

One may wonder how is it possible to maneuver the broad majority of the world's populations, especially when the threat is towards their indiscriminate and certain annihilation. The answer is simple: they have not been let in on the secret, and for the most part, man by nature is generally not devious enough that he would conceive that his fellow man has this most horrendous scheme planned for his destruction. Besides, the intelligencia and scientists of the NWO has used their resources and talents to plot out their schemes sparing neither time, energy or wealth.

In the United States where a key part of the conspirators' plan will be played out, one would think there would be no chance to fool the vast majority of the American public. Though, America possesses one of the most literate populations of the world, as well as the people potentially having the avenues by which to obtain information and knowledge, the same advantages will and have played an integral part of the intense assault to condition the minds of the people and ready them for the take-over. For instance, the accessibility to the American public by radio, TV and print media has been the number one tool used by the Zionist elitists to mold the minds of the American people. John Swinton, former chief of staff for the New York Times, once said that there was no such things as "an independent press". Further, he stated,

The business of the journalists is to destroy the truth; to lie outright; to pervert; to vilify; to fawn at the feet of mammon, and to sell his country and his race for his daily bread...We are tools and vessels of rich men behind the scenes. We are the jumping jacks, they pull the strings and we dance. Our talents, our possibilities and our lives are all the property of other men.

Thus, the views, outlooks and opinions of the people are colored, shaped and formed outside of themselves. So, when George Bush appeared on television as the representative of orchestrated victor of the Gulf War, he knew that the mental state of the people was ripe to announce a move for a "new world order", not really knowing what it would be, just that Bush was telling them about it a time when they were feeling good about the world.

The importance of the control and utilization of the media to the Zionist conspirators is evident in this statement by Zbigniew Brezhinsky, National Security Advisor to President Jimmy Carter, (himself author of "Global 2000") and advisor to four other U.S. presidents: "The technetronic era involves the gradual appearance of a more controlled society. Such a society would be dominated by an elite, unrestrained by tradition values." Certainly, the visionary dream of America's forefathers as a nation for the godfearing has now be tarnished by perversion and degradation. Hollywood has brought into the American living room every imaginable and unimaginable perversion and immorality. So inundated with the deplorable, Americans are now immune and non-shockable. Some are even feeling pleasure and entertainment.

New World Order in Opposition to Religion and God

One of the fundamental principles of the Zionist conspirators take-over plot is no religion. As summarized by the socialist writer, Pierre Proudhon, "Our principle is atheism in religion, anarchy in politics, no property in the economic sphere . . ." In the United States, all institutions are under attack, educational, economical and political; the right to private property, the right to decent morality and the right to worship.

In 1954, the Declaration of the Central Committee of the Communist Party declared,

... scientific and atheistic propaganda is an integral part of the Communist education of the working people, and has as its aim the dissemination of scientific, materialist knowledge among the masses and liberation of believers from the influence of religious prejudices.

Under communism, the conspirators have planted the seeds of hatred for God and the love of Satan. We have seen in their secret (occult) societies, the systematic worship of the perverse and satanic. In recent history in the U.S., Christian institutions in America have fallen prey to the plots and in recent years, the Christian leadership across denominational lines have been plagued with perversions, promiscuity, adultery, etc. Much of this is their calculated efforts to break down the moral foundation and religious fiber of the broader American, and world, society.

For example, many people believe that the situation in Waco, Texas was just a matter of the authorities attempting to arrest, for whatever reasons, a bunch of religious flakes. However, the greater symbolism of this case was that the execution of this group of American can never be justified on the basis of the existing Constitution, which allows religious freedom to any and every belief. The Davidians were being challenged on several constitutional rights: the right to privacy, the right to bear arms, and most importantly, the right to worship. And they lost. More so, the American people lost.

Another recent case of the challenge to religion is the Nebraska case of Pastor Everett Sileven, who went to court to challenge authorities on the right of his congregation to teach their children in their own church schools. Armed with Biblical scriptures, the state constitution's religious articles and the First Amendment, Sileven lost his case with the decision of the court being, "We came to the firm conclusion, unanimously, that Christ could not be submitted to the authority of the state, leaving the state the right to determine the philosophy of the curriculum or the qualification of the teachers." Because he and his members continued to resist state intervention, Sileven was arrested, and the church and school padlocked.

Another point of note to mention here, is Sileven's observation of the judge in the case:

The judge who presided in our case admitted that he did not look at the First Amendment [to the U.S. Constitution] before deciding our case. He also admitted that he defines education as non-religious; therefore, he defines away our religious beliefs and rights.

Why Islam and Muslims?

The rivalry that has been created between Muslims and Christians is centuries old. We have been able to review history and find the satanic culprits who have orchestrated events throughout history in order to continue the clash between the two religions. In modern times, Zionist conspirators continue to exploit the fears and differences between East and West to keep Christians and Muslims from coming together and jointly fight their common foes. Why? They are evil. What are their objectives? Their plans are evil. Karl Marx once said, "My object in life is to dethrone God . . .", because he and his inheriting co-conspirators cannot win in the face of faith and righteousness. Therefore, religion and the righteous have come under repeated attacks. Particularly in the U.S., Christianity has been weakened by the attacks of the Satanists. Several years ago in a theology class, a Christian chaplin admitted that though Christians dominated the world religious population, perhaps less than 10% of them actually practiced the tenets of their faith. He also admitted that in contrast, Islam could boast that over 90% of its adherents all over the world did practice the tenets of their religion in letter and spirit.

Islam is the number one growing religion in the world, including in the U.S. and it is expected that by the turn of the century, Muslims will be the second largest religious population in the country. Historically, Muslims have strong belief systems, and even when their ability to practice their tenets is inhibited, their faith remains unshaken and unchanged. The enemies of Al-Islam, especially the Zionists, are quite afraid of the religious fervor of Muslims and are aware that their diabolical plans have no chance of succeeding as long as Muslims remain in a society. Now that the Christian faith is well on its way to demise in America, as communism had diminished the strength of the Church in its strongholds of eastern and western Europe, we, American Muslims, have come under direct attack by Satan's company.

Dan Quayle, former U.S. vice president, had commented with the falling of the Berlin wall and communism in Eastern Europe that Islam was the last remaining enemy of the U.S. In actuality, he meant Islam as the enemy to the Zionists conspirators. This comment initiated what had previously been covert attacks against Muslims in America, and have now escalated into outright assassinations of character and principles of our religion, leaders and institutions. The Satanists are attacking us on all fronts from outside and through planted puppets on the inside. Through the negative propaganda that the U.S. public is inundated with, the Zionist conspirators are creating an immobilizing fear and chaos that keeps our peoples apart, unable to perceive our true enemy and to recognize how our society is being changed for the worst around us. Whereas, the god fearing peoples of these evil and troubled times should seek out their commonalities and should unite to fight against the overtaking of their world by common enemies, instead, Americans have allowed themselves to be brainwashed and they only see their differences with the Muslims and dwell on the misunderstandings that prevent us from creating a strong defense against the opponents of righteousness.

Education: Tool for America's Destruction

The general American public is deaf and blind to the real enemies among them. They have seeped into the fiber of every societal institution in this country; the church, government, schools, etc. It is important to note what is happening with the children of American. This is key to perceiving and measuring the success of the Zionist plots and the accomplishments of their objectives -- to date. Their plan is to have American society not knowing which way is up is very much in play. Those who are not themselves entrenched in immoral decadence, have been immunized to tolerate its presence. American youths have been programmed by T.V., videos and music to become mindless deviants, who have no care for life, theirs or anyone else's.

The strategy of using the institutions of education as the platforms will allow the conspirators to breed a new generation of servant classes, as well as using them as tools of destruction to change the structure of our existing societies. Victor Mikronenko, head of the Young Communist League, said during a interview with the New York Times, "The Communists see education as a vehicle to re-educate young children from religion and a belief in God." Communist Rules of Revolution includes instruction regarding children, "Corrupt the young, get them away from religion. Get them interested in sex. Make them superficial; destroy their ruggedness".

Thus, you find the Zionist, humanists/communists conspirators to be the most ardent purporters of the free public school systems, and the continued separation of Church and State. As well, they have positioned themselves as teachers of the teachers who teach our children.

We have already discussed how the conspirators attack the religious rights of Americans. There is a special war going on in America to negate the rights of religious groups to educate their own children. There has always been little assistance from the government to facilitate this type of education for American children. The conspirators in government have been sure to maintain a "separation of church and state." Henry Clausen, Sovereign Grand Commander for the Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, wrote to all Masons, "Keep church/state forever separated! Stay American!"

The conspirators' goals are further accentuated in the removal of prayer from the public school systems with the aim to remove God and faith from the lives of our children. An intrinsic part of communist doctrinal tools for spreading their atheistic concepts was to control the young masses and to do so from the schoolhouses. Adam Weishaupt, founder of the Illuminati, wrote, "We must acquire the direction of education..." In Proofs of a Conspiracy, Prof. J. Robison wrote of the Illuminati, "They contrived to place their members as tutors to the youth of distinction." In a 1948 meeting of high-level Communists leaders, Stalin in giving direction to American Communists Party regarding new emphasis on the recruitment of youths in America. He said:

We Communists gained control of the Youth in Russia before we were able to wage a successful...revolution in Russia... we must gain control of the youth in the United States if we are to wage a successful Communist Revolution in that nation.

There is no doubt that the conspirators want our children. The children are key to the success of their mission of turning the American society into a chaotic, decadent state. Harvard University Professor of education, Chester Pierce, wrote:

Every child in America who enters school at the age of five is mentally ill, because he comes to school with an allegiance to our institutions, toward the preservation of this form of government that we have. Patriotism, nationalism, and sovereignty, all that proves that children are sick because a truly well individual is one who has rejected all of those things, and is truly the international child of the future.

Another conspirator wrote that Every child in American comes to school 'insane' at the age of six because of the American family structure.

Thus, in order to program their minds, the conspirators want all our children at their disposal where they can get their hands on their minds, via public school system or control over the curricula of private and church schools. It is within the school system that these Satanists can counter all moral and righteous lessons of home and church. Sidney Simon, noted educator says, "We do not need any more preaching about right and wrong. The old 'thou shalt nots' simply are not relevant . . . Values clarification is a method for teachers to change the vas of children without getting caught." A similar theme of corruption of our children's minds is expound by one humanist write on the "Values Clarification/Situation Ethics" program:

It's OK to lie. It's OK to steal. It's OK to have premarital sex. It's OK to cheat or kill if these things are part of your value system, and you clarified these values for yourself. The important thing is not what values you choose, but that you have chosen them yourself freely and without coercion of parents, spouse, priest, friends, ministers or social pressure of any kind.

Another expression of this same view:

I am convinced that the battle of humankind's future must be waged and won in the public school classrooms by teachers who correctly perceive their role as the new proselytizers of a new faith. a religion of humanity that recognized and respects the spark of what theologians call divinity in every human being. [i.e., man is god]

The classroom must and will become an arena of conflict between the old and the new -- the rotting corpse of Christianity, together with all its adjacent evils and misery, and the new faith. . . . (from John Dunphy's article, entitled "A Religion for the New Age.

The conspirators are convinced that no matter what the background of a child, religious or not, that given enough time (which is exactly why access to the general masses, who shall become the servant class, through the public school systems is ideal) the child can be remolded to the desired behavior and mind set.

I think that the most important factor moving us toward a secular society has been the education factor. . . . Our schools may not teach Johnny to read properly, but the fact that Johnny is in school until he is sixteen tends to lead toward the elimination of religious superstition. . . . The average American child now acquires a high school education, and this militates against Adam and Eve and all other myths of alleged history.

(This is from the atheistic writings of another humanist.) And still another one writes:

Although they [the children of religious parents] appear to behave appropriately and seem normal by most cultural standards, they may actually be in need of mental health care in order to help them change, adapt, and conform to the planned society in which there will be not conflicts of attitudes and beliefs.

Often children of religious parents who either place their children in religious, educational institutions of their faith, or provide strong religious education in the home, provide a challenge to the conspirators plan that places their children at potential outside reach. Again, this is why religious education is being challenged in the court systems and the authority of the First Amendment's freedom of religion is slowly eroding. Especially, for Muslims this is becoming an intense struggle in this country, because we present a very strong adversarial wall between our children and the conspirators as we teach our own and/or within the home we work very hard to eradicate the ills that our children might be exposed to when exposed to school systems outside of the Faith. Faced with this, the conspirators turn to their science of psychiatry.

They attempt to mark the mental and social behavior of our children as "abnormal" when they are within the system, or to point at those who are outside the system. Once they get a child under their mental health focus, they attempt to convince parent, child and society that religious separation by thought or training has caused deviant behavior and the solution for "normalcy" is re-socialization of behavior as so defined by them. Proof of their "psych" psychology:

Leading child psychologist, Paul Brandwein, states as he instructs student teachers, "Every child who believes in God is mentally ill."

Principle Tool: Psychology - Science of Mind Control

It is quite clear that changing and controlling the minds of the people is the number one tool of the plotting conspirators. They have studied the psychology of human behavior and they have taken control of the people who doctor this field.

I think the subject which will be of most importance politically is Mass Psychology...Although this science will be diligently studied, it will be rigidly confined to the governing class (Elite). The populace will not be allowed to know how its convictions were generated.

Bertrand Russell, atheist philosopher.

Therefore, we can understand why psychologists deny the existence of God, and declare those who do believe in Him as being mentally ill. They perpetuate immorality, as in justifying homosexuality as a normal behavior. It is their job, within the conspiracy, to give credence to every deviant, decadent and immoral perversion known to man, and perpetuate the destruction of society as we know it.

What basic psychological distortion can be found in every civilization of which we know anything? The only psychological force capable of producing these perversions is morality - the concept of right and wrong. The re-interpretation and eventual eradication of the concept of right and wrong are the belated objectives of nearly all psychotherapy."
Statement by Dr. G. Brock Chisholm, first head of the World Federation of Mental Health.

Kenneth Goff, author of "The Soviet Art of Brain Washing - A Synthesis of the Russian Textbook on Psychopolitics", attempted to alert the American public of the fact that wars are not always waged and/or won with armies and guns. As one-time member of the Communist Party, he wrote about his training in "Psychopolitics" which he defined as the art of capturing the minds of a nation through brainwashing and fake mental health. (Israeli Zionists are experts in this area.)

In Goff's book, he included an address by Beria, head of Lenin University of Psychopolitics:

A psychopolitician must work hard to produce the maximum chaos in the fields of mental healing. You must work until every teacher of psychology unknowingly or knowingly teaches only the Communist [NWO] doctrine under the guise of 'psychology' ... You must labor until we have dominion over the minds and bodies of every important person in your nation (America). You must work until suicide arising from mental imbalance is common ... With it you can erase our enemies as insects. .. Given a short time with a psychopolitician you can alter forever the loyalty of a soldier in our hands or statesman or a leader in his own country, or you can destroy his mind ... By Psychopolitics create chaos. Leave a nation leaderless. Kill our enemies."

Towards "Martial Law" -- Willful Lost of All Freedoms

The global conspirators of the NWO along with their compatriots in government, especially in the U.S., have spent time, resources and energy shipping the American public into a fearful frenzy. People are so afraid of what they believe is the "prevailing wave of crime and decadence" that they have been conditioned to believe that there nothing left but acceptance until they are "rescued". Crime is the number one issue in America today. The homes of American citizens are no longer their "castles". They have become their prisons, while drug dealers and addicts, and hoodlums run freely in the streets.

They have been so rightly conditioned to see the society around them -- in government, politics, ecology, law, religion, etc. -- as out of control, the people are prepared to give up all their rights and liberties to feel safe again. However, this is only what it has been made to seem like. "Out of control", no I don't think so. The manipulators have most things well in hand and under control. Quoting Rowan Gaither, head of the Ford Foundation: "covertly lower the standard of living, the whole social structure, of America so that we can be merged with all other nations." They believe that bringing America, the last stronghold of mankind to its knees will cause people to cry for mercy -- not from God, but from the wolves in sheep's clothing, who are waiting on the sidelines to devour them. They will cry for relief from their troubles and fears, and the orchestrators will answer in the form of supplying martial law and then they will deliver the country to be merged with "all other nations under the great 'bastion' of peace and freedom, the United Nations."

In addition to the public reactionary fears to crime and criminals, the Zionist conspirators have maneuvered us into position with other types of strife in our society. America is bogged down with wars between races, religions, and sexes creating and perpetuating hate. Another example of orchestrated strife occurred few years ago when American psychiatrists pronounced homosexuality to be normal behavior. From that time forward, these sexual deviants have flooded into the open, claiming position in the mainstream beside normal and religious people, causing a perpetual turmoil. Hate feeds fear and causes such a division among people that may never them to come together to jointly defeat their common foes.

Another strong issue facing Americans today, coupled with their fears about crime, is gun control -- gun removal. Gun control generally is thought to mean limiting the access of the sale of firearms to the undesireables of our society. In reality, however, we have seen the move towards the disarmament of the general American public. The strategy being used is to convince people that controlling the accessibility to "all" is the means to end the availability of guns to the criminal element in our society. Out of fear, citizens will surrender their constitutional right to bear arms. Some guns will be easily removed. Unsuspecting Americans will give up their means of protection when told to do so. (Examine the "Dollars for Weapons" programs that operated around the country at the end of 1993 and in the beginning of 1994. In exchange for giving up "personal protection", the state (controlled by the Zionists conspirators) will agree to protect society. The armed forces (under martial law) will get rid of everyone whom they deem undesirable (population control) and command everyone else to whom they martial (in servitude)).

The well laid plan of the conspirators to create anarchy in the streets and fear in the hearts of America was the purpose behind the orchestration of the L.A. riots. The beating of Rodney King was not part of the plan. However, it provided the opportunity for the conspirators to further their goals. As a test case for martial law, this conditioned the citizens of L.A. to be strangled by fear and fed up with crime and disorder to the point that they and other Americans throughout the country allowed the influx of 2,000 U.S. Marines into an American city. This was a severe breach of constitutional law to which the people not only did not object, but welcomed openly. The conspirators' goal: to get the people to give up their Bill of Rights so that government could make the streets safe again. In order for the people to come willingly -- easily -- they have to feel that they are voluntarily doing the right and good thing to save their country, the patriotic thing for the good of the country. This is the type of rhetoric that fools American patriots. This is why current enforcement agents and others who are a part of the armed services, and good "patriotic" citizens, who are not a part of the conspirators' elite, will however serve their cause -- to kill or give up their family members, friends, neighbors and other countrymen -- thinking that they are doing the right, the good and the patriotic thing to do.

Let's ban them. There is no reason for anyone in this country, anyone except a police officer or a military person to buy, to own, to have, to use a handgun.... I now think the only way to control handgun use in this country is to prohibit the guns. Michael Gartner, president, NBC News

Those who call for the banning of firearms, are well aware of the consequences of disarming the American public. They "... have no objection to guns -- only to guns they can not control. They are seeking a legal monopoly on guns ... in order to eliminate any final opposition to a socialist government." This is an old story. However, on the other side of them, are Americans like ourselves, who know to allow Americans to be generally disarmed, as well as to allow the independent, local police departments to be adhered to some centralized department in Washington, creates a government that will possess unchecked power and our nation will become by definition a police state. What would "power unchecked" produce? The NWO utopia, in which the Zionists elite will utilize enforcement forces to do their bidding.

Many Americans are innocently supporting steps toward a police state because they want to fight crime, but the reality of their motives will not make the consequences of what will result any less destructive to American society. These "good" citizens who are too scared to oppose anything from the government will do just as they are told. Even if they believe it is wrong, they will go along with the program. These are the "subjects" that every captive nation has. Look at Hitler's Germany, in which many people were turned over to Nazis by their friends, family and neighbors. People who knew the wrong of what was happening, but would not oppose the state, nor jeopardize what they considered their own safety and well being.

The bottom line fact is that there are "those" who know exactly what they are doing to America, and are hoping that the fears that Americans have for crime and the turmoil of hatred will lead to a restructured America -- a New World Order.

Who Rules America ???

This Article Contains Irrefutable Evidence That American Citizens Are Being Victimized By Zionists Most Treacherous Weapon; Character Assassination And False Allegations Propagated By the Zionist Controlled Media Network And Its Web Of Calculated And Manipulative Deceptions.

This paper will reveal the manner in which the Zionist have taken control of the United States by gaining control of the media networks.

The Zionist have brainwashed the minds of Americans by utilizing the media to influence peoples opinions, values, and expectations. All this is being done to portray Israel's image and deceptive manipulations of the U.S. government in a favorable manner so as to accomplish their evil goal: the dominance of the world and the establishment of David's Kingdom.

Similarly, the Zionist have taken over the world economy and banking system by utilizing U.S. monies to control the flow of world currencies, the policies of financial institutions and the various stock exchanges etc., thus enabling them to sway the socio-economic patterns of many nations. This literally has led to the enslavement of the poor and undeveloped nations of the world that rely heavily on foreign aid and commercial investments from foreign sources.

The irony of all of this is that the United States receives all of the negative publicity while the cunning Zionist forge on towards world dominance. The Zionist Israelis receive more foreign aid and grants from the United States taxpayers than any other nation in the world and through their shrew politics and knack for depicting themselves as the recipients of every possible type of prejudicial and biased treatment, they make many feel guilty for not giving them enough.

Those that resist the evil manipulations of the Zionist and their malicious intent, will most likely find themselves falsely accused of being anti-Semitic or of being 'terrorist'. This sinister tactic by the Zionist of swaying public opinion, through the media, is their most potent weapon.

Who Rules America?

There is no greater power in the world today than that wielded by the manipulators of public opinion in America. No king or pope of old, no conquering general or high priest ever disposed of a power even remotely approaching that of a few dozen men who control America's mass media.

The power is not distant and impersonal; it reaches into every home in America, and it works its will during nearly every waking hour. It is the power which shapes and molds the mind of virtually every citizen, young or old, rich or poor, simple or sophisticated.

The mass media forms for us our images of the world, and then tells us how we are to perceive these images. Essentially, everything we know about events outside our own neighborhood or circle of acquaintances comes to us via our newspapers, news magazines, radio and television. It is not just the heavy-handed suppression of daily domestic and world news stories that keeps from the reality of our lives and the world around us, but through inundation with fiction and fantasies, our society's moral core and life's definitions are handed to us and our minds like zombies follow where we are told to go. For example, the blatant propagandizing of such grossly pro-Zionist, TV extravaganzas as 'Holocaust', which characterizes the opinion manipulating techniques of the media masters. The way the news is covered: the editor's choice of what items are emphasized and what others are played down, the reporter's choice of words and the commentator's choice of tone of voice - all of these things and more profoundly affect our attitudes.

On top of this, of course, the columnists and editors remove any remaining doubt from our minds as to just what we are to think about it all. They guide our thoughts and opinions so that we can be in tune with the 'in' crowd, the beautiful people, the smart money.

"Permissible Opinions Only!"

The really insidious thing about this form of thought control is that even when we realize the news is biased, the media masters are still able to manipulate most of us. This is because they not only slant the news they present, but they establish tacit boundaries and ground rules for the permissible spectrum of opinion.

As an of opinion boundaries, consider the way the media treats news from the Middle East. Some editors, columnists, and commentators are slavishly pro-Israel in their very utterance, while others seem nearly neutral. No one, however, dares to be pro-Palestinian or to suggest that the U.S. government is backing the wrong side in the Arab Jewish conflict.

And who are these all powerful masters of the media? For a partial answer, consider the TV-news broadcasting industry. This is probably the most influential mass media worldwide. Virtually all national and international TV news in the United States is filmed, edited, and broadcasted by three corporations: American Broadcasting Companies Inc. (ABC), Columbia Broadcasting Systems Inc. (CBS) and the National Broadcasting Companies (NBC). Each of these three has been under the absolute control of one man for a long period of time- ranging from 30 years to 55 years- for him to staff the corporation at every level with officers of his own choosing and thus to place his imprint indelibly upon every aspect of production. IN EACH CASE THAT MAN HAS BEEN A JEW.

In the case of ABC, this person is Leonard Harry Goldenson who took control in 1953. For CBS, it is William Walter Paley who bought this network in 1928 and NBC, which is a subsidiary of RCA, was controlled by a Jewish Russian immigrant, named David Sarnoff, until his death in 1970. In cases where all current executive positions are not held by Jews, we can safely say that at least one third of the overall executive level positions are.

The aforementioned "Big Three", ABC, CBS, and NBC have virtually a monopoly on network television broadcasting in the United States, and they account for most of the network radio broadcasting as well. Their only significant competitor in the latter arena is Mutual Broadcasting System (MBS) which has 941 affiliated radio stations (but no TV stations) across the country. The president and chief executive officer of MBS is Martin Rubenstein, a Jew. (Since this information was originally gathered Fox Television, CNN and CBC have entered the fold.)

Public Broadcasting

Many naive members of the nation's TV and radio audience believe that they have the option of tuning in one of the non commercial public broadcasting stations for objective, unbiased programming. Alas, it is not so. The same minority interests of commercial TV have fastened their grip on America's PBS networks, even more tightly than on the commercial sector. PBS, which manages non commercial television programming and distribution, is headed by President Lawrence Grossman, a former NBC vice-president. In addressing a Los Angeles convention of PBS 'white' upper-middle class. If we were commercial TV that's the audience we would program for. As public TV we must program for...the disenfranchised, the minorities."

Newspapers Too

After television, daily newspapers are the most influential mass medium in America. Sixty two million of them are sold (and presumably read) in this country each day. Those 62,000,000 are divided between some 1,745 different publications. One might guess that the sheer number of different newspapers would in itself provide a guarantee against minority control of this important medium. Unfortunately such is not the case.

Today, more than half the daily newspapers in circulation in America are controlled directly and the remainder indirectly, by Jews, a minority that makes up only 2.9 percent of the total population. This extraordinary and dangerous situation has come about as a consequence of the fact that newspapers are not paid for by their subscribers, but by their advertisers. It is the advertising revenue-not the nickels and dimes paid by a newspaper's readers - that largely pays the editor's salary and yields the owner's profit.

Whenever the large advertisers in a city choose to favor one newspaper over another with their business, that newspaper will prosper and its competitors perish. Since the beginning of this century, when Jewish mercantile power in America became a dominate economic force, there has been a steady rise in the number of American newspapers in Jewish hands, accompanied by a steady decline in the number of competing "Gentile" newspaper-primary as a result of selective advertising policies by Jewish merchants.

The use of the press by the Jewish minority to set the policies which affect the lives of all Americans could hardly be better illustrated than by examples of the nation's two most prestigious and influential newspapers: The New York Times and the Washington Post. The New York Times is the unofficial social, fashion, entertainment, political, and cultural guide of the nation. A close second to the New York Times in national influence is the Washington Post, which publishes news "leaked" from most government agencies in Washington. Time Inc. owns both the N.Y. Times newspaper and Time magazine and the Newsweek magazine is owned by the Washington Post Company. Both entities are owned by Jews and the executive staffs are mainly Jewish.

In non-news magazine publishing circles, three of the five largest circulation magazines in the country are owned or published by Jews. In the motion picture world of Hollywood, Jews reign unchallenged. In television production the same is true. If you examine who owns what is in the mass media conglomeration, you will find that a television broadcasting company might own a book publishing company. An example of this is CBS's ownership of book publishers Holt, Rinehart and Winston and Praeger Publishers.

Thus, even the citizen who complains about "managed news" and considers himself or herself politically correct/politically astute may still fall into the trap of thinking that because he is presented with an apparent spectrum of viewpoints on each major issue, he can escape the controller's influence by believing the editor or commentator of his choice. He doesn't realize that it is one of those proverbial "heads I win, tails you lose" arrangements. The media masters do not leave him any options except the one they don't mind him choosing.

ZIONIST/FREEMASON CONTROL
BROADCAST AND PRINT MEDIA:
TOOLS USED TO VICTIMIZE INNOCENT
INDIVIDUALS AND NATIONS THAT
ATTEMPT TO UNCOVER TO THE UNSUSPECTING WORLD THEIR PLAN FOR WORLD CONQUEST

[Ezra Pound, Example of the Fate of Those Who Seek to Expose the Zionist Conspiracies]

Of the many nations of the world, the Zionist control is felt in the most intricate and intimidate corridors of the government and influential private sectors of the society. In an unsuspecting world, the zionist have had the opportunity to build a hidden empire, disguise in many forms and called by various names: Illuminati, KKK, Red Army, communists, freemasons, etc. A Zionist by any other name is still evil, with evil intent.

There have been many who have attempted to expose the plots of these treacherous conspirators seeking world domination. However, most of these have met with ill fate. At a minimum, they have been relegated to a position that would cause every and anyone to doubt any truth told by them. This is what is happening to many of the Muslim individuals, organizations and nations today, who are posing a threat to the "new" world order. This is why we see the world of Al-Islam under such fire. Not just the physical crises of manipulated world economic and wars, but also that of character assassinations of Muslims and their religion. Many may think that Muslims cry "foul play" as losers in the game. That there is little credence to their stories of lies and conspiracies committed by Israel and Jews, Nd these are only continued grudges between age-old enemies.

One would only have to examine history and review the case history of others who have tried to expose the destructive ways of Zionist bankers' interest/economic systems. One example of the fate of one who tried to expose the plots of the Zionist conspirators is that of Lyndon LaRouche, economist and Presidential candidate in the last four U.S. elections. LaRouche, through his writings and campaigns has tried to make the American public aware of the corruption and control of the "money lenders", and when he came under attack by the Zionist lobbyists, he attempted to expose their roles. Again the fate of an exposé is risky. LaRouche went from advisor to U.S. and Soviet governments to be imprisoned for trumped up tax fraud charges.

One may still question the validity of LaRouche's case. But look at the case of Ezra Pound, a famous poet during the time of World War II. He too thought that he could share with the world the knowledge he had obtained on the Zionist plot to take over the world.

Ezra Pound studying the teachings of Confucius, had derived that many world events, including the great world wars, had been orchestrated by the freemasons. He recognized that in this orchestration, they were able to obtain great monetary wealth and increase their control over numerous organizational institutions worldwide, i.e. legal, business, medical, financial, educational and media. He tried to warn people of the consequences and threat that freemasonry held for nations if they did not free themselves from their control and seek alternative ways of government and commerce, especially in terms of interest financing that was creating insurmountable private and public debt. Individuals and Nations would find themselves obligated to the puppet strings of the Zionists and forced to do their bidding in their scheme for world control.

Pound began to broadcast his findings over the radio. Although Pound knew that Zionist influence was far reaching, he had underestimated their power and the direction of their control. When the American liberation forces reached Italy during the world war, they arrested him and charged him with treason. Eventually, he was taken to the United States and tried there. Pound had thought that his ideology would have been welcomed by the Americans, who in the creation of their country had foreseen an interest-free financial system. However, freemasons/Zionists were now in full control of American economics at whose core was the creation of debt and the charging of interest.

Pound was not actually permitted to go to public trial. That was too risky as American law requires a speedy and public trial with all records open to the public. Therefore, there was a chance that the trial's notoriety would still give additional ear to Pound's doctrines and further expose the Zionist's history and intentions. The circumstances around Pound's imprisonment and trial, especially his trial, were orchestrated to where he never came to trial.

In Pound's case, everyone involved was a freemason/Zionist: his attorney, the prosecuting attorney, the judge, the medical examiners on both sides of the case, and so on. Since the outcome of the trial was set in closed chambers, Pound's attorney motioned that he was unfit to stand trial- all agreed.

Pound had been adequately silenced for life. Remanded to a mental institution where he remained for 15 years, he had lost the war against a multi-fanged snake. Though Pound had been able to decipher the secret plots of Zionism/freemasonry for world control, he had been made relatively unbelievable. First, he had been declared legally insane; second, if "anyone" were to find him sane again, the threat of being tried for treason hung over his head. thus, Ezra Pound is known today as a "famous" poet. His political literature is kept off bookstore shelves or buried somewhere deep in the dusty halls of Zionist controlled information institutions.

ADL EXPOSED AS ZIONIST SPY RING

"...You will not cease to find them (Jews) barring a few, ever bent on new deceits..." Holy Qur'an 5:14

In the August 1993 edition of the Islamic Journal, Insight, published by the Quranic Open University (QOU), there appeared an article entitled "Masters of Deceit", which highlighted the Mossad's domestic spying operation in America, hidden under the guise of the Anti-Defamation League (ADL). Following the publication of the article the ADL released a book attacking the Chairman of the QOU and it's staff and students.

Zionist Jews Wish To Exterminate All Hashmites

The fact that the QOU's Chairman is Sheikh Syed Mubarik Ali Shah Jilani, a member of Ahli Bayt, the blessed family of the Holy Last Messenger (May Almighty God be pleased with them all), who is vigorously involved in exposing the conspiracies initiated by the Zionist cartel in their attempt to dominate the world by establishing "David's Kingdom" also known as "The New World Order", is enough to swell the rage in the chests of these authors of hatred and vengeance. Sheikh Jilani and his followers have again become the topic of a new Zionist publications written by the ADL, which is 'true to form' in that it, like its forerunner Target America is full of lies and falsehood.

History shows that the Jews conspired against the Holy Last Messenger, Hazrat Muhammad (May the Peace and Blessings of Almighty God be upon him). After signing several peace treaties, they repeatedly broke their word by aiding the idol-worshippers who were doing their level best to wipe Islam off the face of the earth (just as they are aiding the idol worshipping Hindus who are exercising ethnic cleansing of Muslims in Kashmir). When the Jews were vanquished from the blessed city of Madinah because of their treachery, they took refuge in Khyber, a Jewish stronghold whose mighty fortress they considered impregnable. Enclosed in their forts were orchards, sheep, cattle, and enough provisions to last for years. It was their hope that the besieging Muslim army (whom the Jewish garrison outnumbered at least two to one) would grow weary and return to Medina unsuccessful. After many hard fought battles, the principle fort of Khyber remained unconquered by the Muslims, even after several full-scale attacks. One blessed day, the Holy Last Messenger (May the Peace and Blessings of Almighty God be upon him) announced, "Tomorrow I will give the banner of command to someone who loves Allah, and Allah loves him." The next day Hazrat Ali (May Almighty God be pleased with him), the cousin and son-in-law of the Holy Last Messenger (PBUH) was entrusted with the command. He walked up to the Fort of Khyber until he stood before its massive gate and uttering the battle cry "Allahu Akbar", he ripped the gate right out of the wall and thereafter used it as a weapon. When the fort had been over run and victory was in the hands of the Muslims, he tossed the gate a tremendous distance behind his back, where its pointed spikes lodged themselves in the ground. Till this day the Jews seek vengeance for their defeat at Khyber at the hands of the Muslims and they hold special malice towards the family of the Holy Last Messenger who are the descendants of Hazrat Ali, the Victorious Lion of Allah.

Through their puppets and stooges in the Islamic world they attempt to create enmity within the Islamic Ummat towards the blessed family and have even attempted to re-write Islamic history to exclude Hazrat Ali's participation in the Battle of Khyber. As they have taken up the occupation of Jerusalem, they consider the pursuit of their age old desire to occupy Mecca and Madina in their quest for world dominance. The Zionist consider a Hashmite (descendant of the Holy Prophet) as their greatest opponent and would like nothing better than to slaughter all of them as they have tried to do with Saddam Hussain.

This is the core of the reason why they have attacked Sheikh Jilani and his followers and there are numerous books such as A History of Zionism written by Jews which attest to this fact.

Sheikh Jilani and His Followers Are Not Anti Semitic

Before we go any further we must clarify something for our readers which is that we are not anti Semitic because what we attack is the racist Zionist elements which have absolutely nothing to do with that which was practiced and taught by Hazrat Moses (Peace be upon him), who is a righteous servant of Almighty God in every respect. Remember, in his absence the 'fathers of Zionism' attempted to lure the masses of the Children of Israel back to their pagan ways by building the golden calf, which ironically is the same idol held as sacred by their modern day cohorts in their war against Islam and Muslims, the putrid Hindu terrorists.

History shows that the Jews were never satisfied with the Law of the Almighty and continuously broke their covenant with Him. Their 'supremacist' attitude was evident then and even today they believe themselves to be the 'chosen people' and all others to be their slaves.

Zionist And Their "Cry Wolf Syndrome"

The 'modus operandi' is for these vagrants to depict themselves as the helpless victims of discrimination rather than the true victimizers that they are. They utilize their monopoly of the media to raise the sympathy and guilt complex of the public and they activate their resources to demean any organization or person they see as a threat to uncover their mischief making.

If anyone makes in-roads at exposing their sinister schemes, they are labelled as 'anti-Semitic' and accused of disliking them simply because they are Jews. In America, a land where freedom of religion is guaranteed by the constitution, and where so many people in government and in the private sector, rely heavily on the Zionist controlled media and donations, an enemy of the Jew naturally becomes their enemy.

A Hidden Agenda

The Zionist being the wealthy conglomerate that they have established all types of businesses and institutions that present themselves as one thing but have a 'hidden' purpose or activity that is highly cloaked. Such is the case with the Anti Defamation League, which recently had their 'veil removed' when their spy operations were exposed in a number of major American cities, however because of their being well connected in relevant government and law enforcement circles and because of their control over mainstream western media, the stories were quickly suppressed.

According to published reports in the Daily Challenge and the Village Voice (two local New York newspapers with limited distribution), the ADL, conducted domestic spy operations against nearly 10,000 people and 1000 organizations. Information collected from such intelligence gathering activities of these Mossad agents, based in the United States, were shared, exchanged or sold to various police or intelligence agencies within America, Israel or South Africa. These operations were carried out against a wide diversity of groups, such as the Rainbow Coalition, Sandinista Solidarity, Arab (Muslim) groups, Anti Apartheid organizations and the American Indian Movement etc.

Files were kept on such individuals as Muhammad Jarrad, proprietor of the Holy Land Bakery in Chicago, who was arrested during a trip to Israel because they accused him of supporting 'terrorism', Dr. Leonard Jeffries, head of the Black Studies Department of the City University of New York who had been accused of being an anti Semite and was investigated and removed from his post; Chris Hani, head of the South African Communist Party was also amongst those included in the ADL files.

The source of information for this article was a 900 page report compiled by the San Francisco Sheriffs Department after the ADL came under the suspicion of the FBI, following the Jonathan Pollard spy case in 1987. Pollard, while stationed in the Anti Terrorist Alert Center of U.S. Navy, stole thousands of pages of classified documents for Israel. Pollard's controller was Avi Stella, an Israeli Air Force Colonel whose wife worked for the New York office of the ADL, as a lawyer. Pollard admitted in letters to friends that a highly placed member of the ADL was 'deeply involved in the Israeli spy operation'.

The ADL worked hand and hand with the American Israel Political Action Committee (AIPAC) providing information on groups and organizations that Israel considers her enemies. In the words of Grey Slabodkin, former opposition researcher for AIPAC, "The level of cooperation was very close, if our files were lacking, we contacted ADL".

The ADL was established by the Sons of the Covenant, known to most as B'nai B'rith, in 1913, supposedly as a 'watchdog' against anti-Semitism, and racial and religious discrimination. That was its purpose outwardly, but inwardly what existed was a highly sophisticated spy network operated by Mossad agents. They spied on American citizens and breached the security of the United States of America by stealing classified data from our armed forces and law enforcement agencies, and passing the information on to whoever and whatever country Israel had a vested interest in.

Anti Defamation League Charged With Spying On You!

The ADL was charged with 48 felony counts, and the San Francisco District Attorney promised to investigate the matter fully. Yet, on November 16, 1993, it was announced that the D.A. had made a sweetheart deal with the ADL for a fine of $75,000 and all criminal investigations into ADL activities have been dropped and they maintained their status as a charitable organization. So much for equity under the law.

The Plot Thickens And America Weakens

No doubt former Congressman Paul Findley's book entitled, They Dare To Speak Out, did not exaggerate when he spoke out about the clout of the huge Zionist lobby in Washington, D.C. and how it had its tentacles in many of the most powerful committees in Congress. This blatant coverup and miscarriage of justice could not have occurred without someone being enticed in some fashion to 'back off'.

It is kind of frightful to think that a foreign country of the size of Israel can flagrantly violate the sanctity of the most powerful country in the world, the United States and nothing comes of it. This is becoming an all too common occurrence. When Israel attacked the USS Liberty on the 8th of June 1967, as related in Mr. Findley's book, Deliberate Deceptions", the official statement of the Israeli Government concerning the terrible event . . . It is concluded clearly and unimpeachably from the evidence and the war dairies that the attack on the U.S.S. Liberty was not in malice. There was no criminal negligence and the attack was made by innocent mistake.

Mr. Findley dispels this contention by the Israeli's by relating:

In broad daylight, on June 8th, with no combat taking place nearby, Israeli warplanes and torpedo boats repeatedly attacked the U.S. intelligence ship Liberty off the Sinai coast, killing 34 and wounding 171. The attack involved the use of napalm, rockets, machine guns and torpedoes. It had been preceded by reconnaissance by Israeli planes for at least five and one half hours, during a time when the ship was flying a new flag that flew freely in a light breeze.

Though Israel, throughout the years has insisted it was a case of mistaken identity and an accident, abundant evidence emerged to strongly support the charge that Israel deliberately attacked the intelligence ship, apparently because it feared the Liberty would monitor Israeli preparations for invading the Golan Heights the next day...

As late as 1991, survivors of the attack charged the U.S. government with continuing to cover up Israel's role. Former Secretary of State Dean Rusk said, "I was never satisfied with the Israeli explanation... I didn't believe them then, and I don't believe them till this day. The attack was outrageous."

The evidence is quite clear, if the Israeli Government has enough control over the American Government to kill 34 sons of America and wound and maim another 171 and get away with it we have to wonder who actually governs America. If a citizen kills one American, we ask for the death penalty but when Israel kills 34 we pat her on the back and give her more foreign aid!

Epilogue

We want all concerned American citizens to examine the evidence and determine for themselves who Americas enemies are. Just take a look at the state of affairs here in America before and after the Gulf War. The United States was pushed into the war through the false propaganda of the Israelis and wound up leaving American blood in the sand while the Israelis sat at home basically untouched by the war, satisfied that their 'puppet', the United States had done all it was told to do.

Look at the state of affairs here, the backbone of the American society, big business is collapsing, unemployment is out of control and the national debt is strangling America. Meanwhile, Israel is a hundred times stronger than it was and lives lavishly on American money without any worry of attack because they know they can make the American Government do their bidding.

American Muslims and their Christian brothers must join hands together and protect their homeland from the invasion of sinister beings. Sheikh Jilani has already joined hands with Paul Findley to promote Muslim-Christian unity through brotherhood.

We don't want to happen here what happened to the U.S.S.R. or Yugoslavia. We must not let outsiders lead us into a war were we will sacrifice our sons!

The signs of the Last Days have already been manifest and the Prophet Muhammad (Peace and Blessings of Almighty God be upon him) has said that in the Last Days the Muslims and Christians will unite and fight a common enemy.

Time is short and if we want to save America we had better begin with Muslim Christian unity.

HIERARCHY OF ZIONIST MOVEMENT THROUGH PROMINENT CITIZENS & ORGANIZATIONS OF THE
WORLD, CONTROL POPULATION AND POLICIES
TOWARDS THEIR PLANS FOR A ONE GOVERNMENT RULE

Whatever the motivating reasons for which we the compiler of this book had begun with, our research has bore out irrefutable facts that are known by many the world over. There is without doubt the existence of numerous secret societies and organizations the world over that are controlled by a single hierarchy of Zionists. Their aim: to mold, manipulate and control the populations of the world as they create an environment ripe for the implementation of their plan for a new world order governed by themselves.

However, there are more minds that are skeptical, than those that believe that this is in any way possible: the whole world put into motion and controlled by manipulators and conspirators of devious plots. Yet the truth is plain to see by anyone who chooses to look at the clear evidence. Consider why men would hold secret societies or organizations to do evil. Satan has always worked under the cover of darkness and shuns the light that brings out the truth of its nature/purpose.

For decades now, the Zionist hierarchy have turned and created world events to their purpose. The "Committee of 300, the Illuminati if you will, have utilized the world's greatest scholars, scientists, etc. to control the politics, economics, finances, and education of countries in the Industrialized World as well as the Third World countries.

So how is this massive control accomplished? The elitist of the elite social and behavioral scientists employed by the Zionists have thoroughly studied the nature of mankind and "what makes him tick." They have figured out how, through manufactured events and controlled environment, whole nations of people are groomed to think and act as master planners would have them.

The United States is a prime and excellent example of this psychological manipulation. For years, the American people and its society have been groomed to play its role in the ultimate attempt of the Committee of 300 to take over the world. Americans have been inundated with "future shocks" as described by John Coleman as being "future oriented psychology designed to manipulate whole population groups to induce "future shocks"...a series of events which come so fast that the human brain cannot absorb the information....science has shown that there are clearly marked limits to the amount of changes and the nature of them that the mind can deal with. After continuous shocks, the large targeted population group discovers that it does not want to make choices any more. Apathy takes over, often preceded by mindless violence such as characteristic of Los Angeles street gangs, serial killers, rapists and child kidnappers."

These "future shocks" allows a targeted population to be controlled without the knowing it is happening. These future shocks have been created through mechanisms of control, i.e., electronic and print media, illegal drugs, education systems, etc. Today, the American society is truly suffering from future shock. The symptoms are evident. The American people who once championed all causes of humanity and as a new nation was full of life, at least within itself. Yet today, people are apathetic to life outside of themselves. The mind of the public has been conditioned to believe whatever it is told to believe through media propaganda.

The social scientists of the Zionists have concluded that it takes only two weeks to condition the mind, to set public opinion in whatever mode that is desired. Case in point: George Bush took only two weeks to get everyone to hate Iraq and Saddam Hussain over the airwaves, and the public mind fell into place. Because the media, ignored the American transgression of Iraq's sovereignty and allowed the government to purposefully blackout news of the multitude of civilians who were being killed by U.S. raids in Iraq. By the time it was publicly known, American public behavior was set and controlled and the violation of humanity went unprotested.

"Future shocks" create an atmosphere of overload, in which a people become apathetic or weary to the point that we no longer want the responsibility of making decisions for themselves. They look towards others to make the decisions, set public policy and opinion and then accept whatever is decided or done. This is where the "conspirators" step in with their schemes. It is at this point that a society and its people are ripe for the picking and can be manipulated by devious men without knowing that it is happening. The Committee of 300 [Zionists] have counted on the predicted response of the society in order to allow them to control reactions to manufactured events.

Coleman writes, "What we face today is not only the loss of our freedom and the very fabric of our nation, but far worse: the possibility of the loss of our souls. The steady chipping away at the foundation upon which this republic rests has left an empty void, which Satanists and cultists are rushing to fill with their synthetic soul material."

The Zionists want to play god. Not only do they intend to rule the world, but who will compose the world they rule. Thus, they manipulate the physical and mental aspects of populations. They are the financiers of the International drug trade, which takes millions of lives each year, as well as make billions of dollars for them. They finance wars, manipulate economics and agriculture, even maneuver natural events to create famine, fires, earthquakes, etc. to destroy scores of peoples, whom they consider consumers of resources that they intend to preserve for themselves and their future (Global 2000).

The American society has been inundated with moral decadence, perversion and indecency. Things that two or three decades ago would never have been permitted in open society, are now everyday occurrences that people ignore and overlook. Americans are complacent about drugs and crime, choosing to stay quartered in their homes rather than demand results from a country that has the power to destroy the planet or deploy an entire army and equipment in a matter of days, yet it cannot or will not rid itself of a few drug lords. The induction of drugs into world societies is a very important controlling aspect of the Zionist plan. Drugs are killers as well as modifiers and controllers of behavior. It rids one part of a population as it controls another part. At the same time America has this weak defense at home, it parades around the world as a champion of justice as if they are not involved in drug trafficking (British own the cartels of China and South America and began international trafficking from these areas.)

This was all a part of the plan from the beginning. Evidence of this is given by Milton William Cooper in his book "Behold A Pale Horse." He says, "The ruling powers decided that one means of funding the alien connected and other 'black' projects was to corner the illegal drug market. The English and French had established a historical precedent when they exploited the opium trade in the Far East and used it to fill their coffers and gain a solid foothold in China and Viet Nam, respectively.

A young ambitious member of the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR) was approached. His name is George Bush, who at the time was the president and CEO of the offshore division of Zapata Oil, based in Texas. Zapata Oil was experimenting with a new technology of offshore drilling. It was correctly thought that the drugs could be shipped from South America to the offshore platforms by fishing boat, to be taken from there to shore by the normal transportation use for supplies and personnel. By this method no customs or law enforcement agency would subject the cargo to search. George Bush agreed to help, and organize the operation in conjunction with the CIA.

The plan worked better than anyone had dreamed. It has since expanded worldwide. There are now many other methods of bringing illegal drugs into the country. It must always be remembered that George Bush began the sale of drugs to our children. The CIA now controls most of the world's illegal drug markets."

Thus, no one will tackle one of the biggest money makers for the Elite Conspirators. The world is also plagued by the legal drug trade. Much of the legal drug trade is operated by international pharmaceutical houses owned by the Rockefellers, that reap big money in the United States and abroad.

American societal acceptance of homosexuality, the plague of AIDS, Satanism, public lewdness and promiscuity are indicative of a nation in crisis. America is near ready for the complete take over by the Committee of 300. Unless -- the people are ready to listen to the hundreds of people who have tried to make the world aware of the existence of the secret orders of the Zionists. America is a key component in the Zionist scheme to rule the world. Therefore, it is essential for those who care to save the world to reclaim their rights to their government, their country and their minds.

BILL CLINTON: NEW PLAYER -- SAME OLD GAME

The world erupts . . . great countries crumble . . . vast, well equipped armies are divided into splinters. The great 'Bear', Communist Russia is dead. The free world has won . . . democracy has been victorious . . . capitalism has become the victor . . . or has it? The entire world map has been redesigned and the only super power remaining is the United States -- sovereign nation with distinct borders -- a government by the people and for the people shall not perish from this earth. Or will it? Leave it up to Bill Clinton and the "POWERS THAT BE" and the United States as we know it will disintegrate before our very own eyes.

To better understand the crises and perils that are plaguing our once impregnable super structure, we must investigate the carefully hidden tutors of President Bill Clinton. Projected as a 'liberal', a Rhodes Scholar, and a democrat, who carries the dreams and hopes of many Americans that he will end the years of social strife and bully politics of the previous republican administrations. Slick Willie coyly used his boyish smile and his "I'm deeply touched" voice to slither his way into the White House. Like the shrewd former president Jimmy Carter, Clinton promised to give the government back to the people. And it worked! The draft dodging, promiscuous womanizer now holds the most powerful public seat in the free world -- President of the United States of America. Also like Carter before him, Clinton's promise to return the government to the people of the United States is a bold face lie!

The Zionist money baggers would never allow this country to return to the aims of its founding fathers. At least not without a fight. It is quite evident that Clinton is not the America's "white knight in shining armor". Never before in any other period of history in the United States, has the federal government extended its tentacles so far into the policies and affairs of state and local government that it has been virtually choking the life out of the backbone of this country -- the Constitution and the will of the people of the United States of America.

It is not by mistake that so much has been exposed about Bill Clinton's extracurricular activities. The fact is that these revelations about Clinton are carefully revealed, at opportune times, so as to destroy the confidence of the American people in the presidency. As hard as it might be for some to believe, there is no way Clinton or anyone else for that matter, can hold the office of the presidency with such a troubled background unless "the powers that be" had a purpose in mind, as well as to have something that they can utilize to manipulate the puppet in office. There is undoubtedly more to Mr. Clinton than what meets the eye. In the last few decades, so much has been revealed about the carousing of presidential candidates, presidents and their family members that now creates the effect that the greater majority of American citizens are no longer shocked or upset over disclosures of scandals and slander that have become a normal every day occurrence. Tell me what better way to destroy a nation, a government than to portray its leader as 'low life' with no principles or morals; as a liar, a cheat and capable of doing anything! By design, that is exactly the picture that the media has skillfully painted. Is Clinton oblivious to this conspiracy to topple the government of the United States? Of course not, he takes his cues from some of the most proficient minds in the world, the designers of the New World Order, the GLOBAL SOCIALISTS! The goal is to denigrate the presidency, and Bill Clinton is a willing, well paid, executive with a devious resume.

Why was Bill Clinton chosen by the proponents of the New World Order to be the President of the United States? Would it have made a difference if Bush had been re-elected? Is there a difference between a republican or a democrat or a liberal or a conservative or a socialist? If we are talking about the average American citizen who identifies with one of these political philosophies, you would most probably answer in the affirmative. But if you were to examine the affiliations of most of the 'high powered' politicians in the U.S. and abroad, irrespective of announced political association, you will find that the vast majority share the same political ideology and that is an ideology that supports one world government. The trick employed by them is to keep the "average Joe" thinking that he has a choice in the matter. By and large, they have been successful in doing so.

Whenever we speak of the origins of the New World Order certain names of renown families, and powerful and influential organizations automatically come to mind. The Rothchilds, the Bilderbergers, Rockefeller, Henry Kissinger, Zbigniew Brzezinski; and The Council on Foreign Relations and the Trilateral Commission are amongst the most visible personalities and vehicles by which the NWO is propelled. The readers might have some difficulty digesting all they have read so far and some might even say that it is no more than conjecture, a fantasy, a figment of the authors imagination. Not so! Dan Smoot, one of the first to do extensive research on the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR) stated,

The ultimate goal of the Council on Foreign Relations . . . is . . . to create a one world socialist system and make the United States an official part of it.

By now you are probably wondering why such a shocking statement by such a renown American didn't flash all over the media networks. (The answer can be found in the previous chapter entitled Who Rules America.) The advocates of the NWO are confident that their centuries old plan is so far advanced that it can't be stopped and their false sense of security is reinforced by their oath of allegiance to Satan, the devil. Remember Satan offered the world to Christ Jesus (PBUH), and he refused it. Well, these harbingers of darkness have accepted the devils invitation and are eager to do his bidding.

Bill Clinton's link with these conspirators is multifaceted. He is a Rhodes Scholar, a member of the Council on Foreign Relations, a Trilateralist and a patron of the Bilderbergs' annual extravaganzas. Woe, the web is amazing.

Cecil Rhodes accumulated his fortune in diamonds and gold from all places, South Africa. His primary supporter was none other than the infamous Rothchilds. The Rothchild family also financed Trotsky and his murderous gang that butchered tens of millions of Muslims and Christians in order to establish the atheist communist Soviet Union. They also financed the Zionist dacoits that perpetrated every possible type of atrocity against the inhabitants of Palestine in order to establish the racist state of Israel. Rhodes and the Rothchilds shared a dream -- one world government. And Rhodes made provisions for his ideal to flourish.

In his will, Rhodes established a trust for a few thousand hand picked candidates from the world's choicest scholars, to visit England and be 'convinced' to advocate his dream for a one world government. This was the establishment of the now famous and much sought after Rhodes Scholarships.

The Bilderbergs are much more secretive of their dealings, but it is known that they meet under very secure conditions, once a year, in various locations throughout the world. They have been traced to Prince Bernhard, the husband of then Queen Juliana of the Netherlands, one of the wealthiest women in the world. Prince Bernhard is reported to have said,

Here comes our greatest difficulty. For the governments of the free nations are elected by the people, and if they do something the people don't like they are thrown out. It is difficult to re-educate people who have been bought up on nationalism to the idea of relinquishing part of their sovereignty to a supranational body . . . this is TRAGEDY!

[Perhaps veiled in this statement is Clinton's assignment to create situations or policies that erode the faith of the American people in the pillars of this great country and their heritage of faith and morality.]

The scanty reports on the inner mechanism suggest that whatever decisions are made at these gatherings have a viable impact on world politics. Henry Kissinger at a May 1992 meeting of this elite group was arrogant enough to openly state, Today Americans would be outraged if U.N. troops entered Los Angeles to restore order; tomorrow they will be grateful! This is especially true if they were told there was an outside threat from beyond, whether real or promulgated, that threatened our very existence. It is then that all people of the world will plead with world leaders to deliver them from this evil. The one thing that every man fears is the unknown. When presented with this scenario, individual rights will be willingly relinquished for the guarantee of their well being granted to them by their world government.

One would almost immediately question how such a far fetched theory could even be thought of. The elected representatives of the people would never allow foreign control of this free nation or would they? For sometime-pessimists have said, "Democrat or Republican, what difference will it make? We still get railroaded anyway you look at it," There is more truth to this statement than fiction. A multi-party political system that protects the vested interest of the American people is no more than a fallacy, a cosmetic approach by foreign entities to veil the American public from the truth and lull them to sleep. You will find that the greater majority of the upper echelon of political figures belong to and owe allegiance to the Council on Foreign Relations and look directly to them before introducing or establishing any platform or policy. Not only does the CFR control political figures, but their vast network includes the most influential figures of business and finance, labor, communications and education. They truly have the clout to propel an absurd personality to fame and fortune overnight. (See chapter Know Thy Enemy. . . , p. 57.)

The CFR came into existence in July 1921, as a body, although the ideology of the 'One World Government' had existed for some time. In fact the proponents of the failed League of Nations shared this philosophy. One might say that the CFR is the public relations firm for world management. Quite a few prestigious personalities financed the CFR in its early days of development but the family name which stands out from all the rest is that of the Rockefellers. The CFR's operations are sometimes well hidden, but their intention is boldly demonstrated in their quarterly magazine, Foreign Affairs.

The CFR never gave up the hope of a League of Nations type organization and jumped at the opportunity to establish the United Nations in 1945. The United States sent 47 delegates to the U.N.'s inauguration. One of the notables of that delegation was none other than Nelson Rockefeller. Alger Hiss, the U.N.'s first chairman, was a high ranking member of the CFR.

Statistics will verify the extensive influence that the CFR has on the American political structure. Since the CFR's inception, sixty-six percent of the U.S. Treasury Secretaries, seventy-five percent of State Department Secretaries, sixty percent of the Secretaries of Defense and over sixty percent of the Directors of the CIA have been known members of the CFR. More formidable than these figures is the overwhelming fact that most U.S. presidents and/or vice-presidents are either members of the CFR or the Trilateral Commission, Democratic or Republican. It make no difference for most knowledgeable people know the identity of the real political party, the Council on Foreign Relations!

Of course this scheme could not have advanced without the immeasurable contribution of the media. To insure complete compliance with the goals of these culprits, J.P. Morgan, an elitist, placed twelve puppets in the helm of the nations major newspapers. That was just the beginning, since then prestigious schools of journalism, wire services, air networks, commentators and columnists have joined the ranks of CFR "gophers." It's not ironic or a coincidence that many of these people are avowed Zionists. (See "Who Rules America")

In 1973, the CFR rejuvenated its goal with the advent of a relatively unknown personality, Jimmy Carter. promised to make a change with new faces in his administration; nevertheless when the smoke cleared, Cy Vance and the intellectual Zbigniew Brzezinski, CFR mainstays were in position and David Rockefeller's "brain storm" the Trilateral Commission (TC) was officially born. The TC included delegates from Japan and Western Europe hence the "tri-" prefix. What made matters even more interesting is that Japan has just elected its first socialist as its head and a united Europe with a common currency is being openly formulated and a united armed forces with loyalty to no country in particular exists. The single frontier remaining for the 'one world government' web is America, and the CFR and the TC are doing everything possible to remedy that.

David Rockefeller is the figure behind the CFR and the TC. Although he is not a head of state his clout is so great that he met with twenty-seven heads of state in 1973 alone. He had an audience with Pope Paul VI, tutored Jimmy Carter and met with Prime Minister Khrushchev in 1964 which was four months prior to Khrushchev being booted out. Carter admits to being primed by Brzezinski, the intellectual, who writes in his book, Between Two Ages:

There is a need for two things for the U.S. to come under the umbrella of one world government - 'replacing of the U.S. dollar and a reduction in the living standards.'

Brzezinski like Kessinger believes America will accept an authoritarian elitist government if they fear social strife and chaos.

An American flag waver, Ronald Reagan, who put the 'power' back in America said just prior to his election, "I think there is an elite in this country and they are the ones who run an elitist government . . . " Like Carter, he reportedly said, the U.S. government should not be saturated with trilateralists and then when elected he appointed twenty-eight CFR members to his transition team; eventually sixty-four CFR members joined his administration.

If there is a question why Clinton won the election as a 'liberal' then we need to reflect on a statement of Norman Thomas, consistent presidential candidate of the Socialist Party:

The American people will never knowingly adopt Socialism, but under the name of Liberalism, they will adopt every fragment of the Socialist program until one day America will be a Socialist nation without knowing how it happened!

Do you still wonder why-

- Socialized health care
- Crime bill/gun control/federal police
- Homosexual rights
- Liberal abortion laws
- Weakening of first Amendment Rights
- Ignoring of Fourth Amendment/ search and seizure

laws

-- Strengthening the United Nations

Clearly it is the mark of this administration to actively pursue the construction of polices and laws that will increase the governments control of both the public and private sectors of society.

Much is said of Hillary Clinton's part in the administration and rightfully so. Her actions at the World Summit on Children held at the United Nations in September 1990 best reveal her hand in destroying the basic ideals of America. On behalf of the America people Hillary signed what is known as the 'Charter of the Rights of Children'.

Article 2: Parents are not to punish their children in any way for actions or words contrary to their beliefs or standards.

Article 6: The government is to have the final say in everything concerning the child.

Article 13: Parents are not to place any restrictions on what a child sees, hears, or is taught, or experiences in any way.

Article 14: Parents may not determine medical treatment for their children, nor may they refuse state mandated treatment.

Article 28: Parents may not educate their children at home.

Isn't it shocking that the wife of the man that is suppose to safeguard American standards allows his wife to support such anti American positions on behalf of this country. Surely these are the positions that the Clinton's and their CFR, New World Order, buddies can't wait to implement in American society. Break down the family structure and break down the nation. In recent months we all have been shocked to read accounts of children going to court because they want to divorce their parents. Now we know why this was allowed and what the future has in store if we don't do something about expelling the demons from amongst us.

Hillary Clinton wrote in one article entitled "Children's Rights: A Legal Perspective" that all children are entitled to legal representation in any proceeding in which their interest are at stake." What this broad statement advocates is that any time a child disagrees with his or her parents they can take them to court and sue them for a number of things. It is no wonder that Hillary Clinton strongly supports the Children's Defense Fund (CDF), a liberal "children's lobby". Of course the media intentionally does not make you aware of all the efforts being made to destroy American values but we will. The children of America are very important to us as they are the backbone and future of this great nation. We must not let any one or any organization destroy or take away the God-given rights that we have to raising our children.

Our country is definitely becoming a 'Police State' as Brezhinsky states in his book, Between Two Ages, Soon it will be possible to assert almost continuous surveillance over every citizen and maintain up-to-date complete files containing even the most personal information about the citizen. These files will be subject to instantaneous retrieval by the authorities.

This has turned out to be an excellent projection of the future. In the August 9th edition of the Washington Post there is an article on the front page entitled, "Spy Unit's Spending Stuns Hill". The contents pertain to a 'clandestine' intelligence agency, the National Reconnaissance Office (NRO) which controls all spy satellites and is jointly overseen by the CIA and the Department of Defense. Remember both of the head positions in these departments are traditionally headed by a CFR or TC operative. The report points out that the NRO was an officially classified secret up until 2 years ago. The Senate Select Committee on Intelligence became upset when they found that the cost of the new facility to house the NRO has more than doubled the original projected figure for construction and ballooned to 310 million. The 1 million square foot project makes it 1/4th the size of the Pentagon. DeConcini, a committee member is reported to have said, the intelligence community is a culture that "believes we don't have to account like everybody else in government" and no doubt it is quite an unhealthy stance for a government agency to take in a country whose government was set up with checks and balances to insure that the attitude just spoken of would not exist. The complex that is located near Dulles Airport will contain the only the most advanced intelligence gathering equipment and God only knows what privacies will be invaded by those who monitor these devices.

According to reliable sources, the communists have a step by step plan of operation for overcoming the United States. If you exam the excerpts that will follow you will easily see how the Clinton regime is playing right into their hands:

- Corrupt the youth; get them away from religion and get them interested in sex.
- Cause the breakdown of moral virtues; honesty, sobriety and continence
- Get control of all means of publicity
- Destroy the peoples faith in their natural leaders by holding the latter up to contempt, ridicule and obloquy.
- Cause the registration of all firearms on some pretext, with a view to confiscation and leaving the population helpless.

Thomas Jefferson said, "No free man shall ever be debarred the use of arms. The strongest reason for the people to retain their right to keep and bear arms is as a last resort to protect themselves against tyranny in the government."

In the light of what has been revealed about the attempt of the elitist to take over the Government of the United States a quick course of action must be taken. Already the organizers of the 'one world government' concept feel quite secure and are not the least bit reluctant to voice their objectives. The one thing that they cannot combat is the uniting of the Muslims and Christians here in America. Such a union would spark a resurgence in love of the Almighty God and a desire to adhere to the perfect laws that the Almighty has established for all mankind to abide by. The Ten Commandments, the Lord's Prayer, the Golden Rule, the enjoining of the right and the forbidding of the evil, and the recognition that the domination of man by man is not pleasing to the Almighty. Man must know that he was created to obey and serve the One Almighty God, The Creator of the Heavens and the Earth. Muslims and Christians must join together to combat the immorality and decadence that is overwhelming our country and must reestablish our God given rights and the righteous values adherent in both great religions. The ungodly forces of evil can never overcome those who love Almighty God and we must confront them and use every legal means at our disposal to expose and remove them from causing further harm to this great country of ours and its God-fearing, law abiding citizens.

CONCLUSION: A PLAN OF ACTION

The Islamic World is immense not only geographically or in population, but in its abundance of natural resources, wealth of knowledge and manpower.

The Muslim countries of the world form a solid block, starting at north Africa, extending through the Arabian peninsula, Central Asia, South Asia and culminating in the South East Asian countries of Malaysia and Borneo. United, they would form a Superpower in their own right. However, this unity is the thing that the Western powers fear the most, and are striving their hardest to prevent.

The policy of "Divide and Conquer," begun by the British during their rule in Africa, enables Britain and the other Western countries to control and deplete the resources of each Islamic country individually.

Additionally, there is a great fear among Western nations that if the Islamic nations were to unite and form a solid block, they would present an undefeatable military threat to the West. History will bear out the fact, however, that true Islamic nations have never committed aggression against their non-Muslim neighbors. They have fought only in self-defense or in a pre-emptive strike. Non-Muslims under Islamic rule have at all times been treated fairly and allowed to carry out their religious practices without interference. Islam has always brought peace, prosperity and security to any nation where it has attained dominance.

In Spain, Christians and Jews lived in peace and harmony under the Muslim government for hundreds of years. The arts, sciences, medicine, literature, and religious culture all flourished in Muslim Spain while the rest of Europe was in a state of darkness and ignorance. This period of Jewish life under the benevolent Islamic government of Spain is known as the "Golden Age of Judaism."

Contrast this with the merciless carnage which took place during the Spanish Inquisition when the Muslims were deposed and Muslims and Jews alike were forced to convert to Christianity or face torture and death. Their property was seized. Libraries were burnt to the ground and hundreds of pious women were forced into servitude.

These days, Islam is again on the rise all over the world. With the disintegration of the USSR, once obscure Muslim nations are reappearing on the map, and Muslims the world over are eager to establish their lost identity and live in harmony with their Christian brothers. Unfortunately, due to the penetrating effectiveness of Zionist propaganda, Christians think of Muslims as their number one enemy. Yet, according to the saying of the Holy Last Messenger Muhammad (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him), during the last days Muslims and Christians would unite and fight a common enemy, the Zionists and Jesus son of Mary would descend from the heavens and lead the nations of the world toward one harmonious community of Mankind, Al Islam.

But one sees that the Christians today do not share the wish of global goodwill and harmony with their Muslim brothers. Beyond all doubt, the British, along with the UN are engineering the extermination of all the Muslims of Bosnia. For the Western powers, the Crusades will not end until the last Muslim is wiped off the face of the earth. If this present state of disunity among the Muslim nations is allowed to continue, there can be little doubt that the West will achieve their goal.

The researchers, scholars, and experts who have composed this document which is in your hands believe that the Muslim World must unite now. World, no governments, because the majority of governments in the Muslim World are puppets manipulated by the Zionists to the point where a Muslims' blood is no longer sacred. We have before us the example of the Saudis and other Islamic countries" ganging up on Iraq. At present these same countries are helping America in an economic blockade of Sudan. The armies of the Muslim countries have been reduced to the level of mercenaries. In their quest for dollars and equipment, they will gladly travel to any part of the world and murder their Muslim brothers.

It is urgent for all Islam-loving Muslims, the youth in particular, that they should establish an organization on a world-wide level. They should struggle to establish Islamic law in their own countries and replace the corrupt hypocritical puppet regimes with true Islamic governments.

As a matter of fact, at the appropriate time a UN of Muslims should be established in Mecca Mukarama, the Holy Land which is the common heritage of all the Muslims in the world.

Our experts have formulated a bold plan which can be forwarded to all who are interested. The salient features of the plan are:

- * A common defense force among the Islamic Block
- * Common currency
- * Favorable trade agreements among all Muslim countries
- * A total boycott of all Western products
- * Motivation of Islamic youth at world level

A center of Islamic thought should be established in Sudan, Pakistan, Afghanistan or Malaysia with the purpose of propagating the message of Islam, and enjoining the Muslim youth to repel the vicious onslaught of drugs and other immoralities which are the trademark of Western culture.

Presented on the following pages are the results of the research which will prove to the reader the potential power of the Islamic World, and its potential to be totally free of any dependence upon the West. These excerpts are taken from the book Islamic Military Resurgence by Colonel Abdul Rahman Bilal.

APPENDIX - 1

REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE CITES "ISLAMIC DANGER" TO THE U.S.

TASK FORCE ON TERRORISM & UNCONVENTIONAL WARFARE CALLS FOR CONTAINMENT OF MUSLIM GROUPS AROUND THE WORLD

by Aslam Abdullah

[This article originally appeared in the March/April 1993 edition of The Minaret]

Reports coming from Tel Aviv and Washington suggest that some pro-Israelis have been making determined efforts to tarnish relations between Muslims and non-Muslims. Some Israeli nationals working for US-Israeli intelligence seem to have been working on a plan to intensify their campaign to turn the Christian West against Islam and Muslims all over the world. The first clear indication of such a scheme came in 1984, when a few Israeli professors sponsored a conference on Islam and terrorism. Zionist and pro-Israeli scholars were invited from all over the world to link Islam with terrorism and violence. Since then, through several media networks in Europe and North America, some Israeli nationals have reportedly been using their influence to project Muslims as terrorist people. "They intensify their campaigns when they realize Israel is in docks," said Ahmed Nadim, an observer of Israeli affairs in Los Angeles.

Seemingly, they have targeted the US for this purpose. "In the United States, Muslims will soon outnumber Jews as the second largest religious community after Christians. The Israeli lobby fears that this would mean political empowerment of Muslims that may cause the loss of over three billion dollars and other privileges to Israel", commented Dr. Riaz Ahmed, a London based researcher specializing in Israeli affairs.

"In the US, the modus operandi of the Israeli lobby is to influence the media, think tanks, government and political parties. The way they work is very simple. They leak information to journalists, policy makers and officials on issues they deem important to their interests. For example, the article compiled by the Los Angeles Times correspondent Kim Murphy on March 14, 1993 about "Islamic Fundamentalism" is based on information that probably originated in an Israeli think tank. Similarly, the contents of the report published by the republican Task Force on Terrorism and Unconventional Warfare on the New Islamic International are backed by the Mossad and other related agencies", added Dr. Ahmed.

Why are some Israelis trying to pit non-Muslims against Muslims? "They are not very comfortable in their relations with the Christian West, even though Israel considers itself to be the most trusted ally of the West in the Middle East." asserted Riaz Ahmed, "They feel that anti-Jewish sentiments are very high in Europe and North America. Simultaneously, they also are not comfortable with their Arab neighbors and Muslims elsewhere whom they perceive as their staunch enemies. This is an old colonial maxim," asserted Riaz Ahmed.

Some of the tactics being applied by the Israelis is to discredit almost every Muslim organization and institution. "They want to strengthen the existing stereotypes against Muslims in the West and project Muslims as subversive, terrorists and fundamentalists. Once a community is stigmatized, it finds it hard to communicate with others on a rational basis," said Mansoor Ahmed, a New Delhi-based social scientist."

What was suggested by Mansoor Ahmed and Riaz Ahmed is corroborated by some recent statements made by Israeli public officials, including Israeli Prime Minister Yitzak Rabin. On January 2, 1993, Rabin and other prominent Israeli leaders issued a statement urging European and North American leaders to trust their judgement on the issue of Muslim fundamentalists and Islamic terrorism and give them resources to fight the new upcoming danger. Similarly, some Zionist scholars "specializing" in Islam have also been towing the same line. Not very long ago, Bernard Lewis and a few others propounded a theory that Islam is Marxism in a reverse direction. Former Vice President Dan Quayle took a clue from such scholars in a speech given to Marines in which he said that Islamic fundamentalism is the third danger, after communism and Naziism, that has to be dealt with seriously. Furthermore, in the El Toro Naval Base in Orange County, an official screened a movie produced by Jack Anderson on terrorism that talked about Islam and terrorism in an ominous and dangerous way. Even though the movie was withdrawn and the State Department said that it had nothing to do with the movie, it left its desired impact.

The influence of such Israeli elements is more visible on the House Republican Research Committee whose Task Force on Terrorism and Unconventional Warfare has recently come up with several reports on Islam and terrorism.

If the papers on Islamist International are to be believed, then 'Islam is a terrorist religion and Muslims, no matter what they say, are a terrorist people.' The papers produced by the Task Force on Terrorism and Unconventional Warfare of the House Republican Research Committee, are directed by Yossef Bodansky, reportedly an Israeli national, and the claim that Iran and Sudan have become bastions of international terrorism and Hassan Turabi of Sudan, Omar Abd al-Rahman of Egypt living in New Jersey and Muhammad Al Ghannouchi of Tunisia living in exile in London are leaders of a terrorist network established by Muslims. The supposed purposes of this Islamic terrorist network are:

- To establish an Islamic plan for a joint Islamic front to challenge non-Islamist Arab governments.

- The establishment of strong cooperation and links between various Islamist movements and groups throughout the Arab and Muslim worlds.
- The establishment of an all-Islamic leadership and subordinate cadres to steer and initiate the activities of members and movements in accordance with a joint plan.
- The turning of supreme leadership of Islam away from dominance of Muslim Brotherhood to reliance on the Iranian model because the Iranian experience can also be exported and forcibly implemented through intransigence, acts of violence, renunciation of officials, and declaring jihad against a large number of regimes.
- The restructuring of the world's Islamist organization into two distinct parts -- one open part that will preach the call and be involved in humanitarian activities; and the other, a secret part, to support and sponsor the Islamist armed struggle, terrorism and subversion.

According to the report, Islamist International works in three arenas:

1. The mosque, in order to reach the popular masses;
2. The universities, which are the first lines of Islamic rebels because the largest groups of the best educated and motivated militant Islamists can be found there; and;
3. The community, professional and pressure groups, including humanitarian groups, to facilitate taking over social and humanitarian services, social work, trade, etc. In order to conceal cadres and better penetrate and subvert society from within.

The paper uses terms such as "anti-Western terrorism," the "armed Islamic movement", or "Muslim terrorists," and asserts that growing numbers of Arab terrorists have become Islamists. Previously these terrorists were dominated by revolutionary leftist and even Communist ideologies.

Yossef Bodansky asserts that Shia and Sunni Islam are coming closer against the West. "Iran represents the Shia trend and Sudan the Sunni trend. Representatives of the two groups met in London in August 1989 to decide to concentrate on Sudan as a base for extremist religious movements in the Arab world, Africa and Asia. An international Brotherhood leadership board of 19 was established in Khartoum under Turabi in August 1989. Another conference took place in Khartoum on 25-28 April 1991. It was a conference of a wide variety of terrorist organizations and popular Islamist movements from 55 countries and was the first serious attempt to coordinate a Sunni Muslim assault on the Muslim world and against the West.

"The group is led by Hussain al Turabi of Sudan, Rashid Ghannouchi of Tunisia, currently living in London, Dr. Omar Abd al Rahman of Egypt, currently residing in the U.S. and Abbas Madani, the jailed leader of the Algerian Islamic movement."

According to the report these leaders have directed their organizations to commit specific terrorist attacks in accordance with a master plan and a previously agreed upon strategies. The coordinating body is called the Popular International Organization (PIO)." The report warns U.S. policy makers of showing any sympathy to the Bosnians. It says that since the summer of 1992, there has been a marked escalation in provocative acts performed by the Muslim forces in order to instigate a major military intervention by the West against the Serbs and to a lesser extent the Croats. Quoting Russian military commanders and Croat leaders, the report tries to mislead the Republican Party and others into believing that Muslims are terrorists and if they are allowed to live peacefully in Europe the very existence of the West would be in great jeopardy.

The report mentions the United States as the new power base of the Islamic terrorists. " Hamas has already been expanding its cooperation with the Muslim Brotherhood cells in the U.S., using them as back-up safety installations for Middle East operations, as well as a source of funds and propaganda material. With the growing militant Islamist activism in the U.S. and the emerging need to be able to conduct terrorist operations there, the international Islamist movement decided to nominate a senior spiritual authority, that is supreme commander for the U.S. Thus Sheikh Dr. Omar Abd al Rahman, the spiritual guide of the most radical branch of Islamic Jihad in Egypt arrived in the U.S. in the fall of 1990 and established an Islamic center in Faruq Masjid Mosque in Brooklyn.

"Sheikh Abd al Rahman is also authorized to issue fatwas permitting suicide operations in North America, thus significantly simplifying the Islamist's ability to conduct terrorism in the U.S.."

"Pakistan is being prepared for the escalation of terrorism in the U.S. and Canada. These preparations are conducted under the cover of Jamaat ul Fuqra, ostensibly an organization led by Sheikh Mubarik Ali Shah Jilani, a Pakistani Kashmiri, living in Lahore. 151 Brig. Imtiaz has been responsible for training the Black Muslims from the USA and Canada through the Jamaat ul Fuqra for terrorist operations in North America and West Europe."

Sheikh Jilani is directly involved in recruitment of American Black Muslims and in their indoctrination in Pakistan. However for the actual preparation for the terrorist acts, Jilani with the help of 151 and the Pakistani IB, runs a training center near Lahore where Sudanese instructors carry out their task. The Pakistani connection to American Black Muslims is an out-growth of a long-term Iranian program begun in the 1980's to recruit disgruntled black Americans out of the U.S.

prison system. Only a few trained black Americans have already been infiltrated into the U.S.

"From a research point of view, I won't even accept a sentence of the report after reviewing its contents", said Ihsan Karim, a Los Angeles based researcher. The report does not quote sources, does not differentiate between Muslim and non-Muslim groups, and does not back up any claim with any substantial documentation. "From a researcher's perspective its trash," said Ihsan Karim.

Ihsan Karim's sentiments were echoed in a letter written by Congressman Dana Rohrabacher (R-Ca) when he rejected the premise and facts of an earlier report on terrorism titled "Iran's European Spring-board." He said, "I had no opportunity to preview the material before the publication. I did not know about the report until after it had been published. After reading it, I contacted the Task Force Chief of staff and let him know that I strongly disagreed with the premise and facts of the report. The report emphasizes concerns which are exactly opposite of those I believe to be relevant. Because I feel so strongly about this matter I am disassociating myself from the Task Force. I will no longer be Co-Chairman or even a member.

This committee is apparently avoiding the media. Despite repeated phone calls and fax messages, The Minaret is yet to hear from either the chairman or the director of the Task Force. On March 16, somebody named Charles who identified himself as an intern told The Minaret that the Press Secretary would give his comments on the report. So far, no one has contacted the office.

"Avoiding the media is a mysterious act," said Salem al Marayati, director of the Muslim Public Affairs Council (MPAC). "I think we should ask Republicans why has taxpayer's money been misused by the party officials to serve the interests of a distant country, however friendly she might be to the United States," he added.

The manipulation of the American media and the academics has so far pushed a genuine debate about terrorism into the background. If they go on unnoticed, it would be hard to understand the real dimensions of problem.

AMERICAN MUSLIMS CALL FOR UNITY AGAINST ZIONISTS' EVIL DESIGNS TO DESTROY LIBERATORS FOR WORLD PEACE AND SOVEREIGNTY

It is a well established fact that the Zionists have been working against Islamic Mujahideen. They are ruthless and unceasing in their pursuits to extinguish within the Islamic world all what they perceive as threats to their existence. One of their recent successes occurred when of 150 Egyptian Mujahideen, who fought in Afghanistan and had come to Pakistan after accepting an open invitation of the CIA, were arrested after the Zionists exerted pressure, through the U.S. government, on Hosni Mubarak and the Egyptian government.

A reliable source disclosed that these 150 Mujahideen were put on an Egyptian airline from Islamabad and were murdered in the air, in "cold-blood" and their bodies were thrown into the sea! The Zionist then utilized their control over various agencies to wage an undeclared war against the remaining Arab and Egyptian Mujahideen and enticed a local tribe to attack them. This resulted in the martyrdom of over thirty unsuspecting Mujahideen. Some of these Mujahideen were arrested and put on trial, including two Muslim ladies were arrested and tried as well.

President Burhanuddin Rabbani, of Afghanistan, is also a recipient of Zionist pressures. President Rabbani was targeted following a state visit to Egypt during which he refused to sign an extradition agreement between Afghanistan and Egypt, allowing Mujahideen to be handed over to the Egyptian government. As a result of his refusal to cooperate with the Zionist puppet, Hosni Mubarak, the Zionist and India's RAW are working closely together against President Rabbani by heavily funding and equipping his opponents. A well known Communist, General Abdur Rashid Dostum and Hizbul Wahdat, a Shia group, are President Rabbani's most ardent opponents and recipients of the Zionist benefits. The Zionist are afraid that the Afghan Mujahideen will spread their movement for justice and freedom for their Muslim brethren outside their country borders, especially in Palestine. So they are sparing nothing in an effort to increase their grasp on Afghanistan.

Afghanistan is a pivotal sore spot for the Zionist conspirators. That is why we find that the American Muslims who went for Jihad in Afghanistan, are also targeted victims. They have been subject of false propaganda at the hands of the Zionist and Hindus all over the world. The Zionist and their cohorts will stop at nothing to put out the light of Al Islam.

We strongly warn Muslims of the world that they must become acutely aware of the conspirators and conspiracies against Al Islam and its leaders and join hands together like a solid cemented structure. Remember in the Iraqi War, the Saudi Arabia along with other Gulf neighbors joined hands with the U.S. utilizing the same tactics now are appearing in Afghanistan where neighboring countries are actively trying, by Zionist design, to block and destroy any hopes for an Islamic state.

Most unfortunately, the Zionist and Illuminatis of the 'One World Government' advocacy will severely damage the United States as well. Books such, as Ralph Epperson's "The Unseen Hand"; Gary Allen's "The CFR Conspiracy to Rule the World"; Ann Wilson's "Bill Clinton: Friend or Foe"; and "Vampire 2000" distributed by ACLA (Phoenix, Az. 85066) are full of the details detailing the Zionist plot for domination of the world, particularly in regards to how their schemes will be deployed in the U.S.

If things progress at this rate, the United States will be a third rate nation within five years, if the Zionist-Hindu design for the U.S. is continued to be allowed to go unchecked. We implore all God-fearing citizens, Muslims and Christians to fight against the satanists. Muslim-

Christian unity will manifest a more than formidable foe against the evil doers, the enemies of all God fearing people and the United States. Muslims and Christians must unite and join hands for God's sake, if America is going to survive and prosper.

ISRAELI SPIES AIDING IN FOUR CIA OPERATIONS

By NILES LATHEN
Bureau Chief

WASHINGTON — Israeli intelligence has made a deal with the CIA to supply captured Soviet made weapons to paramilitary groups supported by the U.S. around the world.

High ranking American intelligence specialists told The Post last night that under the almost unprecedented arrangement Israel agreed to help the CIA in at least four highly sensitive covert operations.

In return the U.S. apparently will increase the amount of spy satellite information it shares with Israel.

Sources said that because of the agreement Israel's military intelligence service already is supplying Soviet made arms and munitions to Lebanon during Israel's war with PLO and Syrian forces.

The arms are being turned over to the CIA which then distributes them to U.S. backed counter revolutionary groups around the world.

The idea is to assist Western involvement with the guerrillas by using Soviet arms intelligence specialists say.

Sources said the operation is a $100 million covert and program for 10,000 anti-Sandinista rebels operating against the Nicaraguan government from secret bases in Honduras.

The ultra secret $100 million CIA covert and program to provide arms and training to mountain tribesmen battling the Soviet army in Afghanistan.

Several other nations including China and Egypt also are believed to be involved in assisting the Afghan mujahideen.

Lebanon where Israeli intelligence agents are working closely with the CIA station there and are providing information on the chaotic situation around Beirut.

The secret Israeli deal was part of a four intelligence agreement Israel signed to last month earlier this year after Israel agreed to withdraw from Lebanon sources say.

In return for Israeli help it is believed that the U.S. has agreed to give Israel use of more data from its ELINT (electronic intelligence) network of satellites and listening posts so that Israel can receive earlier warnings of major troop movements throughout the Middle East.

Some intelligence specialists say the arrangement is the most wide ranging agreement ever established between the CIA and a foreign intelligence service.

Although the CIA and other U.S. intelligence agencies have established close working relationships with intelligence services of other nations in the past, the agencies have not previously been so intimately involved in the particular subject of operations that involve the needs of that particular country.

For example, NATO countries often share information gathered by U.S. spy satellites on missile testing in the Soviet Union.

But Israel is the only country that has been involved in the formation of a CIA operation in Africa, specialists say.

It is especially in that Israel is providing such a major role in some of the most sensitive U.S. operations when just a few months ago relations between the military services of the two nations were at an all time low.

- IN HONDURAS: Israel is cooperating with $19 million program to aid anti-Sandinistas
- IN AFGHANISTAN: Israel is participating in $100 million CIA program to arm and train rebels.
- IN LEBANON: Israel intelligence is sharing information with United States
- IN AFRICA: Israeli agents are helping to block Soviet and Libyan influence

APPENDIX - 3

U.N. ZIONISTS TOOL FOR NWO: TO CREATE GLOBAL CHAOS AND DECADENCE

With the fall of the Communist empire, the Zionist conspirators have turned to the United Nations as a cover for their devious plans to create global chaos and moral decadence as a means of leading them to their NWO. In the earlier chapters of this book, we have iterated repeatedly the fact that those who are plotting and planning to take over the world (sounds like a sci-fi movie plot), use confusion, conflict, chaos and fear to condition the behavior and mental outlook of nations' peoples, ripening them for the NWO take-over.

In September of this year in Cairo, Egypt, the U.S. and U.N. are sponsoring a "population control" conference that is a cover for a much more devious plot. We have already uncovered one of the aims of the NWO is to decrease the populations of the world in order to preserve global resources for their elite minority. The U.N. conference is quite obviously part and parcel of that plan, in addition to other aims and objectives that have been recently disclosed.

The Washington Post Newspaper, August 12, 1994, reported that a draft document to be presented at the conference not only contained "strategies for stabilizing" the populations of the world, but also included language that attacks the very moral fibre of the major religions of the world. Like former U.S. President Jimmy Carter's Global 2000 plan, the Cairo Conference's document proposed family planning and birth control programs designed to decrease global populations that are expected to reach 3 billion early next century. Two-thirds of that three billion growth are within the Third World countries and the majority of these are Muslims. The projected aim of the Zionists becomes two-fold: 1. to decrease world population and 2. especially to stop the growth of Muslims and Al-Islam.

Not surprising to us, the Clinton administration and Egypt's puppet government supports the nature of the conference and its draft document. However, we are fortunate that there has already been reactions from the Godfearing among the Christians and Muslims, as the Catholic Vatican and Islamic Studies Center at Al-Azhar (a very revered authority in the Muslim world) have vehemently come out in opposition to the U.N.'s Cairo document. These two major centers in their respective religious communities, oppose the document's aims to support homosexuality, premarital sex, youth promiscuity, abortion, and also includes a statement regarding equality of inheritance for women, which is a direct attack on and with the intent to change the Divine Revelation of The Holy Qur'an. Al-Azhar states that the document "destroys the values to which all revealed religions aspire".

The messages between the lines of the Cairo document are attempts to develop a global consensus that devalues the morality of human societies. If, under the auspices of the U.N., the conspirators are able to effect a single plan that expedites their objectives, they will produce worldwide anarchy through the destruction of the moral fibre that acts as an adhesive for what remains of justice, law and order on earth. As well, without sounding paranoid, this scheme continues the Zionists' objectives to wipe out Al-Islam and Muslims. We written before of the threat, as they see it, of the staunch faithful among Muslims, who are the least susceptible to the wiles that these would-be conquerors would weave, and therefore, the most potential "spoilers" to the plan to create a whole world of subservient classes.

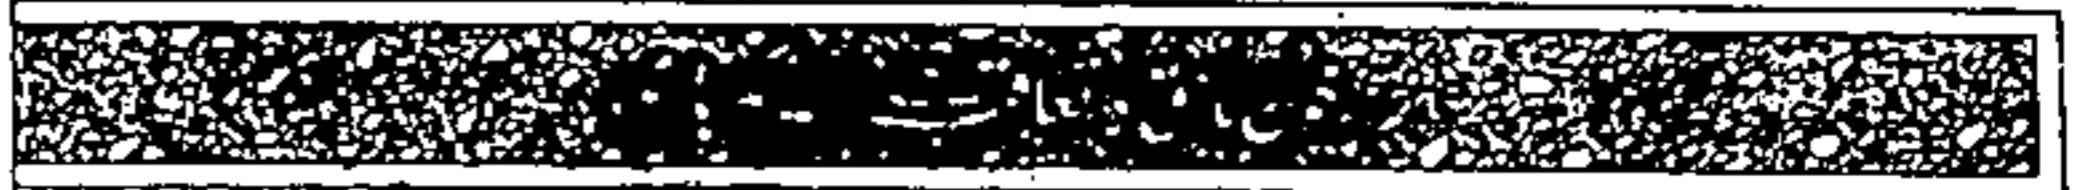

Thus, their plan is to eliminate a large portion of the world population, which happens to be Muslim, and to create a moral and social degradation that will diminish the strength of religious influence. The move towards unity among the religions to prevent and/or modify the "population" plan is a beginning step to save the world, as dramatic as this statement may seem. Additionally, Muslims should reconsider participation in this conference and its aims, as is or modified. We should really shun anyone or anything that considers it has the power or the right to change God's degree as to the number of souls that will come into this world and for no other reason than economics and their own designs.

Shah Sahib, Mubarik Ali Shah Jilani

APPENDIX - 4

WHO IS SHEIKH JILANI?

El-Sheikh Mubarik Ali Shah Jilani is Ahli-Bait, a direct descendant of the Holy Last Messenger Muhammad (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him). One of his forefathers, Hazrat Sheikh Abdul Qadir Jilani, is acknowledged throughout the Islamic world as being the supreme saint of Islam. Sheikh Abdul Qadir Jilani devoted his whole being to the worship and servitude of Allah, caring nothing for the empty pleasures of the worldly life. His efforts were rewarded by his attainment of spiritual stations unmatched by any other Wali (saint). He was endowed with the power to heal the sick, and manifested many other miraculous powers.

Sheikh Mubarik Ali Shah Jilani, like his famous ancestor, also lives a life of devotion to Allah and in service of His creation. His years as a young adult were spent in seclusion in the lofty mountains of the Himalayas, where his knowledge of the Divine (Ma'arfa) became very great, and he attained the high spiritual station and Allah gave him knowledge of healing physical and psychological ailments (which are in reality disorders of the soul), by using selected phrases of the Holy Qur'an and prayers of the Prophets.

Again, paralleling the life of his famous ancestor, exhibiting the love and compassion for humanity, and in the example of the shining characteristic of the Holy Last Messenger, Sheikh Jilani abandoned his life of seclusion and began his mission of service to humanity.

Sheikh Jilani Introduces Qur'anic Psychiatry

In 1976, a group of Muslim psychiatrists at the Psychiatric Research Center of Shahar Hospital, Taif, Saudi Arabia, set out to scientifically prove the fact that the Holy Qur'an is capable of healing, as stated by the following ayaat of the Holy Qur'an:

O Mankind! There hath come to you a guidance from your Lord and a healing for the diseases in your hearts, and for those who believe, a Guidance and a Mercy.

And We sent down in Holy Qur'an such things as have healing and mercy for the believers and but increases the miseries of the disbelievers.

Several reputable Muslim scholars were approached by these doctors but were unable to offer any assistance with the project. Finally when they came to Sheikh Jilani seeking his help, he eagerly accepted the challenge. The results of the project were monitored and recorded by the two psychiatrists, Dr. Gaber, a Christian, and a Muslim, Dr. Mahmuda, and witnessed by a team of scientists from eight countries for eleven months.

Patients suffering from many types of mental disorders were treated and cured. Essentially, the majority of patients responded remarkably well to Qur'anic therapy, especially those who had not undergone any previous psychological treatments. However, the response level of those who had previously received massive doses of drugs and "shock therapy" were very poor.

One of Sheikh Jilani's most prominent cases was that of the son of the chief bodyguard of King Fahd, who was critically injured in a car accident and had been in a coma for the past five days. He was brought in a special plane from Riyadh Hospital where doctors had tried unsuccessfully to revive him.

A large number of doctors and government officials stood outside the Center as he was laid on the bed. Everyone was asked to leave and headphones were placed on the patient's head and specially selected prayers from Holy Qur'an were played, which revived him within 15 minutes.

As more miraculous results of this type were achieved, it became evident that the project employing the Jilani Methodology of Qur'anic Therapy was a great success. Yet, the very psychiatrists who had begun the project, feeling the threat to their very profession by the effectiveness of the Jilani Methodology, began to turn against Sheikh Jilani and tried to discredit his work. When Dr. Dennis, who was Secretary General of the International Psychiatrists Association, and had witnessed the results of the project, was approached by Sheikh Jilani concerning an opportunity to introduce the Jilani Methodology in London, how disappointing for him was the doctor's reply, "I don't want to believe in religion."

For more detailed information on this fascinating subject, read Sheikh Jilani's books, Qur'anic Psychiatry and A Report on Curing Some Incurable Diseases.

The Afghan Jihad

Shortly after the conclusion of his project in Saudi Arabia, the Russians invaded Afghanistan. Sheikh Jilani had become involved with relief and aid to the Mujahideen and Afghan freedom movement. He extended a worldwide invitation to the Muslims to join in efforts of brotherhood to defeat these oppressors and murderers of their Muslim brothers. Eventually, Sheikh Jilani's quest for "Helpers of Allah" took him to America, where Muslims happily accepted his invitation, because the feeling of brotherhood among the Muslims there is very strong. However, despite their good intentions, the American Mujahideen were prevented from entering Afghanistan, because pressure from the U.S. government was placed on the Pakistani govern-

1982 American Muslims under the auspices of the Quranic Open University started relief work for Afghanistan with the full knowledge and consent of the Reagan Administration and the Pakistani Government under the late Gen. Zia Ul Haque. Yet, under the Zionist pressure, these highly respected leaders of the American Muslim community had to leave Pakistan. The reason given was due to CIA " concerns " that the group would later become a security threat within the U.S.A. Seen here, standing outside their spiritual headquarters, the Zavia (Shrine) of El Sheikh Jilani at Holy Daurbar of Hazrat Mian Mir, Lahore -- where their message reached out to suffering humanity all over the world. The Canadian Broadcasting Co. communicated in a documentary of this group, " ... somewhere in slums of Lahore, the message was pleaded. " Please note that the pure silver doors of the shrine, the all marble and red stone construction, and hand painted tiles of Mogul artists.

The American volunteers, who had already reached Pakistan were returned to the U.S. while those who were preparing to leave, had their visas cancelled by the Pakistani Consulate.

Islam In America: Invigorated And Refined by Sheikh Jilani

Aside from waking Muslims up to the urgency of coming to the aid of their brothers in Afghanistan, Sheikh Jilani's first visit to America had a much greater impact. He found there people from all walks of life who, in their quest for the ultimate truth, had accepted Islam with an enthusiasm unmatched anywhere else in the world. However, they were not properly educated in all of the aspects of Islam, which is more than just a religion, but a way of life which covers its every facet. On seeing this, Sheikh Jilani decided to remedy the situation and bring those American Muslims up to the level which would allow them to attain the highest perfection in living the life of a Believer.

His task was made somewhat easier by of the fact that anyone with a good heart, immediately upon casting their first glance at the Sheikh, knew that he was someone special, who had been sent by Allah as a guidance and a mercy. All too happily, the Muslims in America accepted him as their Imam and Murshid (Spiritual Guide).

Muslims who, previous to meeting the Sheikh, were known for their laudable qualities of kindness, bravery, generosity, veracity, etc. gladly accepted him. Those who had previously exhibited undesirable traits, and were known as liars cheats, and backbiters rejected him on some pretence or other. As Holy-Qur'an says:

Allah guides not the wrongdoing people.

That in itself was sufficient proof for his new followers that Sheikh Jilani was on the right path. He taught his students to live according to Deen-ul-Islam in letter and spirit, giving them a completed sense of self, purpose and understanding man's goal in life: to return to his Creator. With that understanding came the desire to live a more moral and righteous life for self and family. Therefore, Sheikh Jilani encouraged his followers in America to become upstanding citizens of their country, as well as Muslims. They were discouraged from participating in criminal acts of any kind. They were enjoined to obtain education and training in job skills and stay off the welfare roles as this depleted the dignity of the Muslims (and others). The majority of Sheikh's followers purchased land in areas away from urban metropolis and developed small villages where they could raise their children in a wholesome environment and live a life of pure Islam, free from the decadence of a godless society.

Establishment of Muslims of the Americas and the Qur'anic Open University

To implement his plan of raising the status of his American mureeds (followers), Sheikh Jilani established the Muslims of the Americas and its affiliate, Qur'anic Open University. Many new programs were initiated by MOA, especially in the field of tabligh (propagation of Islam).

QOU campuses were established throughout the United States, Canada, the West Indies, South America and Pakistan. Through these campuses, arrangements were made to send aspiring believers to Pakistan for intensified training in Islamic Studies. The students studied and received diplomas in Islamic sciences such as Fiqah (Islamic Law), Ilmul-Hadith (science of Islamic Traditions), Qiraat (proper recitation of Holy Qur'an), in addition to courses which would improve the quality of life and perfect Iman (faith), such as Adab (Islamic Etiquettes).

Those students who graduated from the courses of study in Pakistan, subsequently became instructors in their hometowns. In an amazingly short time, the light of knowledge began to shine all over the country while the darkness of ignorance was dispelled.

Banaa Tunnoor International Chapter, Inc.

In 1987, the first group of young American ladies went to Pakistan under the auspices of QOU. This group spent a particularly intensified four months of Islamic training in which they received knowledge equivalent to a full college year. This group was to initiate the ladies' arm of the Muslims of the Americas. Sheikh Jilani named them the Banaa Tunnoor. Prior to this, many of the women of MOA had studied directly under the Sheikh, and were trained in the Jilani Methodology of Qur'anic healing. They then established Qur'anic Therapy centers, and these ladies were the real pioneers in introducing Qur'anic Therapy in the United States, with excellent results and were automatically incorporated into the newly founded Banaa Tunnoor.

In addition to their great work in the field of Qur'anic treatment, Banaa Tunnoor, in cooperation with QOU, has championed the causes of oppressed Muslims all over the world. These ladies appear at seminars, conferences, etc. They have organized political rallies and demonstrations within the United States to bring to light the wretched plight of the people of Kashmir, whom they champion.

Help for the Kashmiris

In most recent years, the atrocities committed by the Indian government against the people of Occupied Kashmir has drawn the attention of Muslims all over the world, and in aiding these poor people, Sheikh Jilani is again in the forefront. He, with the help of the men and ladies of his following, has organized campaigns to raise badly needed food, medicine, blankets, and other essential items for the thousands of Kashmiri refugees who have been driven from their homes by the "scorched earth" and "ethnic cleansing" policies of the Indian dogs.

A valiant Kashmiri tortured to death for demanding right of self-determination.

Banaa Tunnoor have recently visited the refugee camps in Azad (free) Kashmir to see for themselves the condition of these unfortunates and determine the best methods of giving them aid, as well as to equip themselves with information on the history and current events of Kashmir. This has greatly assisted them in their fact finding tour and in gaining the support of the American people at home.

Author of Many Books for the Benefit of Mankind

Sheikh Mubarik Ali Shah Jilani has written a number of books, based around the central theme of helping man to realized the true purpose of his existence, and reach the stage of Insan-i-Kamil, the perfect man. Among these are:

- Futuhhat-i-Muhammadi
- The Science of Man
- Bab-ul-Mushahida
- Incurable Diseases
- Quranic Psychiatry

These books have been read by thousands, who have changed their lives dramatically by believing and following the advice the books contained. In addition, Sheikh Jilani has revised, edited and published the English translation of Rauza-tus-Safa, one of the most beautiful and detailed accounts of the greatest man who ever lived, the Holy Last Messenger, Muhammad (may the Grace and Mercy of Allah be eternally upon him).

Of the thousands whose lives Sheikh Jilani has met, helped and taught, all are in ardent praise of his adeptness, generosity, Divine Knowledge, selflessness, and devotion. They are incensed at those who are trying to spoil the good work he has done and continues to do. May Allah, Subhanna wa Ta' Ala, have mercy on him and protect him from the evil doers.

SPECIAL SUPPLEMENT

Bill & Hillary's Other Friends & Supporters

After completing the 2nd Edition of Target Islam the authors, of the same, were handed a research document that warrants immediate exposure to the American public. No doubt the contents of our book exposes sinister threats being orchestrated against Al Islam and the United States by those who wish to establish one world government. We've focused on many organizations that are international in scope but our new found evidence of global socialism reveals a violent group known as the Institute for Policy Studies (IPS) that is very well established right within the United States Government.

The IPS which is located in Washington D.C. was formulated in 1963 as an American based "think tank" for the communist-Marxist cartel. Historically, the 60's was an era of 'free thought' giving birth to a very vocal 'left wing' element. The Clinton's, who were college students at that time, gave more than hints of their aspirations to be intricate contributing members of the growing provocative left wing advocacy. It has long been the tactic of the IPS to weaken the structure of American government by placing promising operatives in vital areas of government so as to 'take over' from within. The over flow of the 60's 'left' has actually become the mainstay of the Clinton regime as the elite have been hand picked by Bill and cohorts to hold down strategic jobs in his administration

Such is the case with the appointment of Derek Shearer's as one of Clinton's most trusted economic advisors. Shearer is known as a staunch Marxist, one of Clinton's closest friends and confidants and the man to be reckoned with in the IPS. It was reported in a, once secret, FBI report that the IPS was a conduit by which the communist would 'infiltrate' the American government with anti-democratic and pro-communist policies. Reknown communist Samuel Rubin with the help of Armand Hammer's financial assets launched what became the IPS. The intricacy of their influence was such that both the CIA and the FBI cloaked IPS's anti democratic movement with a shield of classifications that kept things secret 'in the interest of national security'.

The IPS has been proven to have participated in various terroristic activities throughout the world through their links with other left wing groups such as Students For A Democratic Society, the Weathermen, and the Progressive Labor Party. Shearer confidants, Saul Landau, Arthur Waskow and Richard Barnet, IPS's co-founder, are directly connected to pro communist activities in Vietnam, the Middle East, Europe and South America. Barnet personally aided the communist of Nicaragua and Vietnam while Landau reached out to Fidel Castro. A secret agent of the KGB, Phillip Agee, whose disclosures caused the deaths of two British agents was ordered deported from England. Shortly thereafter, Morton Halperin was dispatched by IPS to support Agee and resettle him elsewhere. Ironically Halperin was rewarded with a job as one of Clinton's assistant Secretaries of Defense.

The IPS's affiliates reads like 'whose who' of the radical 60's. Names like Jane Fonda, Tom Hayden, Stokely Carmichael, William Kunstler and Ron Dellums, a democrat who leads the House Armed Services Committee, continuously appear. More frightful are the names of Leon Panetta and Les Aspin who in the early 80's raised monies for the IPS and have been rewarded with powerful positions in the Clinton administration. Anthony Lake who served Clinton as his National Security Advisor is reported from reliable sources to have worked as a teacher at the Washington D.C. school of the IPS along with Castro's Orlando Letelier, a Cuban spy.

All these individuals have a link with Derek Shearer and it is very clear that he had something to do with them being appointed to many highly influential and sensitive positions in the present administration. Another point to note is that Strobe Talbott, Shearer's step brother, was a companion of Clinton's while he was at Oxford receiving his indoctrination in 'one world government' as a Rhodes scholar. Talbott, who is a Council for Foreign Relation's member is now an Ambassador at large to the new...Soviet Union? One of the most manipulative former members of Congress, the ultra Zionist, Stephen Solarz is also associated with the IPS and looked to the IPS as being extremely knowledgeable of Human Rights. Solarz is highly regarded as a communist sympathizer in Washington D.C. and as a member of Congress he was instrumental in cutting off all U.S. aid to Pakistan and always sabotaged the efforts of the Muslim world to foster viable relations with their Christian brethren in America. He definitely functioned as Israel's 'foot soldier' in D.C. and vocalized his intent, openly, to obstruct anything that 'wasn't in Israel's best interest. Clinton attempted to find a position for Solarz in his administration after the former lost his seat in Congress but for some reason he was rejected by the FBI as a possible Ambassador to India and then Clinton considered him for a similar post in the Sudan but the idea fizzled. Pat Schroeder, that 'liberal' pillar of women's liberation is also a CFR member and a supporter of the IPS and Shearer's economic program called 'Economic Democracy' which is no more than a cover for a small elite possessing and controlling all the power and all the wealth in the world.

With so many communist operatives already in place in the Clinton administration the future for the United States and those who believe in the validity of the Constitution of the United States and what it stands for have a momentous job before them, without a moment to spare.

We would be remiss if we ignored the women behind her man or beside her man or the women in front of her man Hillary, "look at me" Clinton. As the little rich liberal, stereo typical of the 'left wing 'work-oholics', found on many college campuses in the 60's, Hillary Clinton made her mark as a supporter of many anti-establishment groups. The fact that Derek Shearer's sister was a close companion of hers might be just a ...coincidence or does the multi-faceted Shearer also run an "arranged marriage bureau?"

Hillary always seemed to be in a position to funnel monies to such organizations as IPS and the Marxist Salvadoran Guerrillas. Another point of extreme interest is that the WTC bombing defendants are being represented by Kunstler whose Center for Constitutional Studies and National Lawyers Guild also received monies through Hillary's hands. The point to be reflected on is that there is some evidence linking the bombing to pro-communist-Zionist groups that is being purposely held under a 'cloak of silence'. Is this also a coincidence? Mrs. Clinton has always seemed to be in the midst of the 'liberal progressives' or the 'new left'. It appears that the communist have two main operatives in Washington, one being Derek Shearer and the other being Hillary Clinton. It is utterly ridiculous for the American citizen to cover his or her eyes and say that they don't see the conspiracy unfolding before us.

Whatever is being done on Capital Hill is part of a carefully thought-out plan that is so intricate, to the minutest detail, that it is hard to fathom its existence. Perhaps the fact that the Communist Party of the USA was elated at the defeat of Bush tells us something.

We implore you, all Americans, whether you be Muslim or Christian, join hands for the sake of the One Almighty Creator, and save our country from the forces of evil and darkness that would like nothing more than see this country destroyed and under the control of the loyalist of the accursed Satan.

*Readiness of these countries has considerably increased as a result of 1991 Gulf War.

Iraqi casualties in the 1991 Gulf War are still undetermined. 63,000 Iraqis are prisoners of war. Reportedly, 3,700 Iraqi tanks have been destroyed and the backbone of its aircraft have either been destroyed or have sought refuge in Iran.
